CANADIANS COMPLAINING.

Do not Like Senators Turner and Lodge on the Alaskan Boundary Commission—Bad Faith Alleged.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

OTTAWA (Ont.) Feb. 23.—The Alaska Boundary Commission was discussed at a meeting of the Cabinet today. In an interview with a representative of the Associated Press tonight, a Cabinet minister said that while it might be proper to say that a protest had been made by Canada against the nomination of Senator Turner and Senator Lodge to be representatives of the United States on the commission, a remonstrance had been made on the ground that Canada was not being fairly treated in the matter.

When Canada agreed to arbitration by a tribunal as now proposed, it was with the understanding that three Judges of the United States Supreme Court would be appointed to sit on the case with British and Canadian judges of repute on the other side. The United States, he said, has failed to carry out this clause. Instead, the United States has appointed, particularly in Senators Lodge and Turner, men who cannot be called "impartial jurists of repute," as required by the treaty. On the contrary, they are looked upon as men who are strongly antagonistic to Canada's claims. Until an answer is obtained to this remonstrance, Canada will not name her commissioner.

Cruiser Vineta Fires a Salute as the Kaiser's Colors Come Down—British House of Commons Interested in What Disposal is to Be Made of the American Claims. Another Demand Upon Bowen.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PUERTO CABELLO, Feb. 22.—[By South American Cable.] The Venezuelan gunboat Restaurador, which was captured by the Germans, was handed over by them to the Venezuelan authorities here today. At 11 o'clock this morning, Commander Chalbund of this port, accompanied by an interpreter and the German commodore, Scheder, went on board the Restaurador, which is now lying in this harbor, in order to effect the delivery of the ship to Venezuela.

At 11:30 o'clock the German flag was lowered, the German cruiser Vineta firing a salute as the colors were brought down. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the Restaurador hoisted the Venezuelan flag, and was then handed over to Commander Chalbund by Commodore Scheder. The Vineta immediately afterward steamed out of this port.

UNHAPPY REVOLUTIONISTS.

ALMOST NAKED AND STARVING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CARACAS, Feb. 22.—[By South American Cable.] The last army of the revolutionists, under Gen. Rolando, recently advanced to within four hours' march of Caracas. The correspondent of the Associated Press yesterday visited the advance guard, camped at Esperanza, two hours' distant from Petare, and about twenty-five minutes' march from the advance post of the government forces. The revolutionists presented a sad spectacle, being almost naked and practically without provisions. Gen. Rolando is still at Caracas, with about twelve hundred men, in addition to the garrison there. The latter request was made on behalf of the German Embassy by Herr Baltassi, formerly Chargé d'Affaires at Caracas, but who has since come to Washington and has been assisting the embassy in the pending negotiations.

Mr. Bowen was again forced to decline this request, which he did politely, at the same time reminding Herr Baltassi that he was bound by the terms of the protocol, which provided that the £5560 should be paid at Caracas March 15 to the diplomatic representative of Germany. Just what reason was given by the German representative for making the request is not known. Such a draft, however, it is presumed, would be negotiable, and the result would be that the Germans could immediately obtain the money it called for.

The whole matter is presumed to hinge on the question of the return of the ships, national and private, which were taken by the German warships during the blockade, and regarding which there appears to be a hitch. The Italian Ambassador made a call on Mr. Bowen today and explained that he had been informed by his government that orders had been issued by the admiralty February 14, giving directions for the surrender of the ships taken by the Italian vessels.

Mr. Bowen today prepared and handed to the diplomatic representatives of the blockading powers the drafts of the protocols for submission of the question of the determination of preferential treatment to The Hague tribunal. The unallied powers will be invited to join in this [illegible]

[illegible] attack the government troops, but no movement was made. Every day's delay brings the cause of the revolutionists nearer to its end. President Castro intends sending troops to Rio Chico tomorrow from Barcelona, in order to cut off the retreat of the revolutionists.

Reports have been current that the revolutionists intended to attack La Guayra and Porto Cabello during the carnival, but the government officials are in no way alarmed.

MORE GERMAN "GALL."

DRAFT ASKED OF BOWEN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Having failed in the effort to obtain from Mr. Bowen the immediate payment in cash of the £550 which it was provided in the protocol of February 13, should be paid to Germany thirty days from date, Germany today required Mr. Bowen to give a draft for the amount, payable in Caracas on the latter day. FRENCH SUGAR MEN FACING RUIN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PARIS, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The sugar industry is approaching a crisis which, in the opinion of specialists, will have tremendous consequences at home and abroad. The effect of the international sugar convention of Brussels will reduce the tax on sugar consumption in France from 7.84 to 5.25 100 kilograms, or to 35 to 220½ pounds. It is now discovered that the cost of production and manufacture of sugar is 7.5, or 21 greater in France to 100 kilograms than in Germany or Austria-Hungary. Consequently the German and Austrian sugar producers, by merely making a sacrifice of one centime to the kilogram or one-tenth of a cent per pound, can flood France with foreign sugar and undersell the French sugar producers in their home market.

It is with consternation that the great French producers, who under the bounty system have enjoyed a monopoly under sugar laws enacted during the reign of Napoleon III, view the crisis. Sugar producers, sugar refiners, sugar dealers, beet growers and all who earn their livelihood directly or indirectly, by means of the sugar industry in its manifold ramifications, have held meetings and consulted with ministers of finance, of agriculture and of commerce. Committees in the Senate and in the Chamber of Deputies have been closeted together endeavoring to seek means of averting what sugar men describe as the impending ruin of a national industry. The supposed remedy has been found in an exhaustive study of the subject made by Lewis Ware, who suggests that all sugar entering into the composition of jams and preserved fruits should be taxed, not as sugar as at present, but as glucose. Ware demonstrates that sugar is by a chemical inversion transferred in the process of jam making into glucose, and that by a scientific and logical application of the fiscal laws, sugar in the form of jam or preserves, should be taxed only 1.7 50 centimes to 100 kilograms (or $1.50 to 220½ pounds,) which is the regular tax for glucose. This measure, in the opinion of the specialists, will enable France to produce jam and preserved fruit of quality superior to those of any other country in Europe, and at far less cost. It should be noted that England, which now manufactures 70 per cent. of the jams used in Europe, does so almost exclusively with fruit improved into Great Britain from France and uses for the purpose French or German sugar. It is admitted here and abroad that France produces fruit in greater abundance, and of superior flavor than is the case in any other country on the continent, and the utilization of this fruit for jams and preserves will consume under profitable conditions the present overproduction of French sugar.

With the laws of the Brussels conference in force, it is expected that the export of French sugar which was formerly "bounty-fed" will cease altogether. The gravity of the situation is disclosed by the fact that last year France only consumed 420,000 tons of sugar, while during the same period production exceeded 1,050,000 tons. With the probable cheapness of sugar there will doubtless be an increase in consumption, but, allowing for a reasonable increase, there will be something like half a million tons of French sugar clogging the market, the production of which costs $1 per 100 kilograms more than German and Austrian sugar. The crisis is, consequently, a desperate one for French producers, who, not only can no longer export sugar, but are liable to be undersold by foreign sugar in their own home market. Hitherto England has taken the bulk of French exported sugar, for the annual sugar consumption in Great Britain is 1,600,00 tons. Germany, with her annual production of 2,250,000 tons at a cost of $1 to 100 kilograms less than French sugar, will drive French sugar out of the English market. French sugar men seem hopelessly handicapped in the struggle, and the only salvation for them, as Mr. Ware points out, is the creation of a new industry, jam and preserves, which will absorb the surplus French sugar in the form of glucose, and avert a catastrophe tenfold more disastrous than the present dearth of sardines, which has plunged Brittany into a famine such as has rarely been witnessed in France since the Middle Ages.

Royal Political Organization That Started as a Joke, but Which May Elect Chicago's Mayor.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The "Strap Hangers' League," organized to boom John Maynard Harlan for Mayor, and started as a joke, has become a serious proposition. Politicians have begun to reckon with it. It was organized with fifteen members. Now it has 60,000. All its members are voters, and hundreds are joining its ranks daily.

The league was formed three weeks ago at a meeting of fifteen political humorists in the office of Everts G. Wrenn, a well-known broker. The lengths of straps were the subject of a mock heroic argument. A seat for every strap hanger, at least occasionally, was adopted as the platform. Then as its only bylaw, this bit of hilarity was carried: "If a woman in a crowded car is carrying three or more children and can prove beyond reasonable doubt that she is 90 years old, a strap hanger who happens to have a seat must give her his seat on pain of expulsion from the league, otherwise the strap hanger will retain his seat."

To carry out the joke, 50,000 buttons were ordered. On a neat white celluloid badge, which became the shield of arms of the league, were a hand pendant to a strap argent, and the words: "Strap Hangers' League; more seats; Harlan." These were distributed to all voters who applied, giving their names and addresses. The first 50,000 buttons were soon exhausted and another 50,000 ordered. Of the last consignment, already 10,000 have been given out.

The politicians awoke to the fact that a little joke suddenly had become a factor that might decide the coming election of Mayor, in which street-railway improvement will be a big issue.

ASSISTED THE POOR.

Daughter of a Rich Chicago Lawyer Tires of Society and Goes in for Charitable Work.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Martha Wilson, rich, cultivated and charming, grew tired of the frivolities of society and suddenly told her father she was going to "do something." Her father, John P. Wilson, is one of the leading corporation lawyers of the city. He smiled on his daughter. Next day the young woman, simply dressed, entered the office of the Bureau of Associated Charities and said: "I want employment."

"But this is a bureau of charities," stammered Assistant Manager Steele.

"If you have anything for me to do here I would be glad to work without pay," persisted the young woman.

"Then I'll give you work," replied Steele.

Miss Wilson was assigned to the task of compiling card catalogues containing the names of families in need of relief and seeing that relief was given. Early in December her mother and sister went to their California winter home. Miss Wilson stuck to her self-assumed task. She personally saw that coal and food were delivered to the poor. Finally the card catalogues were finished, and there was no more work for Miss Wilson. Regretfully the volunteer gave up her work, and yesterday she started to join her mother and sister in California.

BRAVE MEN RESCUED.

The Alexander broke her main shaft on the tenth of February. Five of the officers and petty officers of the Alexander volunteered to man a small boat and search for help. Forty-eight hours after leaving the collier they were picked up by the schooner Rivera. The four seamen who came to this port are Peter McGlinchey, boatswain; L. Reynolds, paymaster; Harry Ross, quartermaster, and John Staunchion, second assistant engineer.

WASHINGTON.

GOT QUAY GUESSING.

He Now Talks of Compromise Bill.

Republican Leaders also Weary of the Fight Over Arizona and New Mexico.

Senator Nelson Alone Insists on Opposing the Agreement to Let Territories In.

Omnibus Public Building Bill—Dr. Rowell Indorsed—Supreme Court Decisions.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The fight in the Senate for the passage of the Omnibus Statehood Bill seems tonight to be slowly and surely breaking up, and the best indications to be observed are that before tomorrow night the whole fight put up by Senator Quay will collapse like a house of cards in a cyclone, and this session of Congress will come to a peaceful and an orderly end March 4.

Senator Quay himself has gone so far toward quitting that tonight he said he "guessed" he would be willing to accept the compromise bill that will let New Mexico and Arizona in as one State, Oklahoma and Indian Territory in as another, and provide that neither shall have a vote in national affairs until after the next Presidential election, or until the year 1905. This shows that the Senator Quay is willing to make a bargain to avoid an extra session of Congress.

There is just one Republican member of the Senate who says he will not stand for this agreement, and he is Senator Nelson of Minnesota. [illegible] convictions, and the strongest conviction that he has just now is that Arizona and New Mexico are not fitted for Statehood, either separately or collectively. But the Republican leaders, grown weary of the fight, are willing to make a compromise.

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the Democratic members of the Senate will have a caucus to see whether they will agree to stand by the compromise bill. If they decide to stand by it, then it will be up to Senator Nelson to quit and let the compromise bill pass, or to fight it out alone until March 4. He is not apt to quit, and it is regarded as questionable whether the Democrats themselves will agree to the compromise that Quay has accepted. In that event, the thing most probable to happen will be that everybody will drop the Statehood fight for good, go ahead with public business, and that this will be the last that will be heard about Statehood for Arizona and New Mexico, at least for some years to come.

In this general mix-up the fate of the canal and Cuban treaties are in great doubt, but the President insists that he will call an extra session of the Senate to ratify both of them if they fail of ratification by March 4. And here comes another tangle. The House leaders insist that the Cuban treaty, being a tariff measure, must be approved by the House before it can become effective, and therefore that if the President wants it really ratified he must call Congress together. That view of the case is held to be correct by a good many able constitutional lawyers in both houses of Congress.

It is certain that the Senate leaders will urge the President very strongly not to call an extra session of the Senate to ratify the Cuban treaty, although they would not oppose such session to ratify the Panama Canal treaty.

LATER.—It is understood late tonight that Senator Nelson has provisionally agreed, after much pressure, to join other Republicans in the compromise, but he insists that a strong provision be added to the compromise bill against polygamy in Arizona. Senator Nelson, however, has not finally agreed to the compromise, and will not do so till he sees the compromise bill as finally drafted. But whether he agrees or not, it is understood that the Democrats at their caucus in the morning will "chuck the fat into the fire," and that there will be no Statehood legislation.

THE PROPOSED COMPROMISE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—There has been talk all day of compromise on the Statehood Bill. It was generally understood that what was known as the Spooner compromise, being the two-State bill, withdrawn by the Wisconsin Senator, would be satisfactory to the Republicans. The terms of this compromise have been given heretofore, save that the provision for the State of Montezuma provides that before Arizona can be set off as a separate State, the population of Montezuma must be 700,000, of which 300,000 should be in Arizona.

The Democrats, while talking in a conciliatory spirit, said that they had little hope that the Republican proposition would be acceptable to them. It is quite likely that when this proposition is submitted the Democrats will have a conference. Probably a coun-

HITCH ABOUT THE CANAL.

Atty.-Gen. Knox's Offer Not Yet Accepted by the Company.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Atty.-Gen. Knox has been notified by the new Panama Canal Company that his cablegram accepting an offer to sell its property for $40,000,000 will be answered by William Nelson Cromwell, general counsel for the company. Cromwell will tomorrow have a conference with Mr. Knox. He tonight refused to discuss the character of his instructions.

It is understood the offer of Atty.-Gen. Knox has not been accepted by the Panama company. Neither has it been finally rejected. Knox will be left an opportunity to submit a modified offer to Cromwell. It is expected that through the medium of personal negotiations an agreement may be reached. Unless the pending treaty is ratified before March 4, it is probable that the United States cannot obtain the Panama route for the original price of $40,000,000.

Atty.-Gen. Knox's cablegram was sent because information came to the President that a syndicate of foreign capitalists stood ready to take the Panama property, March 4, immediately after the option given to the United States expired. This syndicate does not propose to change the name of the company, but merely to increase its capital and expedite construction of the canal. Its acquisition of an option will not constitute a violation of the Monroe Doctrine, and the administration would be powerless to protest against its purchasing property.

PACIFIC SLOPE.

INSANE DEED OF CHINAMAN.

Probable Cause of a Costly Blaze in Berkeley.

Taylor Home Burned and Inmates Narrowly Escape.

Probable Rate War to Dawson—Espee Tunnel Caves In—Insane Woman's Freak.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BERKELEY, Feb. 23.—The home of H. W. Taylor in Peralta Park, valued at $25,000, was destroyed by fire early this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and two children had a narrow escape, the flames having almost enveloped the building before they were awakened.

An element of mystery enters into the fire. The body of the Chinese servant of Mr. Taylor was found near a creek, a half mile from the house, this afternoon. Near the body was a revolver and a can of opium. The Chinaman wore seven fanciful blouses, and three pairs of trousers. Yesterday the servant said he could not stay in the Taylor home, as other Chinese intended to kill him. It is believed he died from an overdose of opium.

The cause of the fire is not known. The early theory was that a defective flue caused it, but the later developments suggests an insane deed by the domestic.

DANGEROUS TUNNEL.

HAS HABIT OF CAVING IN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

REDDING, Feb. 23.—Just after the California Express passed through tunnel No. 9 this morning a great portion of the tunnel caved in. The northbound freight train, which was held on a siding south of the tunnel to allow the express to pass, found the passage blocked. Tunnel No. 9 is 1400 feet long, near Sims, and caved on a freight train recently, completely blocking traffic on the road for three days. The crew of the night train reports that today's cave-in is but nine feet distant from the place of the former one, and is of such dimensions that at least two days will be occupied in clearing away the debris and rebuilding the tunnel walls and roof.

PRINTING CONTRACTS SCANDAL.

LEGISLATOR'S CASE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

OLYMPIA (Wash.) Feb. 23.—Three firms holding printing contracts with the State today filed a written statement charging that Chairman Louis Levy of the Printing Investigation Committee, appointed by the Legislature, had solicited from them $1500 as consideration for giving a favorable report on the letting of printing contracts last July.

The charges were filed with the committee, and pending their investigation Levy was retired from the chairmanship. The committee will report to the House tomorrow. Levy, who is a member of the House from Seattle, claims that the charges are made to discredit his investigation, which, he alleges, has unearthed corruption, and he claims that two of the firms will recede from the charges when called upon to testify.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—Gen. Thomas J. Stewart, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, the members of the National Council of Administration, who are accompanying him on his tour, and the local committee in charge of preparations for the coming national encampment, have decided to hold the encampment during the week of August 17. Tickets will be put on sale by the railroads August 1, and they will be good for stopovers both coming and going. The time limit will probably be sixty days.

The Executive Committee will be empowered to invite President Roosevelt to attend the encampment. Gen. Stewart and party will leave for the East Thursday by the southern route. Stops will be made at San José, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara and Los Angeles.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Holds Gallinar for Murder.

REDDING, Feb. 23.—The Coroner's jury which investigated the killing of A. Garman at Keswick Station yesterday, brought in a verdict that the murder was committed by G. R. Gallinar. The testimony developed that, without notice or provocation, the freight agent shot at the saloon man four times.

Handsome House Burned.

BERKELEY, Feb. 22.—Fire completely destroyed the home of H. W. Taylor in Peralta Park this morning, entailing a loss of $35,000, partially covered by insurance. A Chinese servant who was sleeping in the basement when the fire broke out is missing.

Became Insane in Church.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—Grianzanta Ferraza, a Spanish woman who has been slightly demented for a number of years, became violently insane today while she was praying before the altar in the Spanish Catholic Church on Broadway. She rushed toward the altar, and began destroying the sacred pictures and statuary. After much trouble she was subdued and taken to the Receiving Hospital.

Toughs Overpower Police.

EVERETT (Wash.) Feb. 23.—A dozen toughs overpowered three police officers last night in Monroe, releasing another tough from jail. The officers were badly battered.

Competing Ferry Line.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—The new competing ferry line between this city and the Alameda shore will be in operation by May 1, according to present plans. The enterprise is owned by the San Francisco, Oakland and San José Railway Company, and a round $1,000,000 is being expended in the ferry service. The trestle running out from the Emeryville shore is 16,000 feet in length. The time occupied by the boats of the new line between this city and the other side will be, it is calculated, not more than twelve minutes, and an electric-car service, with three tracks on the trestle, will hurry the passengers through to Oakland and Berkeley.

Grand Army's Chief Arrives.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 22.—Commander-in-Chief Thomas J. Stewart of the Grand Army of the Republic, has arrived here from Chicago. Tonight he will meet members of the local committee and decide on a date next summer for the holding of the national encampment in this city.

I.O.G.T. Convention.

SAN JOSE, Feb. 23.—The fifth district of the I. O. G. T., met in convention here today. An interesting feature of the reports was that showing that the membership of the ten lodges in the district was 515; Band of Hope, 203; Juvenile Templars 124, making a total of 842 members in all.

Broke Fogarty's Spirit.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—Thomas Fogarty, a crippled railroad switchman, ended his troubles last night by drinking carbolic acid. Last October he was run over by a train. At the company's hospital here both of his legs were amputated at the knees. Thinking that this city would be more kind to him than his own town, Fogarty did not return to his wife and children, but stayed to gain their bread in the metropolis. It took eight weeks to break his spirit. He could not get employment.

Stanford-Berkeley Debate.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Feb. 23.—It was decided by lot today that the California University will select the question to be debated in the annual intercollegiate debate, and that Stanford shall have choice of side. The question is to be submitted by California University March 7.

LABOR.

SMELTER BURNING IN SPITE OF STRIKE.

MOUNTAIN COPPER COMPANY NOT DEPENDENT ON UNIONISTS.

About One Hundred and Fifty Men Refuse to Obey Summons to Again Walk Out—Federation of Miners Preparing for Seige.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

REDDING, Feb. 23.—One furnace at the Keswick smelter was in operation today, and the company declares its ability to keep it running without union men, and later, when desired, to blow in more furnaces. All in all, there are still 150 men in and about the smelter who did not walk out when the strike was called yesterday. On the other hand, there were but nine men left in the Iron Mountain mine this morning. The strike managers today prepared a free boarding-house for union men. They declare that the Mountain Copper Company can never operate as long as the ban of the Western Federation of Miners is on at Keswick and Iron Mountain.

STRIKE EPIDEMIC.

RAGING IN HOLLAND.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

THE HAGUE, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] All classes of Dutch workers appear to have caught the strike fever. The government is steadily strengthening its military position. Several forts have been supplied with additional men. Warships and police vessels have been assembled in the area of the Zuyder Zee, which now forms Amsterdam's harbor. These vessels, which are prepared for any emergency, carry a total force of 600 men and thirty-nine guns.

In many localities obstructions on railway tracks have forced engine drivers to lose time. In Amsterdam bakers are demanding 50 per cent. increase in wages. Nearly every branch of labor is contemplating the advisability of a move in favor of more money and less work. Meanwhile the government is preparing to legislate against strikes, at whatever cost. Automobiles, carriages and steamships will be utilized to prevent a complete breakdown of communication, should railway men go on a strike.

UNIONISTS MUST PAY.

HEAVY DAMAGES TO RAILROAD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 23.—[By Atlantic Cable.] In accordance with an arrangement arrived at between the parties to the suit the court today awarded the Taffvale Railroad Company $115,000 damages against the Amalgamated Society of Railroad Servants.

After a long trial the case of the Taffvale Railroad Company against the Amalgamated Society of Railroad Servants, involving many questions of great importance to trades unionism, resulted, December 18, in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. The latter complained of malicious molestation, picketing, etc., during the strike of 1900.

ON WAY TO ORIENT.

COMPERS'S SECRET AGENT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Guarded by the closest secrecy, an emissary of the American Federation of Labor is on his way to Hawaii and the Philippines. Samuel Gompers, president of the organization, who arrived in Illinois last night, admitted that the mission to the Orient would be surrounded with all the safeguards against publicity that ingenuity could devise. The result of the secret agent's tour is expected in a few months in the form of a secret though comprehensive report, by means of which it is intended, and hoped to influence legislation with reference to industrial affairs in American Pacific island possessions. That an agent of the federation would be sent to the Orient was known, but that he had already started, and that his work would be clothed in strict secrecy was told for the first time last night by Gompers.

Both Sides Hold Firm.

TOPEKA (Kan.) Feb. 23.—The outlook for a peaceable settlement of the Santa Fé wage dispute is rather unfavorable tonight. More conferences have been held, but the only development is a more persistent unwillingness on the part of either side to give in.

TUCSON NEWS ITEMS.

City Editor Sullivan Dead—Want Fort Established—Hotel Santa Rita Sold to Charles Shannon.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON THE EXAMPLE.

Senator Hoar Finds Comfort in the Conception.

American People Guided by Reverence for Him.

Constitutional Restraints Nothing Without a Sense of Duty on Part of Rulers.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—The anniversary of the birth of George Washington was generally observed in Chicago today, the principal celebration being that under the auspices of the Union League Club this afternoon in the Auditorium. Senator George F. Hoar of Massachusetts was the orator of the day, and delivered a eulogy upon Washington before an audience of 4000 people. His address was in part as follows:

"Edward Everett, in a great oration before the war, called upon his countrymen, as it seemed for a time, in vain, to forget, to turn a deaf ear to unpatriotic counsels, to the mad cry of treason and disunion, and return once more to the patriotic counsel of Washington. It seemed for a time as if the appeal were unheeded. But the spasm of popular madness and rage passed by, and Washington resumed his place again as our supreme counselor and leader. He became once more the example and the idol of every American soldier and statesman, and the farewell address became once again the political bible of every American.

"Doubt not that this shall occur again and again. Other temptations will come to us, and party spirit, like Satan sitting at the ear of Eve, will speak again in this baleful counsel into the ear of the people. Popular excitement will be kindled with the lust of empire and passion for conquest. The eyes of the people may be dazzled for a time by a false and tinsel military glory. But while the portrits of Washington hangs in every village; while his statues adorn our chief cities; while his monument is found in every State; while his life is on the shelf of every home; while the detail of his great career is studied in every university, while his image is in the heart of every youth, the people will come back again to the wise, sober and just counsel, in following which lies the path to a true glory and true safety. The American people will never long go astray so long as to every great question of national policy or national duty they know what Washington would say.

"The orator of today puts his emphasis on glory, on empire, on power, on wealth. We live under, and love, and we still shed our hearts' blood for the same flag which floated over our fathers and for which they were ready to die. But it sometimes seems that the flag has a different meaning, whether it floats over the Capitol or the ship of war or the regiment on the march or the public assembly. No longer speak of it, except in poetry, personality, as the symbol of liberty, but only as the symbol of power, or a false, cheap, tinsel glory.

"I think the popular reverence for Washington and Lincoln, for Sumner and Webster is not abated. But yet few political speakers quote today the great sentences which made them so famous or the great principles to which they devoted their lives. The fate of the nation depends, in the last resort, on individual character. Everything in human government, like everything in individual conduct, depends in the end upon the sense of duty. Whatever safeguards may be established, however complicated or well-adjusted the mechanism, you come to a place where safety depends upon somebody having the will to do right when it is in his rulers have the same interests as the people. If they have not, constitutional restraints will break down somewhere, except for the sense of duty of the rulers."

In the evening the principal event was the banquet at the Union League Club, where Senator Hoar was the guest of honor. Other speakers of the evening were President Bancroft of the Union League Club, President Eliot of Harvard College, Rev. Frank W. Gunsaulus and Bishop Galler of Tennessee.

Gay Was the Crowd and Great the Noise, the Field Day Won by Pomona's Boys.

EXCITING CONTESTS.

Yesterday's annual field day, fought out between the athletes of the University of Southern California and of Pomona College, furnished the most brilliant and exciting battle of the series, each of which has been won by Pomona.

The Pomona boys were victorious, two to one, in the events of yesterday. About the only chance the Methodists had to shout was over their capture of the relay race. The enthusiastic crowd, the college yells, the lively girls in college colors, the intense interest in every contest and the good records all contributed to the zest of an afternoon memorable in annals of college sports.

Rooters rooted at the field day yesterday until the blue dome of the heavens began to bulge and squeak at the joints.

Everybody had a lovely time except the abused college athletes. They weren't there to have a good time. They were there to have their muscles pinched. The way they treat college athletes is, honestly, scandalous.

Yesterday they had them cooped up in a shed back by the grand stand. It looked like a Turkish harem. They were lying around on pallets on the floor in the most ravishingly lovely bath robes.

Once in a while one of them would timidly inquire of some trainer who looked as though he might have human instincts, what they were shouting about. The trainer's eye would fall upon him critically. "Here, gargle this," he would say, and hand him a dose of something nasty.

Nobody had any time to waste on them at all. They had to sit and listen to the blare of the college band outside, and the yells and hazoos of the rooter and wonder what it was all about. Finally one blonde young giant discovered a very absorbing way of passing the time. He worked his feet out from under his baby blue dream of a bath robe and wagged first one big toe and then the other, a proceeding which he regarded with intense interest.

Finally a youth with a long badge came cantering in. "Better get out your jumpers," he said to the trainer.

The trainer was a young Hercules with huge bare arms.

He leaned over and yanked the bath robe off the nearest houri on the pallet. The youth climbed docilely up on a big sort of operating table.

"Say," he said, coaxingly, "how'd we come out in that last race?"

The only answer the trainer gave was to give his undershirt a jerk off his back and jab his knuckles into the lumbo-sacrril aponeurosis.

The prostrate jumper lay meditatively on his stomach and presently ventured, diplomatically: "Did we, did we do as well as we expected in that race?

The trainer flopped him half over and dug into the extensor carpi radialis longior. He gave a grunt, but it was only as a mental memoranda to look out for the brachialis antious when the athlete thing came in off the track. He didn't like the look of it. Of course he did not deign to notice the question.

By and by, when he had been pinched and pounded and jolted and kneaded and rubbed, they let him in. Somebody put a bath robe on him and he was led out into the air.

It all burst upon him there. The grand stand was a fluttering sparkle of color. In the distance he could not make out the pretty girls he knew must be there. He could only see an iridescent mass that quivered and spangled.

Up in the front was a rooter with an enormous megaphone. He was turned around with his back to the field and was trying to lead the college band. The college band was giving "Viva L'Amour" a hard fight for life. Some of the people in the grand stand were singing; some of them were yelling; a tall youth with so much ribbon on that he looked like a remnant sale, was standing up in a box swinging his arms frantically as though he had a fish bone stuck in his throat.

Out in the big field a young man was standing in a chalk circle with a cannon ball fastened to a wire. He swung himself round and round a couple of times. Suddenly one of his feet shot madly out through the air. Everybody with a pocket cyclone cellar crawled in for safekeeping. With one last convulsion, the youth unwrapped suddenly and the cannon ball went whizzing through air. Then everybody in the grand stand yelled.

Part of the big speckled mass of audience was shaded in blue and the other part was red and black. As the athlete came out on the track the blue shade was throwing a fit. By and by the yip-yapping yells died away and the blue broke out into a series of short barks.

It was a pleasant, drowsy day. The athlete, forgetting that he wasn't typically a human being, sat down on the grass to drink it all in. The band had broken into another tune and up in the grand stand they had begun to sing a song he had sung in happier days goe by before he had qualified for the 'varsity team. He had hardly struck the ground before another man in a bathing shirt pounced down on him. "Hully gee," he said, "you shouldn't be sitting on the grass here." Whereupon he fell upon him and patted and pounded and rubbed and kneaded him again.

Finally they stuck up the vaulting bar and after one or two had jumped, they dragged the bath robe off this dumb thing and told him to jump. He jumped as high as he could. When he got back, the trainer looked at him with pained reproach. "Say, what's the matter with you?" he said.

It came his time again, and a hush of stillness fell over the grand stand. It was "up" to him to save it for his college. He understood that his excuse for living at all was to get over that bar. Up in the grand stand the rooter in front of the orchestra raised his horn. Out of the sky the words fell upon him, "You can do it easy. Now's your time to shine."

He stood up for a minute staring at it. Then he grated his teeth. An expression that would strike terror to the heart of a pirate came into his face. He tore down the stretch of sward and gave one mighty dig into the turf. He began soaring up into the air; the bar shot under him and he came down planted gracefully in the dirt t'other side of the stick.

From the grand stand there came a roar. The thing seemed to rock and sway. The speckled crowd colors wavered and scintillated as though you were looking through dizzy eyes. The band blared out a few notes which were speedily lost in the yell that was in all the history of intercollegiate events have they been so badly whipped, so completely ground down into the dust, as in yesterday's contest.

In the 100-yard dash alone, outside of the relay race, did the University team secure a first place.

Although overwhelmingly defeated, the U.S.C. contingent showed fine college spirit and cheered their contestants royally throughout the dismal day.

To the disinterested onlooker it was a very good exhibition of field sports, both first and second places in the sprints.

ONE-ARMED HERO.

The expected happened in the high jump, Pomona winning both first and second places with ease. Height, 5ft. 3in.

The feature of this contest was the jumping of Pomona's one-armed athlete, Thomas. Notwithstanding his disability he cleared the bar at 5ft. 3in., and his colleagues claim he has done three or four inches better than this in practice. He jumps in almost perfect form, and was one of the most interesting figures of the day.

The broad jump was perhaps the biggest surprise of any event of the tournament. This contest was conceded to the University by nearly all the Pomona team, and the local school had confidently figured on both first and second places. But the University jumpers were in poor form and allowed their opponents to get the better of them. The distance was 20ft. 2in.. Noble taking first place.

The Methodist contingent, although disappointed, were not disheartened, and looked forward to the next struggle, the 220-yard dash, with keen anticipation. They expected to make a good showing in this sprint, and when Pomona won first and third places they realized that in all probability the day was lost. Hendrickson and M. Cadwalader for Pomona and Wilson and Keagy for U.S.C. were the competitors. The men got off from the line in a bunch and ran neck and neck for the first hundred yards, when Hendrickson began to lengthen his strides, passed his opponents and finished about a yard in the lead of Wilson, Cadwalader taking a close third. Time, 22 4-5 seconds, which is close to intercollegiate time.

WAS A FARCE.

The hurdle race was the farce of the day. The Pomona hurdlers soon distanced the Methodists, and most of the way the race was run in two sections, the Pomona men running neck and neck and their opponents also keeping abreast, but about fifteen yards behind their rivals. Noble won by a breadth, McCormick second and Williams, U.S.C., third. Time 17 2-5s.

The first place in the shot-put was won by Davenport of Pomona, by a put of 34 ft. 7 in. Broderson of U.S.C. took second place and Ross of Pomona third.

NEW RECORD.

Hendrickson of Pomona made a new record in the 440-yard dash, covering the distance in 52s. flat, which is two-fifths of a second better than the record held for several years by Elliott of U.S.C. This race was one of the prettiest events of the day. For the first hundred yards the men ran well together, then Seymour and Miller of U.S.C. began to draw away from Hendrickson and Newman, the Pomona runners. Finally, Hendrickson began steadily gaining on his opponents, and 100 yards from the finish the three men were running abreast. Fifty yards from the finish, Seymour weakened a trifle and Hendrickson plunged on his face across the line, winner by a few inches. Seymour finished second and Miller third.

McCormick of Pomona won first place in the hammer-throw, making only 88 ft. 3 in. Broderson of U.S.C. secured second place and Kepner of Pomona third.

Voorhees and Thomas for Pomona and Dean and Williams for U.S.C. were the starters in the mile run. Voorhees secured the pole, with Thomas second, Williams third and Dean fourth. Williams soon took the pace and held it until the last quarter of a mile, Dean taking second place and the Pomona men jogging on behind. About 220 yards from the finish Voorhees began to forge ahead, and at the 100-yard line commenced to sprint, and finished 10 yards ahead of Dean, who took an easy second place, with Williams third. One hundred yards from the finish, Thomas's wind failed and he fell in a heap on the FAMOUS VICTORY FOR POMONA'S TEAM.

THE WORST DRUBBING UNIVERSITY EVER RECEIVED.

Methodists Raised Great Hallelujahs Over Winning the Relay Race, Which Was Their Only Consolation—The Events One by One.

It is the same old story—Pomona won.

By a score of nearly two to one, the athletes of Pomona College defeated the track team of the University of Southern California in the annual intercollegiate field meet at Agricultural Park, this city, yesterday afternoon.

For twelve years the University of Southern California has sent forth her quota of athletes to struggle for field honors with the students of the Congregationalist College at Claremont. Every season the young Methodist collegians have entered the arena with fine courage and large hopes of success, but have invariably returned, not "bearing their shields," but upon them.

Sometimes they have lost only by a narrow margin, but never yet has victory crowned their efforts. But not the contests being much closer in many instances than the lop-sided score would indicate.

The weather was excellent for the meet; the slight breeze that was blowing when the first race was run off died down a few minutes later, and from that time on more perfect conditions could not be wished for.

The track had been well scraped and rolled, and was probably the fastest path upon which a field contest was ever held in this vicinity, and was in no small degree responsible for the good time made in all the sprints and runs and for the breaking of two intercollegiate records, one in the 440-yard run, in which Hendrickson of Pomona covered the distance in 52 seconds flat, breaking the record of 52 2-5 seconds, held for many years by Elliott of U.S.C. The other record was smashed by the U.S.C. relay team, who lowered their previous record by several seconds.

AN ANIMATED SCENE.

As early as 1 o'clock the spectaters began to assemble in the grand stand, where separate sections were reserved for the two contesting schools. Another section was assigned to the Occidental collegians, who were out in large numbers, and nearly as much interested in the outcome as the principals themselves, for they are to meet the winners next Monday on the Pomona College track at Claremont.

All the sections were aflutter with college colors, the University easily leading in the brilliancy of its display, and its bright bank of cardinal and gold was set off to fine effect by the lesser sprinkling of blue and white.

Horns, megaphones and other noise-making devices brayed their din long before the first event of the programme was announced and continued with none too frequent intermissions until the last race was won by U.S.C.'s relay team, when they sounded their noisiest flourish.

The number of fair coeds, ablaze with colors and enthusiasm, who witnessed the tussels, has never been equaled in any intercollegiate contest in the past.

There were comparatively few persons outside of the students of the various schools and colleges hereabouts in attendance, although nearly one thousand witnessed the events.

FIRST EVENT.

The management was late in getting the games under way, and it was 2:25 o'clock before the contestants lined up for the initial event, which was the 100-yard dash.

Seymour and Wilson were U.S.C.'s representatives, while Hendrickson and M. Cadwalader defended the honor of the blue and white. All the men seemed nervous, and four false starts were made before the men got away. When the pistol cracked for the fifth time the four men sprang from the line as one, and the race was on.

Seymour soon took the lead, and although pressed hard by Hendrickson, won by a small margin. Wilson of U.S.C. lost ground in the first few yards of the race, but he pulled up rapidly in the last fifteen yards and took a close third place. It was a pretty contest, and the time, 10 3-5 seconds, was very good considering that the sprinters were running in the face of a light wind.

The result of this race was the first disappointment for U.S.C., for the University students had counted upon track. He was quickly revived, however, and was able to walk to his dressing-room. The time was 4m. 52s.

Davis and Noble of Pomona tied for first place in the pole vault at 9 ft. 6 in. Davis tried for 10 ft., but failed. Woodward of U.S.C. took third place.

METHODIST GLORY.

The most exciting event of the day was the one-mile relay race, which was won by U.S.C. in the record-cracking time of 3m. 40s.

Four men were entered from each school, each man running a quarter of a mile. An innovation was made this year in the method of running off this contest. Instead of going around the mile track, as in former years, the men ran on a straight-away course in front of the grand stand.

Seymour was selected by U.S.C. and Thomas by Pomona to open the race. The men ran well together for the first 100 yards and then Seymour sped away from his plucky one-armed rival and reached his man 10 yards in the lead. Keagy increased this lead to 20 yards in his contest with Newman, giving Miller a splendid lead over Cadwallader. But this fleet-footed little Congregationalist succeeded in cutting U.S.C. advantage down 5 yards, so when Wilson of U.S.C. started out on the last quarter he was only 15 yards in the lead of Noble, his opponent; but by a masterful run he increased this lead 8 yards, and finished 23 yards ahead of the Pomona runner, winning the event and five points for his school.

Then followed a wild scene of joy among the University contingent, who had had little chance for jollification during the day.

Owing to the intense excitement, this race always creates, it is considered almost as much of an honor to win it as to be victorious in the general field-day score.

The University relay team has never been defeated by Pomona.

At the conclusion of the field day, Miss Seaver of Pomona College presented the winners of first and second places with pretty silk badges and the winning relay team with a beautiful silver and gold loving cup.

THE SCORE.

The order of events and the points won by the teams are as follows:

	Pomona.	U.S.C.
100-yard dash	3	6
High jump	3	1
Broad jump	3	1
220-yard dash	6	3
Hurdles	3	1
Shot-put	6	3
440-yard dash	5	4
Hammer-throw	6	3
Mile run	5	4
Pole vault	3	1
Relay	—	5
Totals	43	33

First place counted 5 points, second place 2 points, third place 1 point and the relay 5 points.

NOTES FROM THE FIELD.

The "hoodoo" which was so effectually burned previous to the intercollegiate football game appears to have come back to life and to be once more a factor in University affairs.

Melville Dozier, Jr., referee of the field day, was one of the most popular officials who has ever taken a hand in intercollegiate contests. His decisions were uniformly fair and were accepted with excellent grace by the members of both teams. His long experience in athletic contests has given him especial qualifications for filling such a position.

U.S.C. has just cause to feel proud of her coeds. They proved themselves loyal supporters of their athletes yesterday, and U.S.C.'s defeat cannot be charged to any lack of interest or encouraging smiles on their part.

Hendrickson and Noble were the star actors of the Pomona team, each of them securing two first places. Seymour did the best work of the day for U.S.C., winning their only first place, taking a very close second in the 440-yard run and being largely responsible for University's victory in the relay race.

Hendrickson is alleged by several U.S.C. men to be a professional, and he participated in the events under protest, but owing to the fact that Pomona would have won without him it is not thought the University authorities will take action in the matter.

The officials of the meet were: Melville Dozier, Jr., referee; Williams, Flint and Eryeart, judges of the finish; Lewis, Govan and Knowles, judges of the field; Wadsley, starter; Roberts, Charlton and Ellis, timers and Bent, announcer.

LAWN TENNIS.

HARVARD COURT GAMES.

Twenty tennis players spent the day on the new cement courts at the Harvard School in the southwestern part of the city, and an audience of thirty watched the matches.

The earlier day was a pleasant one for the sport, but toward evening the sky clouded over and darkness fell upon the players, compelling them to postpone the final of the men's singles and the men's doubles. Aside from this unsatisfactory ending of the day's play, the tournament was a distinct success.

The list of players included Freeman, Britton, Sinsabaugh, Way, Bell, Wayne, Miss Gabrielle Dobbins and the Misses Sutton, and the events were ladies' doubles, mixed doubles, men's doubles, and men's singles. The results were as follows:

Ladies' doubles: Florence and May Sutton beat Violet Sutton and Miss Dobbins, 6-2, 6-1.

Men's doubles: Holmes and Woodbury drew a bye and defaulted; Freeman and Britton beat Ainsworth and Rule; Way and Sinsabaugh beat Hart and Gorham.

Final between Freeman and Britton and Way and Sinsabaugh postponed for two weeks.

Mixed doubles: Freeman and Miss Dobbins beat Way and May Sutton, 6-6, 6-3, 6-2; Britton and Violet Sutton beat Sinsabaugh and Florence Sutton, 6-2, 6-3.

Final: Britton and Violet Sutton beat Freeman and Miss Dobbins, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4.

Men's singles: Holmes a bye, Woodbury beat Daggett, Freeman beat Britton, Gorham beat Ainsworth, Bell beat Wayne, Sinsabaugh beat Rule, Way and Hart drew byes.

First round: Holmes beat Woodbury, 6-2, 6-3; Freeman beat Gorham, 6-2, 6-1; Sinsabaugh beat Bell by default; Way beat Hart, 6-4, 6-2.

Semi-finals: Freeman beat Holmes, 6-1, 6-1; Way beat Sinsabaugh, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4.

Final between Freeman and Way postponed two weeks.

GOLF.

FAIRBANKS IS CHAMPION.

Walter Fairbanks, last year's amateur golf champion of Southern California, retained the title yesterday at the Los Angeles Country Club course by defeating C. E. Maud of this city by a score of 2 up and 1 to play in the final of 36 holes.

A large crowd followed the players around the course, and while they saw some fine golf at times, the match on the whole was not brilliant. Maud fell down several times from sheer nervousness; and on the other hand Fairbanks had hard luck on four or five holes.

The morning round of 18 holes was chiefly notable for the fact that Fairbanks finished it 3 up, which was due principally to good work on his part and poor playing by Maud. Maud started out in the afternoon round against this big handicap and Fairbanks essayed to make a runaway race of it from the first tee. He succeeded so well that he won the first three holes, thus putting Maud 6 down.

This would have been fatal to a young player, but it seemed to brace Maud up to good work, and he showed this by halving the next three holes. The spectators that were following the men took fresh courage at this exhibition, and their feelings must have insensibly affected Maud, for to the surprise of everyone, he won the next four holes, Fairbanks getting into bunkers and barrancas in an astonishing manner. The champion had better luck at the next two, for he halved.

With the score 2 down against him at "punchbowl," or No. 15, Maud got into shape again and won "punchbowl" by a fine 15-foot putt. This encouraged him, apparently, for he took "longacre," or 14, and thus made the score square, after being 6 down in the early part of the afternoon. The strain incident to his work and the presence of the big company of spectators doubtless unnerved him again, for he lost No. 15 by missing a short putt half the length of his putter. Fairbanks was thus 1 up again and made it 2 by taking No. 16 and halving No. 17, thus winning the championship by the close score of 2 up and 1 to play.

As showing how nervousness and hard luck will go together, there are no better illustrations than in Maud's play at both 15 and 16, and also at No. 11. He lost both 11 and 15 by short putts, which a class B man should have made, and then found hard luck at No. 16. He was on the upper side of the hole at the edge of the green and decided to gobble the hole as a last desperate chance, and putted the ball fast over the green. It went straight across the hole, but in jumping over dropped just enough to strike the opposite rim of the cup. Instead of going in, and winning him the hole, the speed of the ball was such that it bounded back and lay dead four inches from the hole. Then the champion, with two putts, won the hole, which made him dormy 2 and he halved the next.

BASEBALL.

HOLIDAY CONTESTS.

At the Chutes grounds yesterday afternoon a large and enthusiastic audience saw an exciting game of ball between two teams from St. Vincent's College. These were the regular college club and one made up from the alumni, and the former won by a score of 4 to 3. Bill Hanlon of last year's Los Angeles club played first base for the alumni team, and distinguished himself in the first inning by knocking a home run with two men on bases. He also secured three of the four hits made by his team. R. Fitzwilliams, who pitched for St. Vincent, was easily the star of his team, for he not only struck out twelve men, but made a double and a triple out of three times at bat, and allowed but four hits.

The score was as follows:

COUNTY WINS.

FIESTA PARK BASEBALL.

In a whirlwind finish the baseball team from the County Courthouse won the game at Fiesta Park yesterday by a score of 9 to 7. Only seven innings were played. The score was tied at the end of the sixth inning, each team having seven runs. In the first part of the next inning the Courthouse nine made two runs and the ball and bat artists from the City Hall were unable to get beyond the first bag in their final try.

A year ago the City Hall won the contest by a score of 7 to 6. With a game apiece the rivalry between the nines will be stimulated and the "rubber" will doubtless be an interesting contest.

City Hall players ascribe the defeat to the number of "ringers" who played on the Courthouse nine. It was stated yesterday that only three of the county's players were on the January payroll. Anderson, who caught for the Los Angeles nine last year, was behind the bat for the Courthouse and three other players are regular ball artists.

However, the City Hall supporters were in no position to object, as their team numbered such well-known professional ball players as Foster Carlisle Wright, Mayor's clerk, and Roland Manahan, City Electrician. Right Fielder Wright, dressed in a large Panama hat and fancy vest, made a great impression and Center Fielder Manahan admittedly was the most active man on either team.

Lelande and Sawyer were in the points for the City Hall and their good work saved their team from a more crushing defeat. The Courthouse team excelled in fielding and batting. The line-up was as follows:

City Hall.		Courthouse.
Lelande	catcher	Anderson
Sawyer	pitcher	Hill
Martin	first base	Murry
Tufts	second base	McCollough
Rivers	third base	Simons

MARTYR'S CROWN SET ON SPOOK DOCTOR.

"DIVINE HEALER" RICHMOND DECIDES TO GO TO JAIL.

Although Eighty Years of Age He Refuses to Pay Hundred Dollar Fine and Will Appeal to Supreme Court on Habeas Corpus Proceedings.

Although he is 80 years old, Dr. Sylvester Richmond has determined to become a martyr to the cause of spookdom.

Richmond is a divine healer, who brushes away earthly ails by the laying on of hands. One day he made a sad mistake in trying to cure a young woman named May Brooks of cancer of the stomach in that way. She turned out to be the private detective of a medical society, who prosecuted him for practicing without a license. The old healer was convicted and fined $100 with the alternative of 100 days.

The case was appealed, but Judge Smith affirmed the decision. A couple of days ago, the Spiritualists held a meeting with a view of paying the old man's fine. Instead it was determined to let him go to jail and appeal to the Supreme Court on habeas corpus proceedings.

Yesterday the old doctor surrendered himself to the police and began to serve time. W. H. Shinn, Esq., has been engaged to take the matter to the Supreme Court.

BIG JAIL DELIVERY.

Fifty-two Prisoners Released from the County Prison Yesterday—Old Bastile Still Has Plenty of Guests Left.

The largest single jail delivery ever made at one time in Los Angeles occurred yesterday when fifty-two prisoners in the County Jail were given their liberty. Most of these were hobos serving short terms for vagrancy, but there were a few long-term men among them whose sentences had expired. So many would not have been released in a bunch, but for the fact that the law makes it imperative that prisoners in county jails be set free only on the Monday last preceding the expiration of their sentences. Some of those turned loose yesterday would not have gotten out before the latter part of the week, if it were not for this provision of the law.

The number remaining in jail yesterday evening was 112, so the institution was by no means depopulated by the big exodus. In fact, there are quite enough left for comfort, and before the doors were opened yesterday morning the place was crowded almost to the point of suffocation. The upper tank, which is calculated to accommodate about 12 lazy prisoners, contained thirty-seven yesterday morning, and those remaining were greatly relieved by the thinning out that took place.

The new jail now in course of construction cannot be completed too soon, as the old one is entirely inadequate to accommodate the increasing horde of criminals and hobos which find lodgment in it during the winter months.

RAILWAY HELD LIABLE.

Death of Ruth Trotter Under Car Wheels on Boyle Heights Saturday Charged to High Rate of Speed.

"We find that said Ruth Elizabeth Trotter came to her death on the 21st day of February, 1903, by being accidentally crushed and mangled by car No. 250 of the Los Angeles Railway Company, and we do hereby exonerate the motorman and conductor in charge of said car from all blame, but the company should be held liable for allowing their cars to run at such a rate of speed that said cars cannot be stopped within 500 feet."

The above was the verdict reached by the Coroner's jury in the inquest held at Bresee Bros.' morgue yesterday morning over the body of the five-year-old daughter of William C. Trotter, superintendent of the Pacific Gospel Mission, who was crushed beneath the wheels of a Boyle Heights car at Matthews and East First street Saturday afternoon. The facts as published were: Ruth stood between the rails and hesitated while a car was approaching down a grade. She was struck and borne along by the fender for about 100 feet, and her body was then forced under the fender and a front wheel passed over her neck. The car was not stopped until it had run nearly 500 feet. James Boyle, motorman, testified that he had stopped the car as soon as he could. Several eye-witnesses testified that the car was running at a rate of fifteen miles an hour and that, although the motorman applied the brake, it was not sufficient to stop the car.

The father and mother of the dead girl are nearly prostrated with grief and Motorman Boyle is at home sick.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY.

NEW GOVERNOR BELOW.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 23.—Archie F. Crowell, one of the rival county surveyors, who secured possession of the office Saturday by ejecting S. L. Ward, who also claims to be the Surveyor, is making a business of guarding the portals. Either he or his deputy is there all of the time, by night as well as by day. The plan is to keep Ward out. Ward has sworn out a complaint against C. E. Morey, Crowell's deputy, and Morey has sworn to one against Ward, both documents charging assault. Ward says that he will not use force in trying to secure possession of the office. Crowell, it is understood, says that he will not hesitate to use force in retaining it, if the conditions warrant.

BOVARD AND HIS TUSSLE.

Presiding Elder Tells How He Won the Fight.

Brought World Conference to the City of the Angels.

The Brethren Didn't Want to Go to Cincinnati—That Settled It.

Rev. Dr. G. F. Bovard, who has been in New York making the fight for bringing the Methodist General Conference to Los Angeles in 1904, returned home yesterday, having been preceded some days by the news of his victory.

Dr. Bovard, who is presiding elder of the Los Angeles district, is well known as a Methodist of strenuous type, and if confidence in his ability to win had any influence in bringing about the desired end, then Dr. Bovard did not lack support, for he had the Methodism of the whole of Southern California at his back.

From the moment of his arrival at his West Ninth-street residence, at 2:30 yesterday, his telephone was kept hot with congratulations upon his success.

"When I got on the ground I found that not a single member of the committee took seriously the proposition to bring the conference to Los Angeles," said Dr. Bovard, "so I had to play for time and saw wood.

The commission of seven, to whom had been delegated the business of visiting the cities that propose to entertain the conference and make a recommendation to the committee for its action didn't deem it worth while to visit Los Angeles, so the first thing I did was to go to the commission and tell them I wanted to talk to them. 'We invited you to come out and see us and offered to furnish transportation both ways, but you didn't see fit to do it, and now I want time.'

"I got the time, and when the commission did finally make its report to the committee, it carried no recommendation in favor of any city in the contest. Philadelphia, Boston, Saratoga and Cincinnati all had strong delegations on the ground, and Cincinnati had the additional advantage of three members on the committee, while Los Angeles had but a single representative.

"They all smiled pleasantly when this city was mentioned, but refused to take the matter seriously, saying that the whole church would look upon it as a junket. I felt very uneasy at the start, and had a hard fight to hold back action on the part of the commission of seven, until I had time to work up a little sentiment in our behalf. The eastern cities had their delegations at work among the local clergymen in New York, who for one reason and another wished the conference to go to one of these cities, and they lobbied among the members of the Book Committee. At the time I made my statement to the full committee, giving our reasons, setting forth our advantages, and announcing that we proposed to pay a bonus of $25,000 to the conference, I did not have a single supporter in the whole committee. When it became apparent that Cincinnati was the likely winner, two or three came over to me, and I bent every energy to keep them in line.

"When at last the commission made its report without a recommendation, and laid down the following points for the guidance of the committee, I knew the fight was won for Los Angeles: 'First, the importance of the field: second, hotel accommodations: third, money consideration: fourth, ability of the local committees to handle the conference.'

"As to the second and fourth points, the commission placed Los Angeles and Cincinnati on an equal footing, and as to the importance of the field, I made the best use of that, you may be sure.

"The money problem was the hard one. It would cost but $17,000 to take the conference to Cincinnati, and just about $65,000 to take it to Los Angeles. Here was a difference of between $42,000 and $43,000, of which we have agreed to put up $25,000. Cincinnati worked that point very hard.

"Flowers didn't count in the fight, and there was no use talking about the beauties of California. Some of them had been out here, and when I mentioned Hazard's Pavilion they tried to have fun with me. 'That is just a plain board building, isn't it?' 'Why, it isn't plastered is it?' 'How about heat?' These are a few of the questions they fired at me.

"I told them that it wasn't plastered and that they wouldn't need any heat; they could have all outdoors for their meetings, and could do their lobbying in Central Park. I told them they could hold the conference in a tent in Los Angeles, so far as the weather was concerned.

"It would have been a great card for me if I had been in possession of the action of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and the Chamber of Commerce, concerning the erection of a large convention hall. Since we have secured the prize, I hope that proposition will be pressed hard. Cincinnati made a hard fight against us on that point, and it would be a great thing if we could have a magnificent hall to accommodate them when they come.

"When the first vote was taken Los Angeles got seven votes, and during the long fight she never fell below that. I felt sure that if I could keep my men in line until all hope of taking it to Philadelphia, Boston or Saratoga was gone, I could win, and that proved to be the case. On the twenty-first ballot we actually won the fight, but I would not have it so. There were eighteen votes in all, two members of the committee being absent. On the twenty-first ballot Los Angeles got 9 votes, Cincinnati 7, and 1 was cast blank. The decision was given in our favor; but I told them I did not want it that way; if we couldn't have it by a majority vote we didn't want it at all. That settled it; the next ballot stood: Los Angeles, 11; Cincinnati, 6; Philadelphia, 1. On motion of Cincinnati the vote was decalred unanimous in favor of Los Angeles.

"Throughout the whole contest everything was good-natured and pleasant, but we were all in dead earnest just the same, and the greatest surprise to me is that we won the fight with the balance of $17,000 standing in favor of Cincinnati. I sincerely hope that the convention hall project will go through, for if it doesn't, we must at once begin to lay our plans for furnishing sufficient accommodations in some other way.

"The general conference will be a big thing for this city—a much bigger thing than most people suppose—and we will put forth our best efforts to give it good accommodations."

Johnson will entertain at dinner at the Del Monte restaurant, the committee appointed by the Southern California Conference to conduct the campaign to secure the General Conference, which has just come to a successful conclusion. KEY-NIPPER THIEF ROUTED.

Plucky Woman Shoots and Scares Him, Then Screams—Record of One Night of "Nips."

Miss Orpha Black, an invalid, who occupies a room at No. 515 Court street, heard someone coming up the stairs to her room at about 3 o'clock yesterday morning, and divined that it was a burglar. She awakened her sister, with whom she discussed the situation in a whisper, and waited. A few minutes they heard the key turn, and the door opened. Miss Black drew a revolver from under her pillow and fired through the window just as the burglar pushed over a chair which had been used to brace the door. To add to the burglar's discouragement, Miss Black screamed and the fellow ran down the stairs and away.

The "key-nipper" man demonstrated his skill between midnight and morning yesterday by entering the rooms of three persons on Buena Vista street, two of them in the same house, and carrying away enough money to last him for a few days.

A. Pearson, who has a room at No. 361 Buena Vista street, woke up yesterday morning to find his trousers gone and also $8 which was in the pockets. J. Nyland, who occupies the hall, missed a pair of the same articles and $2.55. F. P. Roe of No. 353 Buena Vista street, was visited by the same burglar, who took a pair of trousers which contained nothing. Yesterday morning the men found their missing apparel in their back yards.

TO COVINA BY TROLLEY.

Huntington to Extend Los Angeles-San Gabriel Line at Once.

Huntington's next move will be upon Covina. He has had surveyors in the field for a week, making notes for an extension of the San Gabriel line, and he has notified the citizens of Covina that he will give them trolley connections with Los Angeles via San Gabriel if Covina will furnish the right of way. This proposition strikes the Covina people very favorably, and an enthusiastic meeting of property owners was held yesterday at the Covina Country Club to further the project. E. H. Lahee was chairman, and J. R. Matthews secretary.

The following Right of Way Committee was appointed: Stephen Green, J. O. Hauser, F. M. Douglass, C. H. Ruddock, F. M. Chapman, E. R. Cossman, A. P. Kerckhoff, B. D. Richard, A. M. Seeley. These gentlemen will no doubt secure the necessary guarantees, and work will begin on the road within thirty days, according to Mr. Huntington's assurances.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

OFFICE OF THE TIMES, Los Angeles, Feb. 23, 1903.

LEGAL HOLIDAY. Today is a legal holiday, and all banks are closed.

SALARY TOO SMALL. During the inflation period, Congress raised the President's salary to $50,000. When prices declined after the panic of 1873 Congress passed an act to reduce the salary to the old figure, $25,000. But Gen. Grant knew his own value, even if he was a habitually modest man. He vetoed this bill. At the present time it is proposed to raise the President's wages to $100,000.—[American Banker.

TAKE CARE OF CHECKS. A New Year's check which said much more than it meant recently turned up in a Lewiston (Me.) bank. It appears that the facetious drawer decided to send some of his young relatives a "check" for 365 happy days in the coming year. Lacking one of the printed forms which runs in this fashion, "The Bank of Happiness pay to So-and-so 365 happy days," he took his usual check book out and filled in the slip, forgetting to cancel the name of the bank, and even the word "dollars." The words "Happy days for the New Year" came below the line. The bank where the check was presented by the favored relative saw no reason why it should not be honored, thinking that the donor had added a New Year's greeting as a matter of courtesy. A family consultation has now been called to unravel the tangle.

COMMERCIAL.

ROPE DROPS. A half-cent decline occurred in rope yesterday, and the new quotations are: Manila, per pound, 13½ cents; sisal, per pound, 10½ cents; sisal hay rope, 1 and 4 strand, per pound, 9½ cents; sisal bale rope, 2, 3 and 4 strand, per pound, 11 cents; duplex, 14 cents.

SOCKEYES DULL. Referring to salmon, the Seattle Trade Register says: "The demand for sound sockeyes and Alaska reds is strong in the East, but the out on pinks and chums has apparently not accomplished the desired results."

WE SHOULD HUMP. The insignificant part played by American vessels in the commerce of the United States is shown by the fact that out of a total commerce of $1,483,886,197 the port of New York in the fiscal year 1902, only $297,432,000—less than one-fifth—was carried in ships flying the American flag.

LAST YEAR'S CORN. Broomhall estimates the world's corn crop of 1902 at 2,078,000,000 bushels, against 2,082,000,000 bushels in 1901; barley, 1,004,000,000 bushels, against 823,000,000 bushels; rye, 1,163,000,000 bushels, against 1,459,000,000 bushels, and rice, 1,512,000,000 bushels, against 1,394,000,000 bushels.

GENERAL BUSINESS TOPICS.

CITRUS-FRUIT SHIPMENTS. Shipments of citrus fruits from Southern California on Saturday and Sunday were about 225 carloads of oranges and 16 of lemons. The total for the week, November 1, 1902, to date, is 6294 carloads, of which 689 are lemons.

WOMEN WEAR BOYS' SHOES. "I would hardly believe it," said a fashionable shoe clerk yesterday, "but the smallest pair of our women customers now invariably asking for boys' shoes. The masculine styles of women's shoes no longer satisfy them. They must have a shoe made exactly like a man's and so we sell twice as many boys' shoes as formerly and proportionately less of women's. What is the reason? Well, really, I cannot say, except that it is a fad. As a matter of fact, I know that the boys' shoes are not really as comfortable, for they cannot be gotten to fit as perfectly as those designed for women's feet, and more than one of my fair customers complain of blisters and calloused feet, but still they want the boys' shoes and insist upon the strap being left on in the back."—[Philadelphia Record.

AMERICA'S SWEET TOOTH. Messrs. Willett & Gray, the well-known authorities on sugar matters, figure that the consumption of sugar in the United States amounted in 1902 to 192,-tons, or 5.16 per cent. in excess of the consumption of 1901. The American Sugar Refining Company manufactured 58.97 per cent. of all the refined sugar consumed during the year, while the independent refiners turned out 36.5 per cent. In 1901 the American Sugar Refining Company made 57.9 per cent. of the total output of refined sugar, while the independent refiners turned out 38.5 per cent.—[Bradstreet's.

MINING NEWS.

Los Angeles Subscribes Liberally for the Mining Congress—State Mining Bureau.

That the business men and mining men of Los Angeles appreciate the importance of securing for this city, if possible, next year's session of the American Mining Congress is made manifest in the fact that Col. Thomas Ewing, president of the Southwest Miners' Association, and F. W. Braun, a director of the association, in a preliminary canvass among a few of the business firms, signed up nearly $2000 toward the fund for defraying the expenses of the congress, in the event of Los Angeles being selected as its meeting place next year. Only twelve firms were called upon, and every one of them signed the list, the amounts ranging from $100 to $250. As the amount subscribed by these few firms is about one-third of the amount required ($6000,) it is pretty evident that there will not be any difficulty in raising the whole sum; it would, in all probability, be subscribed in one day were it necessary to put forth such an effort. The selection of Los Angeles for next year's meeting of the American Mining Congress, if, fortunately, it is selected, will be productive of important results to the mining interests of this southwestern region. It will be the first congress of the kind to have been held in this city, and all business firms and mining companies will do well in their own interests to promptly subscribe toward the amount required to cover the expenses of the congress. All amounts subscribed, as stated in the heading of the subscription list, are to be called up only in the event of Los Angeles being selected by the congress as its meeting place for next year; if Los Angeles is not selected the subscribers will not be asked for a cent of money.

STATE MINING BUREAU.

The board of trustees of the California State Mining Bureau has just made its report for the two fiscal years ended June 30, 1902, accompanied with a report from the State Mineralogist. Not since the year 1894 has the latter made a report, but in lieu thereof he has issued bulletins from time to time on special mining subjects. This is explained in the following passage from the report:

"It may be stated that while complying with the provisions of the law in submitting these reports of the trustees and the State Mineralogist, that of the latter is much curtailed from its former dimensions by reason of the change of plan in issuing the publications of the bureau. It was at one time considered best to issue in one volume biennially the reports not only of the trustees and State Mineralogist, but of all the field assistants, etc. This usually made a bulky volume of some six or seven hundred pages, costly to print and mail, with much of the contents a year or more behind the date. Under the provisions of the Act of March 23, 1902, in addition to requiring the State Mineralogist to report biennially to the board of trustees, he was given the privilege of issuing from time to time such bulletins as he deemed advisable concerning the statistics and technology of the mineral industries of the State.

"The board of trustees has, therefore, indorsed the plan carried out by the State Mineralogist in the matter of the publication of bulletins."

It is stated in the report of the trustees that there are now more than 15,000 specimens of ores, minerals and metals in the museum. A large and valuable collection of crude petroleum and oil-bearing formations from the several oil-producing districts in the State is being prepared, and is nearly complete. Among the unusual specimens in the museum is one showing crystallized gold formed in the decayed root of a tree.

The financial statement for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1902, shows receipts of $28,840.45, (including the State appropriation of $28,500,) and expenditures of $27,484.79, leaving a cash balance of $1,355.65.

An inventory statement in the report, is that California is mining, quarrying and commercially utilizing forty-nine mineral substances.

CONCENTRATION BY OIL.

What is known as the Elmore process of ore concentration by means of oil is being very closely watched by mining men all over the Pacific Coast, and articles about it have now and again been printed describing the results obtained by means of this process. Mines and Minerals, of Scranton, Pa., sends The Times an advance copy of an article on the Elmore process of ore concentration, written by W. H. Booth, from which the following is taken, and which contains some new suggestions of interest to mining men:

"The Elmore process of ore concentration depends for its action on properties of materials and natural laws of an order very different from what have hitherto been employed in concentration processes. The reasons requiring the process, or one of the reasons, is the peculiar property of finely divided metallic ores of floating on water in spite of the very much greater specific gravity. The reason of this floatation is somewhat obscure. In panning a quantity of pulp containing copper sulphide, a gentle sweep of the water over the deposit in the shallow pan will float off a quantity of the finely flaked pyrites. It would appear that the particles possess the property, common to carbon, to spongy platinum, and to other metals of occluding a quantity of gases. The adherence of the float pyrites to air would appear to be the cause of their floatation. That this is so is proved, or considered to, be proved by the fact that if water be boiled, on which there are floating particles, these will sink. They sink because the temperature of 212 deg. Fahr. air and other gases are all driven out of the water. Deprived of their attached air the metallic particles sink by virtue of their specific gravity. All attempts to save float metal have hitherto met with little or no success.

"In the process of working out the Elmore process it was found that the mineral oil had the property of adhering to sulphides, but would not adhere to oxides. This is a general statement. There are one or two exceptions on each side, but these are usually only partial exceptions. A striking illustration of the property is the adherence of the oil to copper sulphide, and its non-adherence to magnetic iron oxide, which can thus be readily separated from each other. The best oil for the purpose is by no means the most expensive, but is simply crude mineral oil from which the burning oils and the lighter lubricating oils have been distilled off. If a metallic ore-bearing pulp be thoroughly incorporated with oil, the oil will continue to absorb the ore particles until its specific gravity exceeds that of water. But it is essential that this degree of absorption be not attained. The oil must only be allowed to pick up so much ore as will not increase the specific gravity of the mixture to such an amount as will not be compatible with easy flotation of the oil on water.

"Oil recovery is specially valuable in the case of brittle ores which run to extreme fineness and float away. Practically total recovery may be effected if crushing is carried fine enough to liberate metallic particles so that these may make contact with the oil. This, of course, is a matter of the greatest importance in connection with West Australian, Cripple Creek, and similar telluride ores. The values in these ores are not only very easily pulverized, as compared to the rock associated with them, but they break in a peculiar laminated form which makes it impossible for them to sink in water, hence the absolute failure of the repeated attempts which have been made to save such values on vanners, tables, etc."

BRYSON STILL HERE.

Tardy Agent of Tennessee Has not Yet Arrived to Take Alleged Kidnaper Back to Memphis.

T. D. Lawler, an agent of the State of Tennessee, was expected to arrive here last Saturday with requisition papers for the extradition of Hugh W. Bryson, to answer an indictment preferred against him by the grand jury at Memphis, on a charge of kidnaping. But the Tennessee official has not yet arrived. He telegraphed Under Sheriff Tonkin several days ago that he had been delayed en route by a railroad wreck. The supposition is that he arrived at Sacramento after business hours Sunday and could therefore not present his papers to the Governor before today, Sunday and Monday both being holidays. He will probably arrive here tomorrow.

Bryson, who was arrested at Oxnard last November on a warrant sworn out by Miss Priscilla C. Howell, charging him with abducting her baby, of which she alleged he was the father, at Memphis, Tenn., four years ago, resisted extradition at that time, and Gov. Gage refused to honor the requisition brought by an officer from Tennessee, on the ground that the papers were defective. Bryson was accordingly released, and has since remained here, while Miss Howell returned east to begin a new attack.

Information was received here on the 19th inst. to the effect that Bryson had been indicted by the grand jury at Memphis, and requesting that he be arrested and held in custody until an officer arrived with extradition papers. Bryson was arrested that same night by Detective Harry Saphir as he was leaving the Orpheum Theater. He was taken to the County Jail, but before morning his father and Attorney Willoughby Rodman got him out by putting up $1000 cash bail.

Bryson expresses eagerness this time to return to Tennessee to face the accusation against him. If Gov. Pardee honors the requisition, as it is presumed he will, if the papers are in proper form, there will be no delay on Bryson's part in getting back to Memphis, as he appears impatient to start and have it all over with. His friends feel confident that he will have no trouble in clearing himself of the charge.

It is rumored that Miss Howell accompanied Agent Lawler west to see that Bryson does not again escape her. She and Bryson both come of good families in the South, and her charge is that he seduced her under promise of marriage. After her baby was born he persuaded her to go on a visit to her sister in Texas, she alleges, leaving the baby in care of a friend of Bryson's. When she returned some weeks later the baby was missing, and she was never able to find out what became of it, further than that Bryson and a medical friend of his took it away one night from the place where she had left it.

Miss Howell alleges that up to that time she had kept her relatives from finding out that she was the mother of an illegitimate child, but when her baby was taken away from her, her mother love asserted itself over her pride, and she made the facts known and has put in nearly all her time since then in the endeavor to find her child and to bring her alleged betrayer to justice. She professes to have spent a small fortune in the pursuit, all to no effect, except Bryson's arrest for the second time.

Prior to his first arrest and his exposé by Miss Howell, Bryson was living at Oxnard under an assumed name. Since the exposé he has resumed his own cognomen.

Some Important Provisions—Pessimistic View Taken by French Paper.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 23.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Tewfik Pasha, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, notified the Austro-Hungarian and Russian ambassadors today that the Sultan had agreed to adopt the scheme for reforms in Macedonia.

SULTAN GOT NOTE SATURDAY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 23.—The identical note of the subject of the reforms in Macedonia, presented to the Grand Vizier Saturday by the Austro-Hungarian and Russian ambassadors, was translated into Turkish and handed to the Sultan the same evening.

The powers recommend, in addition to the appointment of an inspector-general of gendarmerie for three years, with ample powers to act independently and to requisition troops in case of emergency, and the reorganization of the gendarmerie and the police under European instructors, that Christians be admitted into the gendarmerie in numbers proportionate to the population, without being required to read and write the Turkish language. Amnesty is also demanded for all persons who have been arrested for political offenses.

The scheme for the administration and financial reforms in Macedonia as proposed by the powers, besides planning a more equitable collection of taxes, provides that local expenses shall be a first charge on the revenues of each vilayet. In the event of there being a surplus, this may be sent to Constantinople. Measures are also demanded for compelling the Albanians to respect the laws.

The power which it is proposed to give to the inspector-general of gendarmerie, whose appointment or recall and whose successor must be confirmed by the powers, thus virtually detaching him from the direct control of the authorities at Constantinople, was expected to encounter opposition from the Turkish government. The latter also was expected to object to the proposed financial arrangements, and to the basis on which it is planned to recruit the gendarmerie, which, if the suggestions of the powers are carried out, will, in several districts, be practically entirely composed of Christians, owing to their predominance in certain parts of Macedonia.

PESSIMISTIC GAULTOIS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PARIS, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gaultois, commenting upon the Macedonian situation, says no one places any faith in Austro-Russian reform methods.

"It is to be feared," the paper continues, "that the Bulgarian government may not be able to hold the frontiersmen in check. If collisions should occur with the Turks the Bulgarian government must support the national honor. As for the report that Russia does not desire war in the Balkans, who is to know the secret wishes of the power which is destined by its interests and geographical position to take the prominent position in this part of the world?"

TRYING TO TRACE MISSING FAIR FURS.

CONSUL-GENERAL GOWDY OPENS INVESTIGATION IN PARIS.

One of Appraisers of Original Garments States Positively That There Has Been Substitution, but the Other is not Quite So Certain.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, Feb. 23.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Consul-General Gowdy has opened an official investigation into the charges that valuable furs which belonged to the late Mrs. Charles L. Fair were changed after her death for inferior articles. A box containing the furs had been received here from San Francisco, and the seals were broken today by Mr. Gowdy in the presence of all those who had a part in handling the articles up to the time of shipment to America.

Edward Kelly, representing the estate, and MM. Chanet and Grumwaldt, who appraised the original garments as being worth $21,200, were among those present. When the box was opened a short cloak and a muff were disclosed, both of rather ordinary appearance. M. Chanet said positively that the articles were not those he had appraised. M. Grumwaldt was not so positive as to whether the articles were not the same. Representatives of two forwarding companies made statements tracing every movement of the package from the time it was turned over to them.

Messrs. Gowdy and Kelly questioned the various parties, and later Mr. Gowdy requested the appraisers to submit tomorrow a written appraisal of the value of the articles shown today.

The investigation will be continued for several days.

SANTA MARIA.

RUSHING IRRIGATION.

SANTA MARIA, Feb. 23.—Irrigation on the Union Sugar Company's immense ranch is progressing day and night, in order to get the beet crop in as soon as possible. The new pumps on the Holt place are of the latest improved pattern—a ten-inch centrifugal, capable of raising 3000 gallons of water a minute. The fuel is supplied by the Western Union and Pinal Oil companies.

Citizens of Guadalupe are much aroused over the action of its peace officers in laying in wait for night trains and arresting tramps that may be stealing a ride. The citizens claim that the arresting is done simply to make the county pay fees, and as the parties arrested are not molesting the town, the expense that the taxpayers are put to is unnecessary. The subject will be brought before the grand jury at its next session.

Marian Bascom Barker, arrested some months ago for robbing a drunken man in Lompoc, has been found guilty and sentenced to serve two years at San Quentin.

VENTURA LAD SHOOTS CLOSE TO HIS HEART.

LITTLE WILLIE EATON STEALS AND IS REPENTANT.

Says He Doesn't Know Why He Did it and Tries to Kill Himself—Town Seeks Recognition from Railroad and Public.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

VENTURA, Feb. 23.—Willie Eaton, the sixteen-year-old son of Mrs. Elizabeth Eaton of this place, and a nephew of R. H. F. Variel of Los Angeles, shot himself at 11 o'clock this morning, with suicidal intent.

Young Eaton is a freshman in the High School, and is very highly spoken of by his companions and teachers as a youth of exemplary conduct and strict probity, but the unfortunate affair developed the fact that the boy had a mania for pilfering that none of his friends, not even his mother, knew about.

Last night the home of a neighbor named Lawrence was entered and a trifling sum of money taken. The Lawrences reported the matter to the Sheriff, who delegated Deputy Sheriff W. H. Russell to investigate. Suspicion pointed to the lad, and Russell looked him up. He was questioned, and frankly said he had taken the money, but did not know why. He said he had spent 30 cents of it at a bowling alley, which was found to be the case, and he promptly handed the rest to the officer.

There was no desire to arrest the boy, and Russell took him to his mother.

The matter was explained to Mrs. Eaton, and in answer to her the boy, wringing his hands, told her he didn't know why he had done as he did, and that he was sorry.

Russell left. Nothing had been said or done to young Eaton to intimidate or frighten him in any way, but the officer had not got far away when he had occasion to go back again.

The lad had gone to the woodshed, after procuring his brother's 38-caliber revolver, and, throwing his coat back, pressed the muzzle against his left breast, and pulled the trigger. The bullet passed through within an inch or two of the heart and came out at the center of the back. The little fellow said, "They wouldn't forgive me." Dr. Cunnane was called to attend him, and upon investigation stated that, though the wound was dangerous, there was some hope that the boy would pull through.

WANTED—RECOGNITION.

The people of Ventura have long felt that the Southern Pacific has slighted them in the way of traffic accommodation and service and is detracting from the town as a tourist resort by smothering its possibilities. This has been done not directly, but by giving other places more attention and more advertising.

One of the things the railroad company has done and is doing is making a Saturday and Sunday rate to Santa Barbara from Los Angeles of $2.50 for a round-trip, and advertising that city exclusively in its efforts to get passengers to buy these cheap tickets. Ventura wants a special rate from Los Angeles and wants the fact advertised.

So far as the railroad company is concerned, the traveling public has no idea that such a place as Ventura exists. This hurts, and steps are being taken to remedy the trouble. The railroad company has been appealed to, and has expressed a willingness to meet Ventura county towns half-way. To the end of getting proper railroad recognition, the boards of trade of Santa Paula and Ventura have taken the matter up, with the intention of doing something to make known the great Triangle driveway in the county, and a meeting was held this evening by the two boards looking to making the drive a tourist feature.

The railroad will advertise the driveway if the people of the two towns will see to it that tourists are properly cared for when they alight from the cars at these two points. This feature the boards of trade will attend to.

The Triangle is one of the most beautiful drives in the State. Its course lies from Ventura to Nordhoff, sixteen miles; through the Ojai Valley; from Nordhoff to Santa Paula, another sixteen miles, through the picturesque Santa Paula Cañon, and from Santa Paula to the sea at Ventura, sixteen miles. The road all the way is kept at all times in excellent condition, and the people are of the opinion that, if tourists could be prevailed upon to travel over it, one of the grandest sections in Southern California would be unfolded to them, and this section would be vastly benefited thereby.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL CAMPAIGN.

The Sunday-schools of the county are fixing for an aggressive campaign the coming summer and fall. There will be a county convention in the fall and several district conventions earlier in the year.

At the last county convention, which was held in Santa Paula, the Rev. C. N. Queen, of the Congregational Church of this city was named as county president to succeed Alex Waldie. At the same meeting the following Executive Committee was named: Prof. S. W. Good and J. D. Lowes of Ventura, Prof. Zahn and Mrs. House of Santa Paula, F. M. Packard and Mrs. Mary Standlee of Oxnard, Rev. Mr. Wright of Hueneme, and as secretary C. W. Stewart of Saticoy.

Saturday this committee met with President Queen at his study, and mapped out much work for the good of the Sunday-schools the ensuing year.

The work of the district conventions to be held was gone into exhaustively, and the dates and places of holding the three conventions were determined upon as follows: March 1, at Oxnard; May 1, at Nordhoff, and June 1, at Santa Paula.

During the summer and following the district conventions much work is contemplated in getting ready for the county convention, which will be held in Oxnard on November 20 and 21.

As committeeman to represent the county at the State Sunday-school Convention to be held in Los Angeles the last of April, C. W. Stewart was chosen.

MRS. CASH ILL.

Mrs. Emma Cash of Los Angeles, the president for Southern California of the W.C.T.U., who began her annual work among the local W.C.T.U.'s in this county last week, was forced to give up her labors. She was taken sick with tonsolitis before she reached Hueneme, after she left Ventura on Thursday last, and had to depart for her home in Los Angeles. Temporarily Mrs. West, the county president, took up Mrs. Cash's work, after which Mrs. Kenny, former State president, of Los Angeles, was sent for. Mrs. Kenny is at work among the county unions.

REDLANDS.

NEWS NOTES.

REDLANDS, Feb. 23.—Washington's birthday was celebrated Saturday, yesterday and today. At the First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning were patriotic services, which Co. G attended. The auditorium was decorated with the national colors, and Rev. J. A. Marquis, the pastor, spoke.

Thursday the Eastern Star members of Los Angeles are going by special around the Kite-shaped track, and will spend some time here.

Early in March Evangelist Potter will open a series of revival services at the First Methodist Church.

A special train excursion for Playa del Rey will leave Redlands next Saturday morning via the Santa Fé at 7:30 o'clock. Round trip $2.50. Tickets for sale by E. G. Judson, 102 Orange, or F. G. Ferand, 16 West State street, Redlands. Tickets good until Monday night, but train returns Saturday night, leaving Playa del Rey at 7 o'clock in the evening.

KERN COUNTY.

NO MORE QUARTER MEALS.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 23.—An organization is being effected of the local hotel and restaurant proprietors, to be composed of all those in Bakersfield and Kern. A preliminary meeting was held Sunday at the Southern Hotel and another will be held for organization Wednesday. Nothing has been stated officially, but it is generally understood that it is the intention to eventually raise the price of meals. A leading restaurant proprietor, when asked, was reluctant to talk, but finally admitted that "probably the 25-cent meal will soon be a thing of the past in Bakersfield." "This action," said he, "simply means that we cannot make it go at present prices. The cost of meats is a big factor in this, and also the cost of labor." Another proprietor said: "It is not so much a matter of raising prices as it is of protection against our union help."

The Cooks' and Waiters' Alliance has been conducting a very active campaign against the employment of Chinese help in restaurants. A boycott was in force for several days last week against a leading restaurant on account of a Chinese cook. The proprietors claimed they could not find competent help from the union in Bakersfield, but on securing a man from San Francisco the Chinaman was discharged and the boycott raised. Another restaurant has agreed to employ no Chinese after the first of the month. Chinese are still employed at the leading hotels.

CASH HOLD-UP.

William Flynn, section foreman of the Santa Fé on the Sunset line, was held up and robbed of $112 early this morning by two armed men. Flynn had drawn his pay Saturday night and came to Bakersfield with it and checks from Japanese section men to cash. He started home on a hand car shortly after midnight, and about three blocks from the depot the highwaymen sprang upon him and struck him a blow with a pistol that knocked him off the seat. They beat and kicked him until he was helpless, and one held a pistol in his face while the other robbed him.

"BARKEEPS" RAISE.

The Bartenders' Union has adopted a wage scale of $20 a week for ten hours work a day to take effect March 3. There is considerable opposition among the smaller saloon keepers, who claim their business will not warrant the additional expense.

The "barkeeps" have one of the leading unions here, as might be expected. Unionists take kindly to saloons, and vice versa for business reasons.

BUSY ARBOR DAY.

Arbor day was celebrated by the people of Bakersfield and Kern with enthusiasm and ceremonies. The celebration was under the auspices of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, assisted by the Native Sons, the Elks, the pupils in the public schools and citizens. The Elks and Native Sons turned out in overalls and did the manual labor of planting about a mile of trees along both sides of Union avenue from the baseball grounds to the cemetery. About one thousand children from the public schools opened the exercises singing "Columbia," after which an address was made by Alfred Harrell and a letter read from the Stockton Arbor Club extending congratulations. Johannes Reimers, landscape gardener of the Santa Fé, was present and assisted in the work.

In Kern City exercises were conducted by the Woman's Club, and the school children planted trees around their grounds. At many schools throughout the county similar work was done.

WHY ARIZONANS DON'T FAVOR COMBINATION.

FIGURES SHOWING COMPARATIVE CONDITIONS.

Statistics of Population, Postoffice Business and Internal Revenue—Arizona's Rapid Progress—Would Prefer to Join Southern California Rather Than New Mexico.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Feb. 20.—In some quarters there appears to be a degree of surprise that Arizonans are not welcoming the chance to secure Statehood in combination with New Mexico, the title of the new State to be Arizona. Assuredly the new subdivision of the Union would be an imposing one, with a northern line 603 miles long, and an area of 235,380 square miles, only second to Texas, with her 262,290 square miles, and passing California with her scant 156,000 square miles. The New Mexicans appear not averse to the arrangement. It would turn over to them control, by virtue of their greater population. It would be thought that the Republicans of Arizona might favor it, for the combined State would be Republican, under the present conditions, while Arizona appears to be safely Democratic. But they do not, and join with the Democrats of Arizona in affirming that better by far fifty more years of territorial government than acceptance of the compromise measure proffered.

Here are a few figures that show to a degree why Arizonans are not fascinated with the prospect of union:

POPULATION.

	Arizona.	New Mexico.
Census population, 1900	122,931	195,310
Census population, 1890	59,620	153,592
Population gain in ten years.	63,291	41,717
Percentage of gain in ten years	106	27

POSTOFFICE STATISTICS.

	Arizona.	New Mexico.
Number of postoffices	239	272
Presidential postoffices	19	14
Annual revenue from same, last report	$129,287	$ 95,654
Total postal revenue, last report	156,863	119,228
Postal revenue, 1890	28,416	45,620
Gain in twelve years	$128,449	$123,583
Percentage of gain	452	272
Postal revenue per inhabitant, annual	$1.40	.81

INTERNAL-REVENUE BUSINESS.

	1902.	1902. 10 years.	Gain. Per ct.
Arizona	$75,205	$41,569	$33,636 181
	1892.	1902.
New Mexico	21,671	48,039	29,538 55

It is significant, as an indication of substantial progress that the postal receipts of a single Arizona town, Phoenix, in 1902 equaled the entire postal receipts from Arizona in 1890, $28,000. In 1890 New Mexico had nearly twice Arizona's postal revenue. In 1902 she is found in the column behind her less populous, though more progressive, sister.

On the question of Statehood, Arizonans are not unanimous, though it is probable a large majority of the voters would be found in favor of full enfranchisement, believing, whether mistakenly or not, that Statehood would bring blessings not attained save through the fullest degree of self-government, would purify politics, would give capital a more stable political foundation, and would secure more consideration from the general government. Those who believe in this wise are willing to bear increased burdens of taxation to attain the ends sought.

But whether the Arizonan is a Statehood advocate or not, he is locally patriotic. He is intensely proud of his Territory, her name, history, growth and attainments. He considers himself American in the fullest sense of the word. English is the language of the Territory, and rarely can there be found a person who cannot speak the tongue. Save along the immediate southern border, an interpreter of Spanish is about as useful in the courts as is one of German. The period of adobe architecture and of frijoles is as surely past as it is in Los Angeles. You can find reminiscences of it in Los Angeles, and so you can in Arizona.

If Arizona were to be annexed or absorbed, she would prefer, by far, to fall into the arms of Southern California, whose people more nearly approximate the types of her own citizenship. As one editor writes: "Southern Californians are 'our kind of people.'" Some fanciful ones have even suggested "Californa" as a fitting name for the combination.

But no combination should be had on any side, for Arizona "is peculiar to herself." If she be judged not fit for Statehood today, she will be ready for the burden within a very few years, judging by the present rate of advancement. In a far greater degree than the differences between Northern and Southern California, does she differ in laws, customs and character of population with her well-esteemed neighbor on the east, and natural limits fence her in. On Arizona's eastern line is the great barrier of the Sierra Madre chain, on the north is the Grand Cañon's abyss, on the west are the Mojave and Colorado deserts, cleft by the tide of the majestic Colorado, and on the south lies a foreign country. Waste country is all around, but within a circle whose outermost line is 150 miles from Phoenix, lies a region of capabilities for production, agricultural, mineral and pastoral, that scarce can be rivaled on earth.

A Man Without a Country.

A local correspondent writes as follows:

"I find myself today, after over forty years' residence (twenty-five in St. Louis,) a man without a country.

"I came as a boy to this country in 1862, enlisted in a New York artillery regiment in 1863 and served in Gen. Miles's Brigade, Second Corps, until January, 1865, and as orderly on Gen. Ramsey's staff to conclusion of the war. If my memory serves me right, on my enlistment I swore allegiance to the United States and renounced all allegiance to any other country, ruler, Prince or potentate, and especially King—— of ——. That, I always supposed, made me a citizen of this glorious country. Nothing of the kind. I have voted for every President since 1864, also in most of the State and municipal elections, have been clerk and Judge at elections and all this time a veritable 'Indian' and a good subject for Mr. Folk's attention.

"Some time ago I applied for a minor government position. Papers correct, recommendations O. K.; examination before civil service board, etc., etc., only to find that I must submit my naturalization papers or find two people that knew me before I was 18 years old to swear before a court. Where to find two men that knew me thirty-seven years ago and how to pay them to come to St. Louis to swear to it is more than I can do.

"So I am not a citizen here, and as I have no opportunity to again swear fealty to King —— of ——, I suppose I am, like Capt. Marmaduke, 'a man without a country.'"—[St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

He: Certainly, my angel. What is it? Did me go through any trial for your dear sake and I'll do it. Ask for the Golden Fleece, and if such a thing is in existence I'll get it—aye, even though I must swim the seas, climb the loftiest peaks, or search in the fuming craters of mighty volcanoes, I'll do it.

She: It isn't much, my dear. Mamma said I must ask you how much you intended to allow me a week for pin money.

BABY'S FUTURE
Something for Mothers to Think About.
Lives of Suffering and Sorrow Averted
And Happiness and Prosperity Assured by Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills When All Else Fails.

Every child born into the world with an inherited or early developed tendency to distressing, disfiguring humours of the skin, scalp and blood, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude, not only because of its suffering, but because of the dreadful fear that the disfiguration is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest and most effective treatment available, viz., The Cuticura Treatment.

Warm baths with Cuticura Soap to cleanse the skin and scalp of crusts and scales, gentle applications of Cuticura Ointment, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and mild doses of Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to cool the blood in the severer cases, are all that can be desired for the alleviation of the suffering of skin tortured infants and children, and the comfort of worn-out parents.

Millions of women use Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, for baby rashes, itchings and chafings, in the form of washes for annoying irritations and inflammations, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at office of Treasurer Pacific Branch, N.H.D. V.S., Soldiers' Home, Los Angeles county, Cal., until 12 o'clock M., March 2, 1903, and then opened, for furnishing and delivery of supplies in accordance with instructions and specifications, copies of which, with blank proposals, and other information, may be had upon application to T. The Assets of The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York (organized 1843) exceed those of any other life insurance company in existence. They are over which is more than any other life insurance company in the world has disbursed.

It has paid Policy-holders over

A policy in The Old Mutual gives a man or a woman that sense of assurance which cannot be enjoyed under private investments.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflames the mucous membranes lining the stomach and exposes the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucin instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

GRAND JURORS IN JAIL FOR A FEW MINUTES.

AUGUST COMMITTEE INSPECTS PASADENA LOCKUPS.

Brilliant Reception and Dance Last Night at "El Retiro"—Rough Prowlers Terrorize Housewives—Much Money is Raised for Charity.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 36 South Raymond avenue, Feb. 24.—Pasadena was visited by a committee of the grand jury yesterday afternoon, which came to inspect the city jails, the old and the new. The men who had the pleasure of escorting this august body showed the old jail with great pride, hoping to make good the claim that Pasadena has had for many years the worst jail ever. The august body failed to be impressed, and said complacently that it seemed to be kept in as good a condition as was possible under the circumstances (circumstances not noted,) and that worse jails might be found, notably that at Redondo. The new jail seemed to make a greater impression and was pronounced a credit to Pasadena. The party included H. F. Badger, Azusa; J. H. Vestal, Whittier; S. C. Spitzer, Pomona; N. B. Lack, Los Angeles, and H. J. Blick, Pasadena. They are on a tour of investigation, which is to include the County Farm, County Hospital and an inspection of roads, bridges and jails.

BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

"El Retiro," the picturesque home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elmer Wilcox, has long been famous for hospitality extended and the elegance of its entertainments. Yesterday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox gave a large reception and dance, which was one of the most brilliant functions of the year. The music-room, on the second floor, and the great hall adjoining, where the younger guests danced, were decorated in honor of Washington's birthday and resplendent with draperies of red, white and blue, national flags and emblems. Here was an orchestra. The reception rooms and the drawing-rooms, as well as the library, were daintily decorated with flowers. In each a simple flower arrangement in a distinctive color was artistically carried out. Pink roses, freesias, daffodils and quantities of trailing vines produced in the various apartments a pretty effect. The dining-room was beautiful with American Beauty roses, asparagus ferns and long fronds of wood ferns. Silver red-shaded candelabra added to the decorative appearance of the elegantly-appointed table.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox received alone in the north drawing-room. Mrs. Wilcox wore an exquisite Paris gown of white lace, embroidered in a pink rose pattern. Her ornaments were diamonds and pearls. The ladies assisting were Mrs. Joseph H. Johnson, B. M. Wotkyns, C. D. Daggett, Seymour B. Locke, Arthur A. Libby, H. Page Warden. Another orchestra was stationed in the conservatory and provided music for those who lingered downstairs for refreshments or flirtation. An elaborate collation was served. Among those present were Messrs. and Mmes. Z. W. Armstrong, E. C. Bailey, W. C. Burns, C. D. Daggett, C. H. Dobbins, H. M. Dobbins, J. C. Drake, Ellicutt Evans, H. T. Fuller, Robert H. Gaylord, W. E. SUBSCRIPTION DANCE.

The Auditorium was the scene of a very gay assemblage last evening, the occasion being a subscription dance given by a number of the prominent young married people and some of the bachelors of Pasadena.

There was, it is rumored, a little ripple of excitement for a few moments yesterday morning for fear the dance would have to be abandoned, as it is understood one of the Y.M.C.A. directors put his foot down that the property that the association proposes to purchase should not be used for any such frivolous purpose, but his objection—since possession is nine points in law—did not seem to hold good, and the Auditorium, therefore, was once more—if for the last time—the scene of much innocent revelry. The great hall was appropriately decorated in honor of Washington's birthday, flags, bunting and national emblems being relieved by the greenery of quantities of palms and tropical ferns. Pictures of George Washington, Martha Washington and the martyred William McKinley were wreathed in holly and bay and adorned the mantel space over the mantel. Music was furnished by an orchestra hidden behind a screen of palms, and light refreshments were served during the evening. The young married couples participating were: Mr. and Mrs. James Cambell, J. S. Glasscock, Henry Newby, W. J. Pierce, J. P. Holmes, James E. Davis, James Blick, Victor Ward, W. J. Williams, Hebert Holt, R. S. Allen, George Fassell, F. C. Nash, Louis Bassett, Duncan Reynolds, Julius Jacobs, Floyd James, J. E. Parker, A. D. S. McCoy, Charles Gardner, T. D. Turner, Thomas Nelms, W. W. Benedict, Robert Lacey, James McGregory, S. W. Linnard, L. J. Huff, Victor Marsh, B. O. Kendall, J. W. Wood, R. M. Furlong, H. H. Klamroth, Fred T. Huggins, R. E. Ford, Prof. Wallace Bayford and a large number of bachelors and girls of their choice.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Miss Angie Holmes gave a small dinner Saturday evening in honor of Miss Mabel Higgins of Chicago, who expects to leave Pasadena next week.

Miss Dreer of Livingston Place entertained yesterday afternoon with a tea in honor of her guest, Mrs. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Halsted of Euclid avenue are entertaining Miss Elmoor of Astoria, Or.

Mrs. D. B. Van Slyck of East Colorado street will entertain a few friends this evening with a faggot party.

Mrs. J. D. Lyman has returned from a few days' visit in Redlands.

FRIGHTENED HOUSEWIVES.

The women in the southeastern part of town have been terrorized a few days by two rough-looking men, who have visited homes, knocked loudly at doors, and when anyone appeared asked incoherent questions in a threatening manner, and seemingly having no excuse for their intrusion. It has been assumed the intention of the toughs was to find out if there was anyone at home, and if not to invade the premises. The police spent a busy day yesday after the culprits and have spotted their men.

The total receipts from the charity ball last week were over $1300, and it is expected at least $900 will be netted. The Entertainment Committee of the Pasadena Children's Training Society has made for the Children's Home in the neighborhood of $2000 in the past few months. The oriental evening netted $700 and the euchre party $218. These sums will be a substantial aid in clearing off indebtedness and in running the institution. At the fancy sale Saturday nearly $900 was raised for the Hospital of the Good Samaritan, Los Angeles. The greater part of this latter sum was raised through Mrs. J. H. Johnson, Mrs. M. B. Manning and other ladies at Hotel Green. Mrs. Manning is also interested in the Y.M.C.A. benefit and has already $175 in sight for that organization.

The transplanting of forty palms in Library Park has been a matter of some apprehension among Pasadenans. These rare trees formerly lined a driveway leading to the Legg residence, now taken away. Since the property is owned by the city the Park Commissioners have thought it advisable to change the position of these twelve or fifteen-year-old trees, making a row of them, set twenty feet apart, along Raymond avenue and Holly street. The last of these grand old palms has been reset and the commissioners are confident that they all will live and flourish in their new location. There still remain a number of them unmolested.

The Pacific Electric Railway Company has a force at work remodeling its bridge across the Arroyo Seco. The structure will be made wider and the concrete abutments under the bridge are being extended across the chasm. The company also has a gang of men relaying tracks on North Lake avenue from the city limits to Villa street for the broad-gauge system which it seems to be preparing to introduce here. General Manager Randolph explains that the appearance of surveyors in the northeast section of the city is for the purpose of making an examination of the topography of the country thereabouts so that the company may have the information at hand whenever it seems desirable to extend the electric lines in that direction.

John Maloney, the dining-room director at Hotel Green, who has been so seriously ill with pneumonia that his life has been despaired of, has improved sufficiently in the past twenty-four hours to give grounds for hope of his recovery.

Washington's birthday was properly celebrated Sunday evening at Hotel Green. The rotunda was decorated with American flags and Col. J. E. Montgomery, a veteran of the Civil War, acted as master of ceremonies. The orchestra played national airs and over three hundred guests joined in singing patriotic songs, ending with the national hymn, and three rousing cheers for "the red, white and blue."

There will be a meeting of the St. Andrews Society at All Saints' parish house today. Among those delivering addresses will be Bishop Johnson, Rev. William MacCormack and Dr. McBride.

An electric car and an auto car belonging to L. B. Bramley met in collision yesterday in front of Hotel Maryland to the damage of the latter, which had its front wheels wrecked.

To the amounts raised by the First Methodist Episcopal Church and the First Presbyterian Church Sunday for the fund to purchase the Auditorium building for the Y.M.C.A., Grace First Baptist Church has added $213, and the Friends' Church and First Congregational are yet to take up collections. The total amount thus far subscribed and collected is $7158.69. Twenty-five thousand dollars is needed for the purchase of the property and one man who has given already liberally has promised the last $1000 provided the remainder is garnered.

A. L. Whallon arrived from Chicago yesterday, and has joined his wife on Mentor avenue. Mr. Whallon is connected with the Harper Wholesale Leaf Tobacco Company of Milwaukee.

The fame of Pasadena's model sewer farm has gone abroad. Yesterday Frank Sullivan, one of the Park Commissioners of San Francisco, visited Pasadena and, in company with City Councilman Heiss, made a trip out to the sewer farm to get pointers to its workings, with the thought of utilizing some of the sewage of the city of the Golden Gate in barren portions of its park system, if practicable.

The hearts of all the ladies in and about Pasadena are a-flutter over the rumor that Edward Bok, the great writer upon manners and morals for women, is about to permanently locate in or near Pasadena. Altadena, it is said, has captivated the heart of the editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, and he has been overheard to say that he will build or buy a home there. Frank N. Doubleday, who is of the same party, has also fallen a victim to the attractions of Southern California, if reports are to be credited, and may also build a winter home in this vicinity. Mr. Doubleday is a member of the well-known firm of Doubleday, Page & Co. New York. W. H. Hill accompanied these gentlemen to Altadena yesterday and heard them enthuse. Mr. Hill is commissioned to secure views for a proposed article in the Ladies' Home Journal, showing country homes of America.

A meeting of the board of managers of the Y.M.C.A. was held this evening for the purpose of discussing plans for raising the additional amount of money necessary to insure the taking up of the option on the Auditorium building on Saturday next. It was announced at the meeting that about $7000 is all that is now required to complete the sum needed, $25,000. The members feel enthusiastic over the outlook and have every hope of seeing their dream of a new home realized.

HIGH CARNIVAL OF THEFTS AT THE SEASIDE CITY.

Trolley Motorman Wouldn't Stop to Let Sheriff White Get Off to Pursue Burglary Suspects Seen Near the Line.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 22.—Burglaries and larcenies sufficient to cause a considerable stir have occurred in this city within the past forty-eight hours. One of the first of the series was the entering of the Salt Lake depot at noon Saturday and the theft of a sum of money from the place.

One of the most daring of the series of burglaries was committed Saturday evening at the jewelry store of Joseph Sutcliffe on Pine avenue between First and Second streets. Mr. Sutcliffe left the place at 5:45 to go to supper. As he expected to return soon he did not place the trays of watches and jewelry in the safe, but merely locked the store. When he returned half an hour later he found that the place had been entered and a considerable haul of jewelry and money had been taken.

The burglar cut through a screen door in the rear and reached the bolt, which he threw. That gave him entrance to the rear room. He then smeared a newspaper with mucilage and pasted the paper to the glass of the door connecting with the store and broke through the glass. Reaching through the broken place, he unlocked that door, which cleared the way into the store. He turned down the gas and hastily emptied trays containing about three dozen watches, nearly all of which were gold, and about 100 rings. The marauder also took about $25.

WOULDN'T STOP CAR.

Sunday forenoon it was reported to Sheriff White, who occupies a cottage in Long Beach, that two suspicious characters had been seen in the Cerritos hog lands north of town. The Sheriff and G. A. Stevens, his deputy, boarded an electric car bound for Los Angeles, and when a mile southeast of the Southern Pacific crossing, saw two men not far from the track. The appearance of the men was suspicious, and the officers concluded that they were the ones wanted. Sheriff White asked the motorman to stop the car so they could get off and attempt to capture the men. The Sheriff showed his star, but the motorman refused to stop the car.

"I wouldn't do it if you were President of the United States," was the reply of the motorman, who said he would not stop the car till a regular station was reached. The Sheriff requested that the speed of the car be slackened enough for him and his deputy to jump safely, but the motorman was obdurate, and carried the officers at the usual rapid rate to the Southern Pacific crossing, a mile distant.

The officers made their way back as rapidly as they could, but the suspects had flown. They spent a large part of the day and of the night in the search, but without success.

Sheriff White felt very much aggrieved at the action of the motorman in not slacking the speed of the car when requested to do so upon the representations made to him by the officer. It seems to be a commonly-extended courtesy to stop steam railway trains almost anywhere at the request of officers of the law when that can be done without serious interference with traffic. It is urged that there is smaller reason for refusal to stop a trolley car upon request of a peace officer under such circumstances.

A reporter of The Times made an unsuccessful effort today to see a representative of the Pacific Electric Railway Company authorized to state the company's position with reference to the matter.

Two young men, shabbily dressed and riding brand-new bicycles, inquired at Stevens's livery Sunday evening as to whether the condition of the coast was so they could ride along the beach to San Francisco. Their appearance was singular and City Marshal Williams questioned them. The replies of the spokesman for the two were not very satisfactory, and the Marshal started to take the numbers of their bicycles when the two took to their heels. The officer and another man pursued them, but without success.

The wheels have not yet been identified. One of them was a "Diamond H" and the other was an "Ensign." One of the two men wore a black sweater, an old slouch hat rather large and light-colored and blue overalls. He was about 25, weighed about 160 pounds, and had a small black mustache. The other wore a similar hat and was dark of complexion.

WATCH CAME BACK.

The house of G. E. Chandler at No. 129 Magnolia avenue was entered this morning, and a gold watch was stolen. The timepiece belonged to Mrs. Chandler and was left on a dresser in a front room. While Mrs. Chandler was busied about some domestic duties in the rear of the house it is supposed that the thief entered by a door or window and purloined the watch.

Mr. Chandler caused it to be noised abroad that he had reasons for suspicions as to what had become of the watch, and was about to take summary action. At noon the watch was found on the dresser at the very place from which earlier in the day it had been missing.

A bicycle belonging to Capt. Mason of the launch, Helena, was stolen Sunday from where Capt. Mason held left it on the wharf.

DEATH OF D. A. SOVEREIGN.

Davis A. Sovereign died this morning, after a lingering illness. He was well known about Long Beach, and had lived here for the past six years. He was formerly City Recorder, and for a while City Engineer. He was born in Ontario, Canada, in 1835. He served two and one-half years in the Civil War and was wounded at Fort Donelson. He leaves a widow and five children. As a comrade of the G.A.R. he was notably vigorous in decrying the desecration of Memorial Day by sporting events, and other things tending to dim the memory of fallen soldiers and sailors.

The funeral will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Long Beach Methodist Church. It will be under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias. Rev. A. W. Adkinson will preach. The bearers will be comrades of the G.A.R. The burial will be at Signal Hill Cemetery.

CLAREMONT.

ONLY A SIGNAL.

CLAREMONT, Feb. 22.—A government forest ranger is unconsciously responsible for no end of curiosity and conjecture here. For two weeks mysterious lights have shone far up the mountain side, at about the same spot and at nearly the same time daily, and there was much wonder as to the cause. It develops, from a statement by H. V. Pierce, a local orange grower, that Mr. Sevier of the forest patrol is occupying the Pierce cabin, in Perce Cañon, and constructing a firebreak on the high ridge between the west fork of that cañon and Palmer Cañon, and has started all the guessers. Sevier has arranged a system of signals between his mountain home and merchants in Ontario, and by flashing a mirror in the sunshine he obtains the wherewithal to prosecute his rough and lonesome work on the heights.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Roy Hilton Campbell, who left college in April, 1902, to take a responsible position in the large Y.M.C.A. of Portland, Or., is to return to Pomona College tomorrow to complete his course and graduate in June. GLENDORA.

TEACHERS' MEETING.

GLENDORA, Feb. 22.—The Azusa Valley Teachers' Association held a gathering Saturday at the Glendora schoolhouse. The programme included a paper, "Compulsory Education," by J. T. Anderson of Covina, in which the urgent need of new and better laws was strongly brought out; reading, "Wooing of Henry V." by Miss Herds of Los Angeles, followed by a charmingly rendered encore paper, "School Music," Miss Estelle Baker of Redlands. This was an interesting subject handled in a very interesting manner; vocal solo, Miss Myrtle Rench of Glendora, "The Song of a Rose;" paper, "Juvenile Court Law," by Judge Klamroth of Pasadena; reading, "The Kirby Wedding." Miss Herds, followed by an encore, "A School Boy's Essay on Toads." Free Text-books' was discussed; affirmative, W. Loree, El Monte; negative, F. W. Guthrie, Azusa.

The next meeting will be held in Covina, but in the meantime the members have planned to hold a joint session with the Long Beach and Los Nietos associations at Long Beach.

BRASS RIBBONS SHINE AT THE WIRELESS.

EQUIPPING AVALON STATION FOR LONG-DISTANCE WORK.

Plan to Communicate With San Francisco and Eventually With Nome. Wireless Apparatus for Ships and Station on Farallones Under Negotiation.

AVALON, Feb. 23.—The wireless telegraph station is getting giddy. It appeared this morning all decked with bright yellow ribbons, that shimmer and gleam in the sunshine like a golden dream. The ribbons, 150 feet in length and ten in number, reach from the top of the tall mast to the ground. Manager New explained that he is equipping this station for long-distance work, and experiment having shown that broad strips of brass are more effective in breaking the Hertzian waves than a round wire, ten thin brass bands an inch wide have been substituted for the wire formerly used. The substitution was not made on account of more power being necessary for working between here and White's Point, but the general manager has just returned from San Francisco, where he has arranged to put in a station, and this end is being put in shape to communicate with the San Francisco station, and perhaps for a much greater distance, as other stations are to be established at frequent intervals up the Pacific Coast, the company's expectation being to have communication with Nome before next fall.

Gen. New is negotiating with the United States government in regard to putting in a wireless plant on the Farralone Islands for a weather observatory and in the interest of shipping, that being one of the most dangerous points along this coast for the mariners seeking the Golden Gate. Should the negotiations succeed every vessel plying regularly with San Francisco will be equipped with wireless apparatus, by which means the terrors of the Farallones will be greatly decreased.

GREAT WHALE SPECTATOR.

For several days Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clarkson of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. G. von Platen of Boyne, Mich., have been the guests at Hotel Metropole of E. E. Chapman, owner of the launch Rival. Yesterday morning the party was fishing and having good sport with the albicore, when a huge whale, with an unsatisfied curiosity, went within a few yards of the launch. Mrs. Clarkson was in the act of pulling in a large albicore, and the whale took a great interest in the performance, much to the detriment of the woman's nerves, circling about the boat and showing his huge bulk on all sides of them, but the fish was landed, notwithstanding. Members of the party declare that at times forty feet or more of the monster's back protruded from the water like the upturned hull of a vessel, while his head and tail were both invisible. The incident is one to be remembered by the party and also their good luck, as they got five albicore and six sharks.

INSULAR ITEMS.

Mr. Mackey of Truckee, with the Kathryn, yesterday morning secured twelve whitefish.

C. E. Domlinger and W. O. Boestwick of Tropico, out with the Kathryn this morning, had twenty-six whitefish.

L. A. Bradford of Plymouth, Mass., and J. Ferguson of Chicago, while out with the Eva yesterday, also had an experience with a school of blackfish, a species of whale. They surrounded the boat and when the boat moved, the whales followed after, and for the space of half an hour prevented any fishing operations, to say nothing of the anglers sitting on the ragged edge of anxiety as to where they would "get off" in case they had to. When finally left to themselves they captured an albicore and a shark.

Miss Claribel Goodwin and her friend, Miss Louise Maris of Chicago, who is spending the winter with her in Los Angeles, are visiting the island.

Willard Dennis left for a fortnight's vacation yesterday, during which he will visit Salt Lake.

Earl Cowan, Gus Knecht, Frank Werner, L. F. Bradford, D. A. McNeill and Don Cotten were the guests of Bert Frank over Sunday at the Crank cottage.

Robert M. Howell and Miss Nell L. Howell visited their brother, "Dick," the wireless operator here, yesterday. Miss A. E. Fowler returned with them and will be the guest of Miss Howell for a week.

Capt. Charles Regnier of Cincinnati, a steamboat captain, accompanied by his wife and brother, Jules Regnier of Los Angeles, has been spending a few days on the island.

E. G. Westlake and wife of Chicago, Mary M. Rose and Charles A. Gabriel of Columbus, O., are at the Windsor.

E. Owens, wife and daughter of Aurora, Ill.; Mrs. F. O. Hines and daughter, Miss Fern Hines, of West Plains, Mo., are at the Bay View.

C. T. Wegun and wife, Mrs. W. C. Dodge and C. B. Dodge, Mrs. H. H. Gross and daughters, Edna L. Condit, Lillian A. Burkey, all of Chicago, were among those registering at the Grand View today.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Averill, who have been here for two months, left the island today.

Mrs. E. L. Doran gave a Washington birthday party Saturday afternoon at her home on Crescent avenue, which was marked by considerable originality. There was a cherry tree, a real cherry tree, from which the guests cut the cherries, blindfolded, for prizes, the person getting the largest number of cherries being awarded prizes, which were pictures of George Washington and his wife, handsomely framed. Each guest was given a little book ornamented with the American flag, containing a set of questions to answer in regard to the life and career of Washington, for which there were also appropriate prizes. There was also a hatchet, which was concealed in the room, the finder of which kept it. Refreshments were served in a manner in keeping with the day, and it was altogether an exceedingly pleasant and successful entertainment. There were present Mrs. and Miss Williams, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Kissel, Mrs. Rider, Mrs. Hundley, Mrs. Averill, Mrs. Manning, Mrs. Hobson, the Misses Bessie, Elsa and Lucy Fuhru, Miss Lucretia Rider, Miss Bettye Kissel.

FERNANDO.

POPPIES DIDN'T FREEZE.

FERNANDO, Feb. 23.—The cold weather did not affect the oranges, lemons, or even the poppies, at Fernando. Dozens of people visited the Pacoima hills yesterday and carried away armfuls of beautiful golden poppies.

A traction engine is making rapid progress grading the roads.

The High School entertainment was well attended, and a very pleasant evening enjoyed Saturday.

ALHAMBRA.

FOR INCORPORATION.

ALHAMBRA, Feb. 23.—The incorporation meeting at Borden Hall last Saturday evening was largely attended by representative citizens. The committees on boundary lines and information made their reports. The former was acceptable to all but a very few, two or three ranchers on the outskirts of the proposed city desiring to be left out. After an extended discussion the boundary lines as reported by the committee were adopted by the meeting, the vote being about three to one in its favor. The Information Committee gave interesting reports of the city governments of South Pasadena, Monrovia, Azusa and Covina, including expense, methods of operation, etc. The proposed city of Alhambra would be about two miles square, a trifle larger than Covina, which they think too small. The assessed valuation of Alhambra city would be a little over $400,000. It is thought that the proposed boundaries are as fair as could be expected, although, no doubt, some objectors will appear before the Board of Supervisors and ask to be cut off. A committee of three was appointed to ascertain the legal and financial status of the new city for the first year should incorporation be voted. This committee will report at another public meeting, to be called by the chairman, if this is satisfactory. Immediate steps for incorporation will be taken. There is no question but that the final vote will be in favor of incorporating Alhambra into a city of the sixth class.

Rev. C. J. Hall, the temperance evangelist, assisted by Mrs. Hall, soloist, began a series of temperance meetings at Borden Hall this evening.

VILE "HAPPY VALLEY" HEARD FROM AGAIN.

NOTORIOUS EX-SALOON MEN TO HAVE "SOCIAL CLUBS."

Citizens of San Pedro Stirred Up Over Lawlessness and Official Action Hoped For—Dredging on Entrance Channel to the Harbor.

SAN PEDRO, Feb. 22.—"Happy Valley" is again breaking out. The thugs have recommenced their violent and lawless doings, and much evil is to be expected from the hell-hole, unless the authorities take hold at once.

When the City Trustees revoked two of the saloonists' licenses in "Happy Valley," it was thought that these men would no longer try to avoid the law, but they have been scheming ever since to engage in the "social club" business. Articles of Incorporation have been filed in Los Angeles for the "San Pedro Pastime Association" and the "Society of Friends." Back of the movement are the notorious "Stingaree Fred" and "Butcher Alf," together with the following directors: Anton Hess, O. M. Brown, William Harvey, Charles Swenzon, Hogan Hanson, Charles Erickson, Antone Coceval and James Reid.

Many citizens are incensed over this scheme of the "Happy Valley" toughs, and it is said the Good Government League will investigate and try to stamp the evil out at the start. The Trustees will, it is rumored, consider the advisability of revoking the saloon license of Anton Hess. Hess is running a boose shop in the heart of the city, and his late connection with "Stingaree Fred" and other degenerates has caused comment.

QUEER DOINGS.

John Casedy, charged with assault on Hans Hanson, at Fifth and Beacon streets, was discharged Saturday on account of a withdrawal of the charges by Hanson. He was rearrested on a complaint sworn to by Special Police Officer Jack Iman, who was a witness. It is said that Hanson accepted $100 from F. H. Thompson, Casedy's attorney, to consent to a dismissal of the case.

HARBOR TOWN BRIEFS.

Richard Walsh, a longshoreman, was arrested in this city Sunday morning, charged with having entered the lodging-house of Mrs. Manha, at Timms' Point, with intent to commit rape. He will be tried in Justice Downing's court this week.

Nile Lowman, a lad of 18, is in the City Jail awaiting trial on a charge of burglary. It is alleged that Lowman entered the machine shop of the Banning Company in Wilmington, January 29, and stole three rifles and a shotgun.

The Southern Pacific Company tendered the members of the local aerie of Eagles and their families an excursion to the government breakwater and return this afternoon, aboard a special train. More than 200 persons took advantage of the ride.

The dredging of the entrance channel to the inner harbor, which was delayed several days on account of the Southern Pacific Company not having its bulkhead ready for filling in with sand dredged, was commenced this morning, and will be continued until the present contract is completed. "Olympian," the large suction dredger used in deepening the channel, today demonstrated her great powers in removing earth. It is said the present contract, which calls for $100,000 worth of dredging, will be completed in seven months.

you ever go to the opera? I grand opera, where the finest in the world are to be heard. have you must have noticed the men and women alike have that would do credit to prize Now, this is not due to sing-though singing is a good thing for lungs. It is because these artists how to breathe.

average man knows no more breathing—real breathing—than knows about flying. He breathes, . It is a habit. It is neces-to do so in order to live. But he fortibly, unevenly, irregularly.

His lungs are seldom filled and emptied. He breathes merely with the top of them; just as the average man only exercises enough of his countless muscles to enable him to get through the day's work. The rest may atrophy for all he knows or cares.

A great doctor once said to me when I complained of the general ignorance as to proper breathing:

"I am glad the public know so little about it. When they learn to breathe we doctors will lose more than half our yearly incomes."

If proper breathing is necessary to the average man it is doubly necessary to the athlete.

POINTERS ABOUT THE LUNGS.

Let me tell you, very briefly, one or two things about your lungs, which will make it clearer to you why you should not neglect them. The ordinary breath passes through only the upper part of that sponge which we call the lungs. The lower part of the lungs thus gets filled with carbonic acid gas, a very deadly poison which is quickly taken up by the blood and carried through the whole system. Moreover, through lack of exercise, the lower part of the lungs at last becomes unfit to do its work. Every full breath of fresh, clean air that you draw into your lungs drives away this carbonic acid gas, expands and cleanses the lungs and brings oxygen into the system. And oxygen not only strengthens the lungs, but invigorates the entire body.

By regular, deep breathing you keep a large supply of oxygen in your lungs, which passes into the whole system, strengthening and invigorating you and rendering you far less liable to disease. Moreover, you are not only much less liable to catch cold, but if you do catch cold, the strengthened condition of your lungs averts pneumonia or consumption. In other words, the increased oxygen that is constantly pumped into your lungs by deep breathing will do more to make you a good all-around athlete than will ten years of training.

SHORT BREATH IN RUNNING.

When you have run a long distance why do you pant and gasp for breath? Is it because your lungs have given out? It is not. God made your lungs as strong as any other part of your body. Your lungs will not give out any sooner than will your legs.

The reason you pant is this: You have always used just as small a portion of your lungs as possible. You have neglected three-fourths of each lung; have given it no chance. When you run you need more breath than in walking. You call on the unused parts of your lungs to do the work the used portion cannot do. They are not prepared (owing to your neglect of them) to answer to this sudden call. You try to make things easier by opening your mouth and thus pumping air into the lungs by a passage which nature never made for that purpose. The result is that the wretched remnant of lung you have been in the habit of using is sorely overtaxed and cannot do its work, while the greater part of your lungs is not doing any work at all.

The good athlete must have every cubic inch of his lungs in good working order, just as he must have every other part of his body. Give your ill-used lungs a fair chance and they will repay you by making a new boy of you.

Even while you read this the chances are that you are sitting in some attitude which cramps the free play of the lungs. If you were sitting so as to cramp any other part of the body the pain would notify you to change your position in a hurry. But the lungs are patient, uncomplaining servants, and endure much ill-usage before showing that they are injured.

Sometimes, it is true, the pent-up state of the breathing apparatus eases itself with a yawn. But that is all. Do you know why people never yawn in their sleep? Because in sleep one usually breathes naturally and the lungs receive involuntary good treatment.

DEEP BREATHING ASSURES POWER.

If you can get into the habit of regular deep breathing your athletic success is as good as assured. Practice drawing in long, slow, full breaths. Hold each breath an instant, then let it out just as slowly.

This will be a difficult habit, perhaps, for you to acquire, but when you see the wonderful good it does you you will think it worth the trouble. If you are a trifle dizzy when you first try this deep breathing do not be frightened. Your lungs are merely telling your brain how surprised they are at being allowed to work. The dizziness will soon pass.

When taking long breaths draw the breath clear down into the abdomen before trying to fill the upper lungs. In other words, in drawing a long breath throw out the abdomen as well as the chest. If you draw in the abdomen you force the intestines upward and cramp the free action of the lungs.

Proper deep breathing will not only greatly increase your chest expansion but will also harden and strengthen the abdominal muscles.

It will incidentally give you a clearer and stronger brain.

WHY THROUGH NOSTRILS ONLY.

Let me caution you once more not to breathe through your mouth. Your mouth was made for eating and talking. It was no more meant to breathe through than it was meant to hold a cigarette. Breathe always through the nostrils. When Providence planned the human body, He arranged that the nostrils should convey just the proper quantity of air to the lungs, and at just the proper temperature, and freed of such irritating particles of dust as might injure the sensitive tissue of the lungs. The air enters the nostrils, is much cleansed of dust by the hairs with which they are lined, is warmed to the temperature of the body, and, in this "filtered" condition, is poured into the tender lungs.

Thus far no one has been able to improve on that system of breathing. But countless persons suck in great quantities of uncleaned, unwarmed air through the mouth and gulp it down in that condition to the long-suffering lungs.

Do you see now why I lay such stress on deep breathing and on breathing solely through the nostrils?

KEEP TRACK OF YOUR PROGRESS

Let me suggest, in closing this lesson, that you keep what trainers call an "improvement chart." Something of this sort: Write down the date you begin to exercise; jot down all your measurements then, together with your chest expansion, and the number of times you can do each of the prescribed exercises. After following my instructions faithfully for three months take your measurements, expansion, ability in the exercises, etc., again, and set it down on the chart opposite the first entries.

It will be most interesting to note the improvement each three months. It is of great usefulness, too. For instance, if at the end of three months you find you have developed along all lines but one, it is a sign that that one remiss set of muscles needs extra work and additional exercises. This will enable you to become an all-around athlete, and will prevent the neglect of any part of the body. Measure the chest (expanded and in repose,) the neck, the waist, the thigh, the calf, the forearm, the biceps, the shoulders. I should be most interested in seeing any of these improvement charts after the first "three-month entry," should you care to send me a copy of it, and would be very glad to advise you how to improve any part of the body that does not develop as rapidly as does the rest.

Real Cures

Different doctors have different ideas in regard to cures. Some call a suppression of symptoms a cure. They dose for drug effects and claim that nothing more can be done. But the real ailment remains and will bring the symptoms back again, perhaps the same as before, or perhaps modified in some manner.

I claim that nothing less than complete eradication of disease can be a real cure. I treat to remove the disease and not merely the symptoms. I search out every root and fiber of an ailment, and I cure to stay cured.

Varicocele

I accomplish my cure of Varicocele by a method such as no other physician employs, and so thorough is my work that my patients need not have the slightest fear of a relapse into old conditions. If you have been afflicted with Varicocele for years you will never know the effect it has had upon your general health until I have cured you and you feel the old-time vim and energy returning.

Weakness

I employ local treatment exclusively, and as the inflammation is reduced and the gland restored to its normal state, full and complete power returns. Those who have been unsuccessfully treated for a weakness should understand the cause of failure, and realize that no method other than my own can produce complete and lasting results.

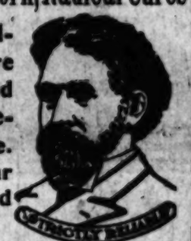
DOCTOR HARRISON

Skillful Treatment, Honest Work, Radical Cures

Our success in curing ailing men is because we have the knowledge, skill and experience that brings relief and permanent cure. We do not ask for a dollar until you are cured beyond the shadow of doubt.



When a man is ailing his greatest desire is to be well—to be a strong, robust man. That being the case, why not consult a man whose success in curing ailing men is so pronounced, so certain and sure that you should have no hesitancy in coming to us. In all cases we treat, improvement begins at once. We go right to the origin of your trouble, removing the cause, then improvement begins and continues steadily and surely until a complete cure is effected. When you consult us your case is made plain to you; you are told what steps have to be taken and the probable time you will have to treat. Our methods have been proven correct. The thousands of cures we have made are sure evidence that our treatment is the right one. It is original with us and has been adopted by us from an experience of over 18 years constant work with diseases of men.

Weakness, its Cause and Cure

Nearly every man suffering from so-called vital weakness has a curable cause which is at the bottom of the trouble. The main causes are stricture, varicocele, enlarged, inflamed prostate, results of abuses and excesses, badly treated disorders, etc., which obstruct the functional centers. When a man applies to us suffering from weakness we find and remove the cause just the same as an expert engineer or electrician finds and removes the cause when machinery fails to do its work. We have no difficulty in curing these cases; we have cured them by the thousands. We have the necessary knowledge, skill and experience to find the causes and give the proper treatment, thus putting the organs in a normal condition, when the weakness disappears, which was only a symptom of the real trouble.

Our book and colored plate will give you some valuable information on this subject. They will be mailed to you free.

Varicocele

Thousands of men are afflicted with Varicocele—a great proportion of them have treated for months with doctors who advertise to cure—having received not even temporary relief, and have become prejudiced against any and all who pretend to cure Varicocele—we particularly want this class of men for treatment, for we can SURELY CURE THEM. When we say we can cure any and every case of Varicocele, we mean just what we say. We will GUARANTEE A CURE in every instance and the cure will be effected in from 5 to 7 days—this cure is made without pain and without the use of the knife, ligature, caustic or electricity. We have no failures, and are always ready to show personally hundreds of cases cured by us, and they are among prominent business men, whose word cannot be doubted. If you are afflicted with this trouble we ask you to investigate our method—come and talk with us—let us honestly convince you that we can do all we claim—do not be deceived by false methods, and do not pay out one dollar of money to any doctor who cannot show dozens of cases among good and prominent men they have actually cured.

Contracted Disorders

Of all the diseases peculiar to men, contracted disorders are the most abused by cut and try, hit and miss treatment, administered by good friends, druggists, doctors in general practice and most of the would-be specialists. It is certainly interesting to hear the story of the average patient telling his experience with the different kinds of so-called treatment he has been "up against." A large majority of our patients come to us with all the original disease and part or all of the complications resulting from their early mistreatment. We generally have to cure these after some or all the following conditions have developed: Chronic discharge, gleet, stricture, chronic bladder trouble, diseased prostate, sores, swellings, etc., besides a patient whose confidence and mind are also diseased through failure and disappointment. Don't trifle with these disorders; go to a doctor who knows how to cure you; it is the cheapest, surest and shortest way out. We have been 13 years in the business.

Stricture

Our treatment of stricture is without doubt the most successful in use at the present time. Each and every person coming under our treatment for this trouble can rest assured of a perfect cure by a painless method, without cutting, leaving no inflammation. Call and see us personally. If living at a distance, write us for valuable information.

I Remove the "Exact Cause" and change the condition responsible for your trouble.

Improvement is noted from the first and it is the beginning of a thorough and permanent cure. I cure, by my methods of treatment, some of the most chronic cases, some that have been too stubborn for other treatment. I attribute my success in these cases to the thorough examination I make in getting at the exact conditions, so that I am enabled to start right. When I apply a treatment I know what for and why, and that it will be effective. 20 years have given me a much wider knowledge of causes, effects and the cure of chronic conditions than many of less experience.

I am always willing to wait for my fee until you are cured.

Those Who Take My Treatment

Have my personal attention. Those who have my personal attention are cured because I do not guess. I go to the very core of the trouble and root the cause out. My examinations consist of something more than the cursory questions as to what you think. It is not always what you think, but what a thorough and searching examination, such as I give, reveals. I bring you face to face with your exact condition. If you desire my personal attention, I give you the benefit of my twenty years' experience in treating chronic or deep-seated troubles. Chances are your disappointment in not attaining a cure is due to failure of not getting at the exact cause.

Mail Treatment

A Failure—No Matter What Others Say to the Contrary.

How many times have you treated by mail? How many times have you written at your own expense? And how many times have you had others guess at it, and how many times have you met with failure? I'm ready to prove my claims. I can do more in one week, make a better cure, give you more lasting results than you can ever hope to receive by mail. I take no part in such guesswork. When I treat a condition I know just what to do, and how to do it, and the effect will be what you desire, and all I promise. It's the real cures I desire, not mere suppression of symptoms for a monetary consideration.

My Treatment for Men

Touches every chronic condition. The cures I make are permanent and there are no evil after effects.

Contracted Diseases

I am confident I cure these ailments more quickly and with less pain or inconvenience than anyone claiming to treat successfully these conditions. Has your case become chronic through improper treatment or by the use of cheap remedies? Has it caused deep-seated inflammation in the urinary tract, the result of which you now suffer from stricture? Chances are you could have been cured in one week to ten days with my treatment, and even now the chances are favorable to make the cure as quick.

Varicocele

Under my plan of treatment the patient improves from the very beginning and is cured in 4 to 6 days. All pain ceases, soreness and swelling quickly subside, the veins or stagnant blood are forced from the dilated veins, which rapidly assume their normal size, strength and soundness.

Functional Decline

Termed Weakness by Some

Many men are at a loss to account for a condition, and invariably trace the cause to the one least responsible. By my "EXACT CAUSE" treatment, personally applied, will positively restore functional derangement, prostatic irritation and kindred troubles. Most doctors treat the symptoms as they appear, but I treat the "EXACT CAUSE" and enable the derangement to right itself. My treatment is a scientific application, which results in the restoration of a normal physical condition of the sexual organs involved. It assumes a direct influence upon all the pelvic organs and harmonious action is the direct result. The cures are real, the results are permanent, and like effect cannot be had by inferior treatment.

Stricture

A MILLION MEN have suffered and failed to get permanent cure. Spent a thousand dollars and a thousand hours of work on the formation and completion of my "EXACT CAUSE" method. Experience of the right kind is absolutely necessary to restore health to a diseased prostate gland. Success is necessary in the cure of stricture. During 15 years I have conducted a vast experiment in my practice and work, which enabled me to speak definitely on this point. My treatment softens and reduces the hard, contracted cellular fibers and the formation is completely destroyed. All pain and soreness quickly subsides with a complete and permanent cure. Usually ten to fifteen days is sufficient for the most aggravated cases.

Constipation Makes Bad Blood.

MULL'S GRAPE TONIC CURES CONSTIPATION

Constipation is the rotting and decaying of undigested food in the alimentary canal. Disease germs arise from this festering mass, which find their way into the blood. The blood becomes impure and shortly the entire system gives way to the unhealthy condition.

You cannot cure a case like this by taking pills or other common cathartics. A laxative will not do. A blood medicine is ineffective. Mull's Grape Tonic is a gentle and mild laxative in addition to being a blood-making and strength-giving tonic which immediately builds up the wasted body and makes rich, red blood that carries its health-giving strength to every tissue at every heart beat.

Mull's Grape Tonic is made of pure crushed fruit juices and is sold under a positive guarantee.

Doctors prescribe it. All druggists sell it at 50 cents a bottle.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Mrs. Moore's Misfortune.

Mrs. William Moores (née Benedict) had the misfortune of breaking one of her legs, just above the ankle, last Saturday, by falling off her bicycle. The accident happened within a few blocks of her home and she walked home on the wounded member, thus aggravating the injury.

Bishop's Anniversary.

It is seven years today since Bishop Joseph H. Johnson was consecrated bishop of the new diocese of Los Angeles, and as this is the date upon which the festical of St. Mathias is observed, special prayers will be offered for the bishop ot the Pro-Cathedral, the Church of the Epiphany and other churches this morning.

Gave Away Hatchets.

The Broadway Department Store celebrated Washington's birthday by giving away hatchets of the cherry-tree brand. The historic implements were in great demand. Another interesting feature of the holiday celebration at this store was a very pretty window display of patriotic drapings and a fine portrait of "the Father of his Country."

Found Dead in Room.

Herman Knoll, a German, aged about 35, was found dead in his room at No. 311 Commercial street yesterday morning. He had been dead for several hours, the result being due, it is thought, to consumption. In the pockets of the dead man was 15 cents. The Coroner was notified, and the body was removed to Pierce Bros.'s morgue, where an inquest will be held today.

Luncheon to Dean Hart.

Rev. Dr. George Thomas Dowling gave a luncheon to the Very Rev. H. Martyn Hart, S.T.D., dean of the Cathedral of Denver, Colo., at the California Club, yesterday. The other invited guests were the Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D.D., bishop of Los Angeles; the Very Rev. J. J. Wilkins, D. D., dean of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral; Rev. W. H. Doggett and Rev. Charles W. Naumann.

Hold-up Reported.

Word comes to police headquarters last night that there had been an attempted hold-up at Twenty-fourth street and Vermont avenue at 8:30 o'clock. Detectives went at once to the scene and learned from a person living near that a man wearing a coat over his head had been seen prowling around in the shadows of a clump of trees, but the original report was not verified.

No for Monrovia!

Announcement is made by the Pacific Electric Railway Company of the official opening of its new Monrovia branch next Sunday. For one reason and another, the opening of this line has been delayed from time to time during the past month. Cars will run to Arcadia and return, leaving First and Los Angeles street about every half hour. The service to begin on Sunday will be temporary, until the line is fully completed through to Monrovia. The distance to Arcadia is something over fifteen miles. The fare to this point will be 40 cents for the round trip.

Two Men Missing.

William M. Patterson, a section foreman for the Salt Lake Railway Company, who lives at No. 311 Avenue 33, left home yesterday noon to visit his physician. He had $65 and a gold watch when he started, and his wife fears foul play, as he was a man of sober and regular habits. Patterson is 55 years of age. Herbert J. French, about 30 years old, who is a solicitor for Carr & Stephens, has not been heard from since Saturday night, when he left his employers' store on South Broadway with about $35. French's mother lives on Temple street.

Cold Wave Coming.

People of Los Angeles are warned that the temperature will take a sudden drop about noon today. At that hour forty-one members of the North Dakota Press Association are scheduled to arrive in this city, and while they are thawing out, the circumambient atmosphere is likely to undergo a chill. The Chamber of Commerce is preparing a warm welcome for the visitors from the blizzard belt, and will aid in the thawing process. Citizens generally are invited to help in turning on the hot air. The journalists who hail from the land where they write editorials with icicles for seven months of the year will tarry in this vicinity the remainder of this week.

Colonists from Colorado.

Horace B. Davis, president of the California Colony Company, with headquarters at Denver, Colo., arrived in this city yesterday with sixteen families, a total of forty people, who will settle on farms in various parts of Southern California. On Saturday they stopped at Imperial, and were deeply impressed with the wonderful crops produced by the flow of water secured from the Colorado River, and it is likely that some of them will settle in that district. Others will look at land up toward Fresno, with a view of locating there, while still others will remain in the neighborhood of Los Angeles. Mr. Davis expects to bring colonies in monthly.

Weapons, but no Blood.

What might have been a bloody encounter between H. Raap and J. Blackburn, a negro, was headed off by Patrolman Baker last night, and both were arrested, Blackburn, who is a janitor of the Wilmington saloon, said that Raap had drawn a revolver on him, and Raap said that he had done so in self-defense, as Blackburn had a razor. This was in front of the cathedral, where Blackburn was standing with a colored woman, whom he said was his wife. It is probable a case of jealousy. When the men were searched Raap had a revolver, but Blackburn's razor was either a myth or else had been thrown away.

Pomeroy-Hooker Case.

For want of jurisdiction, the United States Supreme Court has dismissed the Pomeroy-Hooker suit against the city. These were the glad tidings that reached City Attorney Mathews yesterday by telegraph. This suit has dragged its weary length through the county and State courts for ten years. In every court the city has won. John Garber of San Francisco, John S. Chapman of this city and other lawyers of wide repute were retained by the appelants. The city was represented by Dillon & Hubbard of New York, Lee & Scott and the City Attorney. Over $500,000 was involved, and months have been spent in the preparation of briefs. It is believed that the action of the United States Supreme Court yesterday will end the long litigation. If so, a notable victory has been won by the city's attorneys. The appeal was based on the refusal of the lower courts to allow Messrs. Pomeroy and Hooker damages for water rights alleged to appertain to land condemned for headworks by the city.

BREVITIES.

Say, John! you let me have it, won't you? Well, Julia if you are going to pay $85 again, I'm afraid you'll have to do without it. No, John, I can get a very nice one for half that price, but I must go this week to select my pattern from his new goods. Where is it? At the Parisian Ladies' Tailoring Co., 522 S. Broadway.

50c Silks 27c Yard.

5000 yards of beautiful new wash silks went on sale yesterday at 27c the yard. There are only a trifle over 1000 yards remaining, and these will be speedily snapped up today. They come 36 inches wide in the most beautiful effects and colorings, this season's latest productions, 50c everywhere. While they last 27c.

New Waist Silks 50c.

These come in very neat black and white or blue and white checks. The quality is crisp and pure, full 19 inches in width, and the silks at 75c seem to have much less value to them.

40c to 60c Suitings 25c

As a special feature we have put on a separate table a lot of suitings worth regularly from 40c to 60c a yard. These include such a variety of different effects and colorings that we are not able to describe them. Widths measure from 32 to 40 inches. As a special we offer the choice of the entire lot at 25c per yard.

Wool Dress Plaids 25c

This material is used largely for making children's dresses. It has a strong texture, the colorings are handsome and effective, but the assortment is small. While it lasts 25c.

15c, 20c, 25c Embroideries 9c Yard.

Most of these embroideries went yesterday but there are perhaps 2000 yards remaining for today, including the surplus stock which has been added. These include wide embroideries that would sell regularly at 25c per yard. The patterns are all new and exquisite, the quality is fine and beautiful. Special 9c the yard.

There are times in a man's life when it is necessary to act quickly or suffer. Times when life itself depends on the doing of the right thing at the right time. Times, perhaps, when disease has reached the point where delay of a week may prove fatal.

Kidney troubles are slowly, but surely, dragging thousands of men and women to the grave. It is only backache at first, doesn't amount to much, they think. Then headache, dizzy spells, urinary troubles, diabetes—and then, if it isn't Bright's disease, and death.

But there is a way of escape. Hundreds and hundreds of Los Angeles people have found it.

I know that the pills relieved my rheumatic trouble, and I am positive that the backache stopped. I cannot say what suits obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills will be lasting, but I have no doubt the best preparation I ever used."

tes-proposition then will be made, providing that when Arizona has a population which is the average for a Representative in Congress, it shall be admitted as a State, and also that a census shall be taken every year. The Democrats say they want a provision fixing the date which will bring Arizona into the Union. This would not be satisfactory to the Republicans. While the efforts toward a compromise continue, there are only a few Senators who expect an adjustment to be reached, and the prospects of Statehood legislation are still remote.

There was an earnest conference in the Senate Chamber after adjournment, participated in by Senators Aldrich, Quay, Hanna, Foraker, McComas, Beveridge and Kean, at which it was definitely decided that propositions for a compromise on two States should be submitted to the Democrats. Senator Quay presented a memorandum of the important features of the compromise to Senator Bate, who will present it to a conference of Democrats called for 10 o'clock tomorrow. It is expected that the Republican proposition will be rejected and a counter-proposition made. Democratic leaders say they cannot accept the compromise suggested, and the Republicans say that no further concessions will be made.

SENTIMENT IN ARIZONA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TUCSON (Ariz.) Feb. 22.—There is a growing sentiment throughout Arizona strongly favoring the union of the Territory with the seven counties of Southern California with their half a million population and naming the new State Calizona, rather than being consolidated with New Mexico as the State of Montezuma. It is admitted that Calizona in the Union would be strongly Republican, but so would the proposed State of Montezuma.

The committee decided not to print the compilation of receipts and expenditures in the Philippines, as it was found the expenditures would be about $85,000.

FIFTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

CLOSING SESSION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—SENATE. In the Senate today the chaplain referred to the life and character of George Washington, saying that not only in ideal, but in personal character, he embodied the elements of truth and greatness which have been wrought into our national history. The galleries were crowded, many of the occupants being visiting Daughters of the Revolution, who listened attentively to the reading by Mr. Dubois of Idaho of Washington's farewell address. During the address, Reed Smoot, Senator-elect from Utah, entered the chamber and took a seat beside Mr. Kearns.

The Rawlins resolution, calling on the Secretary of War for information concerning court-martial cases in the Philippines, was favorably reported by Mr. Lodge, and adopted with an amendment limiting the reply to summaries of the records and testimony. Another amendment which was adopted excludes the case of Maj. L. W. T. Walter.

Mr. Proctor reported the Agricultural Appropriation Bill, and gave notice that he would call it up at the first opportunity.

A House bill was passed, providing for the holding of at least one term of the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Eighth Judicial Circuit in Denver.

Mr. Kearns of Utah presented the credentials of Senator-elect Smoot of Utah, which were read. Mr. Smoot was sitting in the rear of the chamber when the document was read. Mr. Burrows of Michigan stated that a protest had been filed with his committee against Mr. Smoot's admission. The credentials were filed.

Mr. Quay sought to secure a vote on the Statehood Bill on Thursday, February 26. Mr. Kean objected, remarking that he hoped he would be permitted to conclude his remarks begun several days ago.

A House resolution was agreed to providing for the erection in Washington, D. C., of a bronze equestrian statue of Count Pulaski and Baron Steuben of the continental army and appropriating $50,000 for each.

Mr. Mason then called up the Postoffice Appropriation Bill. Its formal reading was dispensed with, and the bill was read for amendment. The Statehood amendment was passed over for the time being.

Mr. Mason yielded to Mr. Fairbanks, who presented an Omnibus Public Building Bill. A committee amendment was agreed to, adding $500 to the cost of the United States courthouse and Postoffice at Omaha, Neb. All other amendments were voted down, and the bill was passed. Consideration of the Postoffice Appropriation Bill then was resumed.

An amendment was offered by Mr. Fairbanks appropriating $25,000 for experimental rural telephone free delivery. After discussion it went out on a point of order by Mr. Pettus. An amendment was agreed to granting free registry to members of Congress on public documents.

The President pro tem. appointed Messrs. Alger and Bacon visitors to the Military Academy. He appointed Messrs. McComas and Daniel visitors to the Naval Academy, and Mr. Platt of Connecticut regent of the Smithsonian Institution, to succeed himself.

Mr. Tillman, who had been standing in the aisle endeavoring to get recognition to speak regarding the Indianola (Miss.) Postoffice case, inquired what was up, if the Postoffice Appropriation Bill went over. Injecting some humor into the proceedings, the President pro tem. replied that he "understood the Senator from South Carolina was coming up on his feet," at which the Senate was convulsed.

Mr. Tillman then said he proposed to surprise his friends and astonish his enemies, if he had any, by being very mild and temperate in what he would say.

"If we had known at the beginning of the Civil War," said he, "what we now know, there would have been no war."

He inquired why the large majority of law-abiding people of Indianola should be punished because there was a small lawless and brutal element. It was countrary, he said, to the fundamental principles of Anglo-Saxon jurisprudence. Replying to some remarks made by Mr. Spooner, Mr. Tillman said: "It is not in the dream of the wildest ass that roams over the Southern States with a wax ear on him that the Federal government is not supreme," but he said there were some cognate propositions which could not be ignored. He said in the South the people have a constant reminder that their ancestors thirty-five years ago were conquered.

"We are perpetually reminded," he said, accentuating his words, "that we are in the Union, but not of it, except to pay taxes."

The poison in the race condition in the South, he declared, lay in the political system which had been adopted. The balance of power, he said, in Republican conventions was held by the machine of the South, and that machine was composed of negroes. When the people of the South, he said, lose patience and do "cruel, bitter, fearful, fiendish and savage things, there is a howl from men who know nothing and who have never been south of the Potomac, but who have theories."

Continuing, and addressing the Republican side, he said that if this policy of negro equality is carried out, and if some of them could be given places in the Cabinet, he would vote for them.

"I will vote to confirm Booker T. Washington as Secretary of anything. Let us have a negro, a genuine negro, not a mulatto or hybrid. Then let us make them officers of the army and navy. Let us give them a pro rata share of all the good jobs, wherever they exist, without regard to local conditions."

He added that nothing of the sort would be done. After speaking for nearly two hours, and not concluding, he yielded for an executive session. The Postoffice Appropriation Bill is still before the Senate.

At 4:25 o'clock p.m. the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—In the House today a bill was passed to exempt from taxation the property of the Daughters of the Revolution in the District of Columbia.

The bill to amend the Railroad Safety Appliance Act was sent to conference, and Mr. Underwood of Alabama moved to instruct the conference to recede from that portion of the House amendment which seeks to give the Interstate Commerce Commission the power to reduce below 50 per cent. the number of cars to be handled by safety-appliance brakes.

Mr. Underwood declared that all the railroad trainmen in the country were opposed to lodging this power with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Mr. Wanger of Pennsylvania opposed the motion, contending that the interests of railroad employés would be subverted by the House amendment.

Mr. Babcock of Wisconsin and Mr. Ryan of New York favored the motion. It was opposed by Messrs. Richardson of Alabama, Hepburn of Iowa and Mann of Illinois. The motion to instruct was carried by 131 to 82. Messrs. Wanger of Pennsylvania, Sherman of New York and Adamson of Georgia were appointed conferees.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole and entered upon the consideration of the General Deficiency Appropriation Bill. There was no general debate upon the bill, which was immediately read for amendment under the five-minute rule. An amendment was adopted to appropriate $1,100,000 to replace stores and the storehouse at the Rock Island arsenal, recently destroyed by fire.

Mr. Grosvenor raised a point of order against the provision authorizing the appointment of two assistant Attorney-Generals at $7000 and $5000, respectively, to enforce the Sherman Anti-Trust Law. The provision also authorized the appointment of two confidential clerks in connection with this work, without regard to the civil service laws. After some discussion Mr. Grosvenor withdrew the point of order.

An amendment providing for an extra month's pay for all the employés of Congress was adopted without debate. Several other minor amendments were adopted, and the bill was passed. The Senate amendments to the bill to provide for the erection of statues of Count Pulaski and Baron Steuben were adopted.

At 5:30 o'clock p.m. the House adjourned.

TRANSPORTATION OF COAL.

COMMITTEE FOUND TONNAGE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The subcommittee of the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries that went to Boston to investigate the subject of coal transportation, reported to the full committee today the results of the hearings held. The report of the subcommittee recited, among other things:

"The evidence taken satisfied the subcommittee that there was no question as to the sufficiency of tonnage for water transportation. The subcommittee invited testimony and suggestions from all parties interested. There was no evidence before the subcommittee that there was any deficiency in the manner of water transportation between the terminal coal ports and New England. Nothing appeared that would justify a favorable report on the resolution that gave rise to this inquiry, although it is true that during its pendency there had been a material change in conditions."

The committee reported also that no deficiency existed in the matter of terminal facilities. The report reviewed the conditions found from the evidence to have existed, but on the question as to whether any understanding between the coal roads and operators existed the subcommittee expresses no opinion. Owing to the fact that the session is so near an end, the subcommittee finds it impossible to continue the investigation.

THOSE VENEZUELAN SHIPS.

CONFUSION CONCERNING THEM.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Advices were received at the State Department today from Mr. Russell, the United States chargé d'affaires at Caracas, to the effect that none of the Venezuelan vessels captured by the blockading squadron had been returned as yet, and that there was considerable confusion in the public mind as to the reading of the protocols on this point. In the absence of the texts of the agreements, President Castro does not know whether he should send his crews to Trinidad, where the ships are being held, or whether he should insist upon their return to Venezuelan waters.

Minister Bowen has received several cablegrams from President Castro regarding the action of the allies in retaining the ships, and is evidently growing restless at what he considers a breach of trust. The allies' representatives, however, take the position that the ships will be returned as soon as the "necessary formalities" have been enacted. The British Ambassador has assured Secretary Hay that the London government was doing everything possible to expedite the return of the ships.

Dispatches from Trinidad and Caracas fail to note any steps toward this end on the part of the allied fleets, and it is feared that possibly some misunderstanding of the provisions of the protocol may exist in the minds of the fleet commanders, and that this is causing the delay. After a long conference today with high officials of the Washington government, Mr. Bowen announced that he would call on the Italian and British ambassadors and German Minister tomorrow and inform them he was ready to proceed with the drafting of the protocols providing for the procedure to be followed in referring the preferential charges to The Hague, if the creditor nations wish to arrange for the settlement of their claims, they will have to show more anxiety than they have in the past few weeks.

Regarding the request of Germany that Venezuela pay to her the $28,0 before March 15, which was the limit of time agreed upon, it was said today that the question was taken up in the friendliest spirit with Mr. Bowen by the German Minister here, and that it was not attempted in the nature of a demand.

Mr. Bowen informed the German Minister when the request was conveyed to him, that, having signed the peace protocol, he was no longer concerned with the matter, and that if Germany wished the money, the appeal must be made through her representatives at Caracas. This will be done when the German Minister arrives there.

AMERICA'S CLAIMS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 23.—Asked by Sir Cuthbert Quilter, Unionist, in the House of Commons today whether the government had been officially informed that American claims against Venezuela are to be paid fully and forthwith in gold, or its equivalent, while the British claims will have to await the decision of The Hague court of arbitration, Under-Foreign Secretary Cranborne replied: "Our information is to the effect that the American claims will be dealt with before The Hague Tribunal."

SUPREME COURT CASES.

DEWEY WINS PRIZE MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States Supreme Court today decided the prize-money cases brought by Admiral Dewey in behalf of the officers and men of his fleet, on account of the vessels sunk at Manila and afterward reclaimed, in their favor, but the cases of Admiral Sampson, for whose name that of Admiral Taylor was substituted, in his own behalf and that of his officers and men on account of the Maria Teresa, sunk at the battle of Santiago were decided adversely to the claimants. The Teresa was sunk after being rescued, whereas the vessels reclaimed at Manila are still in use.

Justice Holmes delivered an opinion in the case of the United States against the crew and officers of the war vessel Mangrove. The case involves the prize money for the capture of the Spanish steamer Panama during the Spanish War. The New York, Indiana and Wilmington claimed a part of the prize, but the court held they were not within signaling distance at the time of the capture, and therefore were entitled to nothing.

The Supreme Court today decided the lottery case of Francis vs. the United States, reversing the decision of the Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. The charge was the violation of the law of 1885, prohibiting the sending of lottery tickets from one State to another by other means than the United States mails. The case originated in Cincinnati, and Francis was found guilty. The opinion of the court was delivered by Justice Holmes. He said that the offense charged was that of carrying policy numbers across the Ohio River from Kentucky to Ohio, but as the slips which were carried were only duplicates and not the original tickets, the offense did not come within the meaning of the statute. Justice Harlan dissented.

In the case of Champion of Chicago, the court decided that the United States has the right to prohibit the sending of lottery tickets from one State to another as part of its power to regulate commerce between the States.

In an opinion delivered by Justice Holmes in the case of Kidd vs. the State of Alabama, the United States Supreme Court today held that a State has the right to tax the stock of railroads incorporated in another State which is held by an estate in the State seeking to exercise the power. The opinion affirmed the decision of the Supreme Court of the State of Alabama.

The case of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company against John A. Soderberg, involving the question as to what constitutes mineral lands, as used in the act of July 2, 1864, was decided in favor of Soderberg. The railway company sought to enjoin him from removing or disposing of granite from a quarter section of land in Washington State, of which he had taken possession under a mineral location.

JUSTICE SHIRAS RETIRES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—In accordance with the terms of his letter of resignation, Justice Shiras today retired from his office as an associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. The day's record in the matter of opinions handed down was one of the largest ever made. This was an effort to clear up the docket of the cases in the hearing of which Justice Shiras has participated. The number of decisions rendered was 55, which left to be delivered only 25 of the 80 cases which had been argued and were undisposed of. Justice Shiras left for Florida soon after the adjournment of the court.

CONFERRED WITH PRESIDENT.

SECRETARY SHAW AND OTHERS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Secretary Shaw, Robert B. Armstrong, who will qualify soon as an assistant secretary of the treasury, and a subcommittee of the House Committee on Coinage, consisting of Representatives Southard, Southell and Cochrane, had a conference with the President today concerning the means of putting into effect the proposition transmitted by the President to Congress January 29, in a special message.

The President's message conveyed to Congress a report from Secretary Hay with accompanying notes and memoranda from the Mexican Ambassador and the Chinese Chargé d'Affaires. Mexico and China are seeking the cooperation of this government in such measures as will tend to restore and maintain a fixed relation between the moneys of the gold-standard countries and the silver-using countries. It is not asked that the United States codify its monetary system, and it is stated distinctly that there is no movement in contemplation for the restoration of international bi-metallism.

The particular desire is that measures be adopted that will prevent the great fluctuations in exchange which now occur in trade with silver-using countries. Citizens of the United States now have investments in Mexico alone aggregating more than half a billion dollars. The earnings of these enterprises have suffered a serious fall in gold values with every fall in the value of Mexican money. This fact, it is suggested, brings home to this country the desirability of adopting some means to insure the stability of exchange.

After considering the subject carefully, it was the opinion of the parties to today's conference that it would be wise for Congress to confer upon the President authority to appoint three commissioners of the United States to participate in any international conference on the question of the stability of exchange that might be arranged. It is expected that another effort will be made at the present session to leave that authority to the President.

NOT FAVORED BY SENATORS.

ELECTION BY DIRECT VOTE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Assembly joint resolution No. 8, requesting Congress to call a convention for the purpose of submitting an amendment to the constitution of the United States, calling for the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people, was defeated in the Senate this afternoon.

The debate was very lively. Sanford said sharp things to the Republican members. He accused them of a lack of good faith. He said the platform of their party favored such an amendment. Hubbell and Gardner were against the resolution. Emmons favored it, and spoke about the plain people demanding the election of United States Senators by direct vote.

The resolution was defeated by one vote. It stood ayes, 16; nays, 17. Sanford gave notice of reconsideration.

ON WAY TOWARD GOAL.

WATER AND FORESTRY BILLS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The State Water and Forest Association had its inning today in both houses of the Legislature. It did not pass any of its bills in the form which it had first intended that they should pass, but it overcame opposition to two of its measures by allowing amendments satisfactory to a majority of the members. They were separate bills and have yet to run the gauntlet of the two houses, respectively, where they will be subjected to amendment, which may deprive them of the very features which the proponents consider the most vital.

In the Assembly the bill under consideration, and the only bill which finally passed the house today was the one known as the Water and Forest Bill, providing for a joint investigation with the national government of the forest and water resources of the State, and appropriating $60,000 for that purpose instead of $107,000 as was at first intended.

Amerige of Orange county attacked that provision of the bill which would appropriate $10,000 for the purpose of placing the matter of the investigation of the proper application of water, and of its distribution under the control of the superintendent of experiment stations. This would give to the Mead faction the right to spend that amount in the alleged investigations, a work which has already been undertaken by the government, and Amerige tried to convince the Legislature that the expenditure of any sum for such purpose would be an absolute waste of money. The Orange county man was practically alone in his fight, however, being opposed even by Lewis of Riverside. Johnson and Drew also opposed him, and his effort to strike out that provision of the bill was defeated. The bill in its amended form then passed by a vote of 49 to 8.

In the Senate there was a two hours' discussion over Curtin's bill providing for the manner in which water shall be distributed. It provides that during seasons of drought the water served to irrigators shall be pro rated among the users of it. It thus contains one of the provisions of the Works bill, but not the most vicious provision. It was contested on the ground that it led the way to the enactment at future sessions of the other provisions of the Works bill, but the bill finally passed. Senator Emmons gave notice of a motion to reconsider, which will have the effect of tying it up for one day, at least, and maybe for a week or more.

MEASURES AFFECTING LOS ANGELES COUNTY.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR THREE, BUT ONE IS IN TROUBLE.

Smooth Sailing for Broughton Law Amendments, Registration of Bonds and Convention Hall Bills—County Boulevards Measure Strongly Opposed.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Of the four measures particularly affecting Los Angeles now before the Legislature or in the hands of the Governor there is an excellent prospect that three will become laws, but the fourth will probably fail of passage.

Two of the four are in the hands of the Governor for his consideration, having passed both houses. They are the bill amending the Broughton street railway franchise law, and the bill providing for the registration of bonds issued by the various political subdivisions of the State, and the Governor will approve both of them. He has not committed himself positively as to these bills, but in a long talk with Assistant City Attorney Goudge today, he expressed himself as being favorably inclined toward both bills. He was seeking just the information which Goudge was able to give him, and stated that he had found nothing objectionable in either of the bills.

The Governor was told what caused the bill to be introduced, providing that cities may issue bonds for the construction of an assembly or convention hall, and was informed of the unanimity of sentiment in Los Angeles in favor of the measure. He asked many questions, and Goudge explained to him the need Los Angeles feels for a convention hall of sufficient size to accommodate large gatherings. The Governor stated that the enterprise of the people of the second city in the State was commendable, and as is well known, he will place no obstacle in the way of it, but instead will do what he can to encourage it. The new bills providing for the legalising of bond issues for convention hall purposes were introduced today in the Senate by Smith and in the Assembly by Stanton, and were referred to the committees on municipal corporations, of which the chairmen are respectively, Senator Savage and Assemblyman McLaughlin. Every effort will be made to rush the measure through as speedily as possible.

The bill providing for county boulevards is in troubled waters. The members of both houses who represent the country districts do not like it, and it will be difficult to amend the measure to satisfy them, and at the same time have it retain its more desirable features. The proposition has been made to amend the bill so that a four-fifths vote of boards of supervisors will be necessary before such boards can order the construction of county boulevards or before they can authorize the expenditure of funds for such a purpose. Even this is not altogether satisfactory to those who say they will oppose the bill. Its proponents have not given up the effort, however, although it is admitted that the ultimate success of the measure is doubtful.

AMENDMENT SLIDES THROUGH.

WORLD'S FAIR APPROPRIATION.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An amendment was made today to the bill providing for an appropriation for the proper exhibition of California products at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, which may have an important bearing upon the part California will take in the big show at St. Louis next year. As is the case with many measures, the members did not know what they were voting for, and the change was made before they had had an opportunity to investigate.

The bill was that introduced several weeks ago which provides for an appropriation of $100,000, to be expended under the direction of the Governor, who shall appoint a director-general for California exhibits. The bill came up today, on second reading, during a rush of business, the equal of which has not been seen before during this session. Drew of Fresno sent to the desk an amendment to the bill which provides that the appropriation shall be considered as applying not only to the St. Louis Exposition, but also to the Lewis and Clark Exposition, which is to be held in Portland during the following year. The amendment was adopted without division, and the bill went to print, and to third reading.

Drew stated later that it was not his purpose to actually divide the appropriation, but he desires to make it possible that at least a portion of the exhibits sent from California to St. Louis be transferred to Portland later, and that a sufficient portion of the appropriation be reserved for that purpose. When the bill comes up on final passage an effort will be made to strike out the amendment.

TOO RADICAL FOR SENATE.

EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY BILL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Another of the so-called labor bills has been defeated, this time the Senate applying the ax. After a discussion which continued during the better part of the afternoon session, the upper house put the stamp of its disapproval on Luchsinger's Employers' Liability Bill, although to secure its passage the leading union-labor men of the State have used every effort of which they were capable.

There are, admittedly, some good points about the measure, but the Senate thought it much too radical, and despite numerous amendments which were offered with a view to making it agreeable to those who opposed it, all the amendments were voted down one after another, and then the bill itself was defeated. A motion to reconsider will be made tomorrow, but it is not considered probable that sufficient strength will be mustered to save the measure, so decisive was the vote.

The provisions of the bill have been explained at length in The Times, the principal object of it being to make an employer liable for damages resulting to an employé through the negligence of a fellow-employé. Strength was given to the measure by reason of the fact that some of the most conservative organizations of employés in the State were lined up behind it. Among them were the various railroad organizations, but the more radical of the laborites also favored the bill, and resorted in some instances to their usual methods of securing votes for it. There is a similar measure by Senator Lukens now on the Senate files, and this will be considered tomorrow. It is almost certain that it will meet a similar fate.

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE.

THIRTY-FIFTH SESSION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 23.—SENATE.—In the nature of messages to the Senate and Assembly, Gov. Pardee this morning transmitted the copy of a dispatch which he had received from Surgeon-General Wyman, relating to the bubonic plague. The dispatch is as follows:

WASHINGTON (D. C.) Feb. 22, 1903.—Gov. Pardee, Sacramento, Cal.: Replying to inquiry I have to say that no case of plague has been discovered in San Francisco since December 11, nearly two months and a half ago, and then only one case. Official reports show that the national, State and city authorities are now working in thorough harmony under the leadership of the Federal officers; that searching inspections are being made daily in Chinatown, and proper sanitary measures are being rigidly enforced, including radical measures for the destruction of rats. Bacteriological examinations of captured rats are being made daily, and the last infected rat was found on December 5, since which time bacteriological examinations have been made of 324 read rats, and none found infected.

The State Department was requested last week to notify the governments of Mexico and Ecuador of the satisfactory conditions now prevailing, and which have prevailed for some time at San Francisco, and doubtless this has been done, and the above facts have been moreover communicated to the international use of American republics.

[Signed] WALTER WYMAN,
Surgeon-General United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service."

Anent the above message the Governor sent this to the Legislature:

SACRAMENTO (Cal.) Feb. 22, 1903.

I have the honor herewith to transmit for your information a copy of a dispatch which has been received from Surgeon-General Wyman of the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service of the United States government.

As you will observe, this dispatch shows that the United States authorities believe the health conditions in San Francisco are now satisfactory, and they have proceeded to communicate a knowledge of the actual situation to the governments of countries which, under a misapprehension, had established quarantines against ships sailing from that port.

The showing thus made is one which the people of California can regard with considerable satisfaction, and I believe that the policy of cooperation between the Federal, State and municipal governments, is being justified by results.

"GEORGE C. PARDEE,
"Governor of California."

In answer to the Senate joint resolution, by Senator Knowlton, protesting against the removal of the Spanish archives from California to Washington, the secretary of the Senate has received the following telegram:

"The Surveyor-General of California has been directed to take no further steps in the matter of the transfer of the Spanish archives from his office to the library of Congress until further orders from this department.

[Signed] "E. A. HITCHCOK,
"Secretary."

Today being the last day for the regular introduction of bills, a large number of measures were presented in both houses of the Legislature.

The following are the titles of the principal bills introduced in the Senate:

By Belshaw—Providing for the building of an assembly hall at San Quentin prison.

Muenter—Relating to motions for a new trial.

Coriett—Amending the Civil Code relating to community property and providing that on the death of th ehusband or wife the entire community property reverts to the survivor.

Coriett—Appropriating $5000 to pay the claim of John C. Felton.

Flint—Providing that disabled members of fire departments shall be entitled to a pension when the disability is traceable to the performance of their duties.

Smith—Empowering municipalities to issue bonds for the purpose of erecting public halls and buildings.

Nelson—Providing that grand jurors be paid $2 per day and mileage at the rate of 15 cents per mile.

Emmons—Providing that the salaries of judges pro tempore of superior courts shall be $20 for each day, or part of a day, of the session of the court in which they participate, providing that no more than $100 be allowed in any one case.

O'Neil introduced nine bills abolishing the pilot commission, leaving the appointment of pilots in the hands of the Harbor Commissioners and discharging all the present pilots.

The measures provide that all fees are to be turned into the State treasury, and that San Francisco pilots are to receive $250 per month.

Coriett introduced a bill providing that every person who sets up or maintains a slot machine is guilty of misdemeanor. A bill introduced by Sanford prevented the blackmailing of employés, and names such an action to be a felony.

The bill requiring uniformity in the furnishing of water for sale or rental was passed by a vote of 23 to 11. Senators Hubbell, Devlin and Emmons spoke against the passage of the bill, while Senator Curtin was the principal proponent of the measure. A notice of reconsideration was given.

The Leavitt bill, limiting the hours of service of laborers, workmen and mechanics on the public works of the State to eight hours a day, passed.

By Smith—Abolishing the State Code Commission.

By Belshaw—Prohibiting the selling of pools and bookmaking. This bill is identical with the measure introduced by the same author last session. The State Agricultural Society is exempted from its provisions.

By Emmons—Prohibiting bookmaking.

By Oneal—Enforcing the educational right of children.

The financial status of the State Agricultural Society is to be fully determined, a resolution containing that provision having been introduced in the Senate by Senator Leavitt today. The resolution provides for the employment of an expert accountant for the Senate Finance Committee, who is to be paid out of the contingent expense fund to the Senate. The resolution was adopted.

A resolution requesting Congress to call a convention for the purpose of submitting an amendment to the Constitution, calling for the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people, was defeated in the Senate today by a vote of 17 to 17.

ASSEMBLY PROCEEDINGS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 23.—In round figures $12,000,000 is the amount allotted for the support of the State government during the next two years, in the general association bill introduced by Chairman Dunlap of the Committee on Ways and Means, in the Assembly today.

For the past few days Chairman Dunlap and the members of the committee have been in close consultation with Gov. Pardee and Walter Melick, secretary of the State Board of Examiners, in framing the important measure.

It is the general opinion that there will be but little opposition to the passage of the several items provided for, inasmuch as it is known that close figuring was rendered necessary by the depleted condition of the State treasury. Several veteran legislators went so far this morning as to say they believed there would not be any necessity for conference over any item in the bill.

This afternoon Assemblyman Higginson introduced a constitutional amendment relating to the compensation of State officers. The salaries are fixed as follows:

Governor, $10,000 a year; Lieutenant-Governor, $1000 a year; Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer, Attorney-General, Surveyor-General, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Superintendent of State Printing, and Clerk of the Supreme Court, $5000 each.

The Johnson bill, commonly known as the water and forestry bill, passed by a vote of 49 to 8. The measure carries an appropriation of $60,000 for preliminary surveys and investigations to determine California's resources in the matter of water for the irrigation of arid lands.

The following are the titles of the principal bills introduced today:

By Waste—Providing that any cadet or officer of cadets of the University of California, who served in the United States Army or navy during the Spanish-American War, who has been honorably discharged, shall, upon graduation, be commissioned by the Governor as captain, provided he is not entitled to higher rank.

By Walsh—Providing that all railroad crossings, when physically practicable, shall be either under or over the existing railroad which it is desired to cross, and if such a method is not feasible, then the proposed crossing shall be protected by an automatic switch and signal service, with derailing switches.

By McNeil—Providing that an adult person over 15 years of age may be adopted by another person for the purpose of making such adopted person a legal heir, provided that the person so adopting shall be the senior of the person adopted.

By Committee on Election Laws—Creating a State commission on voting or ballot machines, consisting of the Governor, Secretary of State and Attorney-General.

By Lux—Providing that boards of police commissioners of any city or city and county shall be authorized and empowered to revoke permits or licenses for the sale of liquor in less quantity than one quart.

AGUIRRE CAUTIONED.

NOT TO MAKE CRIPPLES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN QUENTIN, Feb. 23.—A meeting of the State prison directors was held here today, Wilkins being the only absentee. An inquiry into the uses of the strait-jacket was conducted in advance of the State Assembly investigation, which is expected to be begun tomorrow. At the conclusion of this inquiry Warden Aguirre was told not to punish any prisoner so as to cripple him.

The prison price of jute bags was fixed at 5½ cents each for the ensuing year. No lot of more than 2000 sacks will be sold to any individual.

Capt. A. F. Williams, serving ten years from Stockton for the murder on a steamboat of a man named Martin, was paroled, as was also William Williams, a convict dying of consumption, who was serving thirty years from Napa for murder. The sentences of both men had previously been commuted by the late Governor, and they were to have been released in the latter part of the year.

A communication was received from Congressman Kahn asking for the parole of Charles Didbur, for whose release an effort is being made.

ASSEMBLYMEN ARRIVE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN QUENTIN, Feb. 23.—The committee from the Assembly especially appointed to investigate prison affairs met here today. The legislators came early and did not notify the warden. They consumed all day in looking into the alleged cruelties of the strait-jacket, and tonight held another session. The committee is composed of Assemblymen Camp, chairman; J. C. Bates, George T. Rolley, Thomas Finn, J. O. Traber, H. Soward and G. Baxter.

The dungeons were closely inspected and John Gilroy, alias George Boon, who was a few hours before in a strait-jacket, was examined. Gilroy said he was punished for loafing. It developed that his punishment grew out of a belief among the prisoners that the warden would not dare punish prisoners during the session of the Legislature. Gilroy was selected to make a test, and Friday he refused to continue with his work in the jute mill. He was eighteen hours in the jacket. His body did not bear marks of ill usage. Gilroy is a third-termer, and has been a troublesome prisoner. It was unofficially stated that the committee would not report in favor of abolishing the jacket.

Many prisoners were examined tonight. There were no sensational developments. The committee stayed at the prison tonight and will continue the investiagtion tomorrow. Folsom Prison will then be visited.

CALIFORNIA DERBY.

THIRD-CHOICE CLAUDE WIN[illegible]

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—In [illegible] presence of the largest crowd of t[illegible] season, Claude won the Californ[illegible] Derby at Ingleside today, with Go[illegible] Van second, and Epicure, the favorit[illegible] third. The sport was favored by fi[illegible] weather and a good track, and th[illegible] card was an attractive one.

The Derby field was reduced to e[illegible] starters, owing to the withdrawal o[illegible] Krishna, Elliott, Fossil and Frank Bo[illegible] lock. The first named two were lame and Mr. Jennings decided not to star[illegible] them. Gold Van and Dunaree speed favorites, but the money went to [illegible] Epicure, and at post time he faced th[illegible] call. Claude was a well-played third choice. To a good start Durazzo led, Epicure went to the front, while [illegible] Daly on Claude avoided the early pace. The order was not changed to any ex[illegible] tent until shortly before the head o[illegible] the stretch was reached. There Claud[illegible] moved up, and passing Epicure, as[illegible] sumed the lead, while Durazzo fe[illegible] back. He won handily from Gold Van, who ran gamely under the heavy im[illegible] post of 127 pounds. Epicure, affected by the early pace, tired, but lasted long enough to be third. The event had a value of $3460, of which $[illegible] went to the winner.

The mile racearound more enthusiasm than the Derby. Kenilworth, Cunard and Yellow Tail met, and they each had supporters, although Kenilworth went to the post a 6-to-5 favorite. Shaw took the big sprinter to the front, and rating him with fine judgment, maintained the lead all the way. Cunard challenged him, but Kenilworth won by half a length in a drive. Yellow Tail was six lengths away. The race was run in 1:41. If 1:39 was equaled or broken the association would have added $500 to the purse. James Neil, owner of Mike Murphy, claimed Golden Light out of the first race for $725. Ben Macdhui, winner of the last race, was bid up from $500 to $800 by T. Wellman, but T. H. Ryan retained him. Summary:

COAST LEAGUE'S FUTURE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—There is yet a chance, says the Chronicle, that the Pacific Coast Baseball League may become a member of the National Association of Minor Leagues if the last-named organization is prepared to come to the local people's terms. President Hickey of the American Association and President Sexton of the Western League are now coming to the Coast for the purpose of making one last appeal to perfect their order by having the coöperation of this most important league.

Two things must be acceded to by those emissaries in order to gain their point. The Pacific Coast League must be given full sway in Portland and Seattle, and the players so far signed from other leagues must be allowed to remain here. On such a basis, the strong local circuit might be included in the association and the last link in the great baseball chain forged. It is even possible that the Coast people might consent to opposition in Seattle, provided non-conflicting dates were agreed upon, but such a thing is not likely.

PLAYING SCHEDULE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—The Rule and Schedule Committee of the American and National Baseball Leagues met today at the Auditorium Annex to make out a playing schedule for the season, and at the same time to make any changes in the rules that may be considered desirable. Those present at the conference were Ned Hanlon of Brooklyn, Barney Dreyfuss, Pittsburgh; Max Fleischman, Cincinnati; Pat Powers and President James A. Hart of the National League; Ben F. Shive, Philadelphia; Tom Loftus of the American League, James H. Ferrell, secretary of the National Board of Minor Leagues, and M. H. Sexton of the Western League. President Ban Johnson of the American League was not present, owing to illness.

BOWLING CONGRESS.

FIXES WEIGHT OF BALLS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 23.—At its first session today, the American Bowling Congress adopted the recommendation of the Executive Committee, that the maximum weight of bowling balls shall not exceed 16½ pounds. The decision on the weight of balls was a compromise. Balls may be loaded up to the maximum weight specified. There is no talk of a split in the congress, and all danger of such a result seems past.

Three hundred delegates and bowlers were present when the first session of the Council opened. President Bookwalter, Mayor of Indianapolis, presided and welcomed the guests.

The recommendation that the minimum weight of pins shall be three pounds and two ounces was adopted without opposition. Several minor changes were adopted. One of them was that a team to be eligible to compete in A, B, C games must have a practice night at least once in two weeks, or roll in one or more leagues at least once in two weeks.

The congress adjourned until 10 a.m. Thursday.

Cleveland was selected for the next national congress.

SEIZED ARNOLD'S HORSES.

SEVEN FOUND IN CHICAGO.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Acting as a receiver in bankruptcy in Illinois in the case of E. J. Arnold & Co., Attorney Milton J. Foreman today took possession of seven race horses belonging to the company. The horses reached Chicago in the morning from San Francisco, from where they mysteriously disappeared several days ago. In the lot are Bessie McCarthy, Ethelyne, Irene Lindsay and Felix Bard.

Five of Arnold's horses were found in the livery barn of Winship & Price, the other two were taken from a special horse car which had been sidetracked on the Chicago and Alton tracks. Thomas Kiley, trainer for Arnold, and Williams Cummings were in charge of the horses. The men would not admit that the horses belonged to Arnold, however.

"YOUNG CORBETT"-HANLON MILL.

BOTH MEN TRAINING HARD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Hundreds tried to see "Young Corbett" today at his quarters on Ocean Beach, but he had become wary and allowed only personal friends to reach his rooms. No fighter who has ever come out here has excited so much interest as "Young Corbett." Every one praises him for his modesty and his skill, and though Hanlon is a local boy, Corbett promises to be the favorite in the betting.

Corbett is putting in nearly all his time in outdoor work, which he regards as better training than boxing in the gym. He runs many miles every day over sandhills and along the hard ocean beach, and this exercise in the sun is reducing his weight and making his flesh as hard as nails.

Jockey Tommy Burns is much pleased with Corbett's condition and predicts success for him. "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien also tips Corbett to win. He said today: "He is the toughest little proposition in the ring today. He is invincible at 128 pounds—good and strong at that weight, and very fast."

Hanlon also has many admirers who are equally sure he will win, and Eddie himself feels certain he will be the champion next Thursday night.

Matty Matthews Wins.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 23.—Matty Matthews of Brooklyn secured the decision before the Allegheny Athletic Club tonight over Tom Couhig of Dunkirk, N. Y., after ten rounds of fast fighting.

Stayed Six Rounds.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 23.—Jack McCormick of this city stayed six rounds with "Kid McCoy" tonight at the Washington Sporting Club. McCormick was entirely outclassed, and was on the defensive throughout. He took the count ten times, and only once succeeded in landing on McCoy.

Match at Haywards.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—The association football match played today on the baseball park at Haywards between picked teams representing Oakland and San Francisco was won by the Oakland team, 5 goals to 3.

Handicap Singles Tennis.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—The handicap singles tennis tournament was finished today on the California Club courts. The honors were carried off by Grant Smith, who defeated R. M. Whitney in the finals.

HERRERA WINS AGAIN.

SHORT WORK OF JACOBS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SALT LAKE (Utah) Feb. 23.—Aurelio Herrera, the California featherweight, made short work of Tommy Jacobs, young Corbett's former sparring partner, at the Salt Lake Athletic Club tonight, knocking him completely out in the third round of a scheduled twenty-round fight. It was simply a contest between a boxer and a fighter, Jacobs forcing the fight in the first round, but not being able to land effectively, Herrera covering himself splendidly.

In the second round, after a moment's sparring, Herrera's right was hooked flush on Jacob's jaw, and the latter went down for an eight count. He went down three times more, and only was saved by the gong. A right-hander squarely on the solar plexus shortly after the gong sounded for the third round put Jacobs on his back, and it was several minutes before he recovered.

Crescent City Card.

NEW ORLEANS (La.) Feb. 23.—Seven furlongs: Byways won, War Cry second, Sidney Sabbath third; time 1:28.

Scott of New York, winner of last year's championship, who easily defeated B. Wendell, Jr., the Harvard crack, in three straight games.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Wylie C. Grant, expert of the New York Lawn Tennis Club, won the national indoor lawn-tennis championship in the singles today on the board courts of the Seventh Regiment Armory. He defeated Calhoun Craigie.

GLUTTONY

Is more common than we may think, if we define gluttony as eating beyond the body's need of sustenance and beyond the stomach's capacity for digestion and assimilation of food. That is a fair definition, and it fastens the name glutton on many a person who would resent the term as an insult. The fact of this gluttony is marked by its consequences. The overloaded stomach becomes diseased. The popular term for the condition is "weak" stomach. The "weak" stomach fails in furnishing adequate nutrition for the body, and soon the "weakness" spreads from the stomach to other organs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect assimilation of food, by which alone the health and strength of the body is maintained.

"Your medicine helped me so much that I cannot praise it too highly," writes Mrs. C. L. Brooks, of Poland, Androscoggin Co., Me. "The first dose I took helped me. I cannot forget how I felt when I took it; I was suffering everything with indigestion, and my stomach was so bloated that it seemed as though it must burst. My husband said he was going for the doctor, but I said if he would get me a bottle of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I would try that. I had not taken it long when I felt relieved, and have not had a touch of indigestion or stomach trouble since. I had been sick for four years, and less than four bottles cured me. Some people that knew me before I began to take the 'Golden Medical Discovery' tell me that they never saw such a change in any one, and they also say they don't see how I can do such large washings as I do now, when I had not done a washing for so long."

Seventh Anniversary Sale

A Bargain Feast Without a Precedent

...EVERY DEPARTMENT IS REPRESENTED...

The phenomenally rapid growth of this store has caused comment from business people all over the United States. There's scarcely a trade journal of any consequence published but has alluded in some manner to the marvelous growth of this store. People who visit Los Angeles season after season wonder how a store outside of the large Eastern cities could attain such a growth in such a remarkably short space of time. It's easily explained. Seven years ago this store commenced filling a long felt want. That want was like a growing boy's appetite—which grows just a little faster than the boy. We've been filling that want ever since, and in so doing have attained our present proportions. Behind our unprecedented success lies hidden a meaning—a direct cause—a powerful truth. The thoroughness, upright dealing and progressiveness that always characterize this business are solely responsible for its growth. In the future, as in the past, every effort will be exerted to surpass our own proud record in serving the public faithfully and thereby growing and growing.

WELCOME DAKOTANS.

A large and intelligent bunch of editors from North Dakota, where the blizzards come from, is due in Los Angeles today. Let them be made welcome and thawed out as soon as possible that they may go forth and enjoy the beauties that lie about this favored spot in such generous superabundance. We trust that none of them not inured to much sunshine at this season of the year will become sunstruck while with us, and it gives us pleasure to state that should they get homesick for a sight of snowballs, the Chamber of Commerce will doubtless be glad to have a supply brought down from the cañon back of Echo Mountain. It is our desire to please. We have no blizzards with which to make them feel entirely at home, but there is an orange crop down the line that is beautiful to see, and suck into. The emerald hills may look a bit strange to these wanderers from the far and frosty land, considering the season of the year, and the ear muffs that they have stuffed into the pockets of their overcoats may be de trop, as it were, but it will be verdant by and by, in North Dakota, and the ear muffs will come in handy next winter.

We tender to these visitors from the place where Boreas has his headquarters a most cordial and sincere welcome, in the name of the busiest and most hurried people on earth. We are so busy building things that we may seem a little lacking in warmth, and the streets may appear a trifle dusty, but the heart of the average Angeleño is in the right place—and Los Angeles is the place. Brethren of the frosted ear, and the highly ornate collection of chilblains, come right in and take off your things—and don't take it to heart if we do josh you a little.

UNION-LABOR THREATS.

There have been many threats since the beginning of the legislative session as to what union laborites would do to those members of the Legislature who refuse to bow down before the union-labor joss and do the bidding of its followers by voting for all sorts of pernicious class legislation. It should be understood, once and for all, that these threats are as the idle wind. There should be no terror in them for any honest member of the Legislature, nor for any honest man in any of the walks of life. These threats are mere bluff and blarney. Those who make them are powerless to carry them into execution for reasons which will be fully apparent to any intelligent mind upon a little careful reflection.

The common sense and the love of fair play possessed by the American people are proverbial. They will not long tolerate wrong and humbug. They are also very watchful of their deeply-prized heritage of liberty. When they see any man or association of men adopting coercive and un-American methods, public opposition to those methods is at once created. The intensity of this opposition depends upon the extent and character of the unjust methods employed. If the threats which have been made by the union laborites at Sacramento could be translated into action, we should soon have a State government dominated exclusively by the men who are banded together into secret societies known as trade unions. It is certainly not necessary to point out the fact that were our State government controlled and dominated by these organizations, the rights of non-unionists (in which category is comprised the great mass of the people) would not be safe.

We have had ample evidence on this score during the present session of the Legislature. Nearly all the bills which have been introduced by the union-laborite contingent have been of the class known as "cinch" bills, or measures designed to give the members of labor unions some advantage not enjoyed by the community at large. The aggressiveness and the bitterness with which these "cinch" measures have been pushed afford us a fair illustration of what we might expect if the State Legislature were completely under the domination of these secret societies. The conditions would be simply intolerable. We should speedily have a flood of class legislation, in which the rights of all non-unionists (the public) would be trampled under foot. We should, in effect, have a government of, by, and for, trade-unionists.

The people realize this more and more. They have been forced to a keener realization of this possible contingency and its signification by reason of the course pursued by the union-labor contingent in the Legislature. It is because the people are aware of the situation and its dangers that the threats of the union-laborite members are not to be feared. These threats will have an exactly opposite effect from that which they are intended to have upon the public mind. They will serve to align honest men and thinking men and conservative men, without regard to political parties, in opposition to the high-handed and un-American methods which are sought to be authorized by, and ingrafted into, the laws of the State.

The pendulum of public opinion may sometimes be forced to swing a long way in the wrong direction, but it is morally certain to swing back to the right in due course of time. And in this country public opinion still controls in the making of laws and the administration of justice. When it ceases to control in these matters, we shall cease to be free.

THE NEGRO PROBLEM.

The race problem in the Southern States has been forced upon the attention of the people of the country more prominently during the past few months than at any time since the period immediately following the Civil War. This is largely due to the fact that the incumbent of the White House, with his usual straightforward determination in doing what he believes to be right, has insisted upon refusing to discriminate between office seekers, merely on account of the color of their skins.

Thinking men, who look beyond the ends of their noses, have for years foreseen that this is a difficult problem, with which the American nation must make up its mind sooner or later to deal. Speaking at a Harvard College commencement, a couple of years ago, Wayne MacVeagh said:

"There is a great problem which we are refusing to consider, and by which refusal the ethical ideal of law is also being destroyed. It is the problem presented by our negro population, now approaching ten millions of souls. We gave them the suffrage and we have allowed some of them to be killed for possessing it. We appointed some of them to office, and have stood meekly by when they were shot for having our commission in their hands. They are being burned before our eyes without even a pretense of trial.

"We are allowing State after State openly, even contemptuously, to nullify a solemn amendment of the Constitution enacted for their protection, to secure which we poured out our treasure without limit and shed the blood of our sons like water. All of us, whether in public office or private station, now concur in trying to ignore the existence of any such problem at our doors, while laughing, like the Roman augurs, in each other's faces, we indulge in self-congratulations about the blessings we are carrying to another ten millions of dark-skinned race in far-distant lands."

Mr. MacVeagh went on to say, pertinently: "Whether or not the colored race is a desirable part of our population is something that is entirely out of the question. The negro is here, and the impossibility of getting rid of him is admitted. The question is, what are you going to do about it?"

An evidence of the difficulty of the problem that confronts us, owing to the diametrically opposing views held on the subject in the South and in the North, is furnished by a special dispatch from Cleveland to The Times of Monday, giving an extract from an interview with Rev. Thomas Dixon, a noted author and lecturer, who is reported as having said the following, he being well aware that he was talking for publication:

"As a slave, the colored man was all right, and he is all right as a laborer, but as an educated man he is a monstrosity.

"There will be a race war, representing the most terrible conflict this world has ever seen. Nothing that can be done by human hands can prevent this. It will come just as certain as the sun continues to rise and set. On one side will be the Anglo-Saxon race and on the other the negro people. With 3000 years of civilization in favor of the former, there can be but one result. The Anglo-Saxon people will sweep the negro people off the face of the continent."

This Thomas Dixon is the author of a book, published last year, entitled, "The Leopard's Spots," which has obtained a remarkably wide circulation. It is now in its one hundred thousandth edition and is selling faster than ever. It has just been brought out in London, and is being translated into German in Munich. The book is a presentation, in the form of a novel, of the race problem, from the viewpoint of the Southerner. It deals with the gloomy reconstruction period immediately following the war. The writer credits the men whom the Southerners met on the field of battle with bravery and generosity, but has no words strong enough to depict the contempt felt by the Southern people for the "carpet-baggers," who swept down upon the South after the trouble was over. He declares that the armed dispute which terminated at Appomattox would soon have sunk into oblivion, the Southerner being willing to accept the inevitable and recognize the new order of things, but that the wrongs inflicted upon them by Northern civilians who were sent to manage their affairs cannot be forgotten in a thousand years. It is scarcely reasonable to charge the whole people of the North with the mistakes and misdeeds of a handful of men, whose doings were no more approved of by intelligent Northerners than by those who live south of Mason and Dixon's line.

The attitude toward the negro held by the author of this book—which presumably represents the views of a majority of intelligent Southerners—may be gathered from his expressions in the interview above quoted. Throughout, he sees hanging over any system of negro advancement or education the awful possibility of a mixture of races. But no reasonable man in the North would think of insisting upon further social recognition of the negro than his white neighbor is willing to grant. All that is demanded is the free possession by the colored man of the civil and political rights guaranteed to him by the Constitution of the United States.

The negro is here, to the number of nine millions or so, and he is not likely to decrease in numbers. On the contrary, owing to the fecundity of his race and the growing disinclination on the part of white American families to rear children, it is likely that the proportionate black population of the South will increase from year to year. What, then, is to be done with him? He cannot be returned to slavery, or kept in a state of modified serfdom. The South is largely responsible for his appearance in this country, having utilized his services for many years, although it is doubtless true that this responsibility is fully shared by the New England slave traders, who did a lucrative business in exchanging rum for negroes. It is a condition, not a theory, that confronts us, a condition that affects not merely the South, but the nation at large.

Among other suggestions that have been made for the solution of this problem is the transplanting of the negroes to some faraway land, where they might work out their own salvation. There are two leading obstacles to this course. In the first place, a majority of the negroes would not be satisfied to go away from the only homes they have ever known, and in the second place, the Southern white people would object to their leaving, because they need their labor. Liberia, where such an experiment has been in existence for many years, is only a qualified success. Not long ago there was quite a discussion in regard to the project of a wholesale emigration of negroes to the African colony. At that time a prominent colored man of Los Angeles, Rev. S. W. Hawkins, a graduate of an Indiana college and pastor of the local Zion Methodist Church, was quoted on this subject in The Times as saying that "There was no doubt in his mind that eventually the negroes all over the United States will return to Africa, and that he believed they should do so, as that is the home of the race. But the time, he thought, has not yet come. "Until the negro has become sufficiently imbued with our present best standards and customs of civilization," Mr. Hawkins said, "he is not fitted to work out his destiny apart from the white race."

As stated, this is a grave problem that cannot be evaded, but must be faced and worked out. All patriotic Americans will sincerely hope that it may be solved without further trouble, for, in all conscience, we have had enough trouble on this subject already. In considering the question, Northern people should exercise broad-minded charity, should endeavor to put themselves in the places of their Southern brethren, who live in communities where the negro predominates in numbers, and should be willing to admit that their views on the subject might possibly be modified did they dwell among the same surroundings. At the same time, the problem is not likely to be brought to a satisfactory conclusion by such language as that attributed to the reverend fire eater above quoted.

A fine array of new schoolhouses is promised, as soon as funds are available from sale of the bonds recently authorized for issue. This city has been striving with might and main, for many years, to keep up with the demand for school facilities, but without entire success, up to this time. School children have increased in number very much faster than money could be secured to enable carpenters to frame timbers and drive nails. This is not entirely due to our birth statistics, but arises in good part from the influx of parents from other sections of the nation who have large families in need of education. Schoolrooms have been crowded to the point of discomfort all over the city, and many children have been compelled to be satisfied to go to their classes but a half-day at a time. It will be reason for rejoicing when Los Angeles, for once, has enough schoolhouses and teachers to afford every child within the limits of the municipality a full day's schooling throughout the term in each school quarter. That day seems to be not far distant. Congratulations are, therefore, in order.

There appears to be a disinclination in the Legislature to pass the measure enabling boards of supervisors to construct and maintain boulevards and to contract indebtedness for such work, as requested by joint committees of the Chamber of Commerce, but just why is by no means apparent. Of course, it is claimed that too much power must not be given to these governing boards of counties, but why it should be any more dangerous to give them authority regarding the construction of roadways than it is with reference to other work of a public character, has not been made manifest. It is not likely that the work of building boulevards to any magnitude will be undertaken, except by the issuance of bonds, and as it will be left to the people whether such bond issues shall be authorized, there would appear to be no risk in giving the people opportunity to express their wishes regarding this class of improvements. The suggested amendment to the County Government Act ought to pass, and it is to be hoped that our legislators will unite and hustle to that end.

In addition to the need for better streets, and more miles of asphalt pavements than there are in Los Angeles at this writing, there is a more than urgent demand in many portions of the city for more light. Many of the streets are enveloped in gloom, excepting at widely separated points, thus adding to the ease and safety with which the hold-up man may operate, and immensely increasing the nervousness and apprehension of the pedestrian who is, at times, compelled to walk a distance of several blocks from a street car to his domicile. With numerous companies grinding out the electric current in Los Angeles, or adjacent thereto, there would seem to be no good reason why we should not have one of the most brilliantly-illuminated cities in the country. The footpad is bad enough at the best, but he is certainly a holy terror when he cries "Hands up" in the midst of Cimmerian darkness, as it were. Let there be light, and let it come soon.

The sick man of Europe has agreed to reform; in other words, he has agreed to take some drastic doses of common decency. He is wise in this; otherwise it is not unlikely that the powers would shortly have commenced to shoot the medicine into his Sublime Hatefulness from certain long, slim cannon, and from arms of lesser caliber. The mending of the infirmities of this more or less distinguished invalid is something that the world has been looking forward to for many years of suffering and misery among his outraged dependencies.

Scandal has now broken out at the court of the Khedive of Egypt, but it lacks many of the elements of the picturesque surrounding the case of a Princess of the Belgian blood royal. Still, this case commenced with an attempt at suicide, while the earlier one had an attempt of that character as a finale. Otherwise, in the absence of a tutor, the incidents were not dissimilar. If entirely in order we would gently murmur, "Next."

Should the Marconi system of wireless telegraphy prove sufficiently effective to secure prevention of railroad collisions, front or rear, then will the name of Marconi be emblazoned with still greater glory. The collisionless railroad will fill one of the wants that has been long felt in this country. Let all good travelers, and poor travelers, too, pray that the scheme may work with entire success.

METHODIST MORNING PAPER.

Philadelphia Ministers to Print a Sheet Containing No Sports and Free from "Yellow Journalism."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At the Methodist ministers' meeting today the plans for a new secular morning paper to be published six days in the week were explained and discussed. The paper is to be called the Pennsylvania Square Gazette. The capital stock is $600,000, and $250,000 of this is to be preferred.

The paper is to have no sporting news. It is to be smaller in size than the present daily sheets, and will be printed in larger type. No advertisements are to be admitted on the first or editorial pages, and certain other advertisements are not to be admitted at all.

Satisfactory arrangements have been made, it is said, for getting the news of the world and for so editing it that there will be no "yellow journalism" in the paper. In response to a question as to whether it would be necessary to work on the Sabbath in order to get out the Monday morning edition, the answer was most emphatic that a paper could not be got out in any other way.

HOT AFTER WAR OFFICE.

Unionist Split in the House of Commons.

Vote of Censure Against Brodrick May Be Carried.

Americans at the King's Levee—Canadian Pacific's Transatlantic Line.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 23.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The criticism of the British War Office culminated in the House of Commons today in a motion for a vote of censure against War Secretary Brodrick. The motion was in the shape of an amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne, regretting the fact that the "organization of the army was not suited to the needs of the empire, and that no proportionate gain in strength or efficiency had resulted from the recent increase of military expenditure." The motion was identical with an amendment moved by Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader, when Mr. Brodrick introduced his army reform scheme in 1901. Today, however, the vote of censure was proposed by Mr. Beckett, an influential Conservative, who was supported by a considerable section of revolting Unionists. In introducing the motion, Mr. Beckett declared that Mr. Brodrick had deplorably neglected the greatest opportunity ever given to a Minister, and had produced a scheme which was not only unsound in principle, but was ruinous in practice and enormously costly.

Maj. Seely, Conservative, Sir Charles Dilke, Advanced Radical, and others having spoken in denunciation of the War Office, declaring the country was "tired of its policy of mess and muddle." Mr. Brodrick replied. He said he welcomed a direct attack, and defended it heatedly, if not very convincingly. He ridiculed the suggestion that Great Britain could depend on her citizen army, which he described as a "mob of volunteers," and pleaded to be given time to carry out his army corps scheme, as the result of which "the army for the first time in living memory is above its supposed full strength in every branch except the infantry."

KING'S LEVEE.

AMERICANS PRESENTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 23.—[By Atlantic Cable.] King Edward held the first levee of the season in the throne-room of Buckingham Palace today. Ambassador Choate and the other members of the United States Embassy were among the diplomats present. The King was attended by the Prince of Wales, most of the Cabinet ministers and all the great officers of state. Mr. Choate presented, among others, D. R. Francis, president of the St. Louis Exposition.

After the levee the King sent to ask Mr. Francis if he would like to be received in private audience, and received an affirmative reply. He promised to fix a date.

Mr. Francis attended today's debate in the House of Commons on War Secretary Brodrick's army scheme.

During an informal conversation which Mr. Francis had with Lord Lansdowne on the subject of the St. Louis Exposition, the Foreign Secretary expressed keen interest in the fair, and promised it every possible support.

Mr. Francis anticipates an early announcement of the appointment of a royal commission to arrange for Great Britain' participation in the exposition.

BEAVER LINE STEAMERS.

BOUGHT BY CANADIAN PACIFIC.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 23.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The negotiation for the purchase by the Canadian Pacific Railroad of fourteen Beaver Line steamers from Elder, Dempster & Co., were satisfactorily concluded today. The price paid is not yet disclosed, but it is said to be about $7,500,000. The deal is regarded here as having an important bearing on the projected Canadian fast-mail service, as it probably will eliminate the tender of Elder, Dempster & Co., therefor, and leave the Canadian Pacific in a better position to secure the contract.

SHIPPING TRUST.

ITS DEAL WITH MINISTRY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 23.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Replying to a question in the House of Commons today, Gerald Balfour, president of the Board of Trade, said the general lines of the agreement between the British government and the International Mercantile Marine Company, had been determined upon, and the house would be given an opportunity to discuss the arrangements before it was finally concluded.

SECRET "CODE" OF PORTERS.

They Affix Labels to Luggage in Such a Way to Indicate Whether the Owner is a Good Thing.

[STAFF CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Feb. 4.—According to a statement just made, it behooves one traveling in Europe to superintend personally the affixing to his baggage of the hotel "labels," so much prized by Americans—else he may go to h's next stopping place identified unmistakably either as a "good thing," or the reverse. It is affirmed that waiters and porters on the continent have a distinct code by which to let their confreres know a traveler's proclivities in the matter of tips. It is all done by means of the hotel labels—the position of the "sticker" and the angle at which it is affixed telling the whole story. Thus, if a tourist, on leaving a hostelry, dispenses francs, marks or lire in every direction, the menial who labels his luggage will tip up the pasters in such a way as to herald to waiters, porters and chambermaids in other hotels that the owner of the trunk or bag is a person to be cultivated; whereas the man who neglects to soothe the itching palms on all sides of him is identified in a language that no continental servant can misunderstand as one who is doing it "on the cheap." So, perhaps, after all, it is well for one to buy his luggage, "ready labeled," as it is now possible to do at some enterprising shops.

HEAD-ON COLLISION ON THE BIG FOUR.

FOUR MAIL CLERKS BURNED TO DEATH IN THEIR CAR.

Engineers, Express Messenger and Firemen Injured—Trains Came Together Near the Tunnel at Bera and Were Running at Full Speed.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CLEVELAND, Feb. 23.—In a head-on collision at 10 o'clock tonight between a west-bound passenger train and an east-bound freight on the Big Four a mile east of Bera, four mail clerks were burned to death.

The trains met about half a mile east of the railway tunnel and were running at full speed. Both engines were demolished and the track was heaped with débris. The passenger train left Cleveland at 9:30 o'clock. Shortly after the collision the débris caught fire and burned fiercely. The dead:

W. H. ROCKWELL, head clerk, Cleveland.
E. W. KRIESMAN, Cleveland.
T. W. SMILEY, Cleveland.
L. M. WALWORTH, Cleveland.

All were burned to death except Walworth, who was so badly injured that he died in a few minutes.

The seriously injured:

JOHN FERGUSON, Cleveland, engineer of passenger train.

WILLIAM FISH, Cleveland, engineer of passenger train.

JOE COULTER, express messenger. Coulter was saved from the flames by passengers throwing snow on the fire. Two women's names have been, not yet been learned, also are injured. No passengers are reported injured.

WRECK AT HURON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

HURON (S. D.) Feb. 23.—One man was killed and thirteen other persons more or less seriously injured in an accident on the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad near Athol, today. The dead:

FRED A. BOPP, vice-president of a bank at Hawkeye, Iowa.

Injured seriously:

P. Cribbs, member State Legislature from Brown county; head cut and back injured; unconscious for several hours.

T. H. LARABEE, Chicago, hips and shoulder injured.

P. KELLY, Aberdeen, injured internally.

HILDA MURRAY, Dekalb, Ill., left leg and side injured.

LILLIE BITSTAD, Callendar, Iowa, head cut and side bruised.

CHARLES CROW, Aberdeen, Iowa, head cut, back sprained.

LOW FARE TO DAWSON.

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Feb. 22.—The prospect of being able to travel from Vancouver to Dawson City for less than $100, meals and all other accommodations included, the cheapest through rate ever known to obtain between these points, will in all probability go into effect with the opening of navigation on the Yukon in the month of May next. It is said that the White Pass Company will make a determined effort to push the independent lines to the wall during the coming summer. It is reported that the war will commence as soon as the ice goes out of the upper river.

GERMAN VILLAGES BURNED.

BERLIN, Feb. 22.—Severe gales swept over Germany Saturday and Sunday and a series of destructive fires, spread by the wind, occurred. In the village of Huertgen ninety-two houses were burned, and at Kleinenburg, Rheinish Prussia, forty-four buildings were destroyed. Smaller fires were reported elsewhere with some casualties. At Dolina, across the frontier at Galacia, upward of a hundred houses were destroyed.

BEEF TRUST MERGER PLANS COMPLETE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Plans are practically complete for the merging of the interests of the firms that comprise the beef trust. Unless something unforeseen arises, April 1 will see the official announcement of the incorporation of a securities-holding company, which eventually may control the meat trade of the world.

Unlike the popular idea of the packers' merger, however, for the time being it is not to embrace everything in sight, nor is it to be capitalized at $500,000,000, as announced. Further, the plans contemplate no friction with the Federal courts because of the recent decision by Judge Grosscup against the packing-house combine. The nucleus of the great combine of world-wide interest is the merging of the smaller independent plants, bought last year by the big packers, preparatory to the general merger planned at that time. The securities to be held by the new corporation are those of the G. H. Hammond Packing Company, the Omaha Packing Company, the Anglo-American-Fowler companies, the St. Louis Beef Company and the United States Dressed Beef Company, and possibly several of the outside stock yards now controlled by Chicago interests. Chicago will be the headquarters of the combination, but so far as the public is concerned there will be no immediate change in the operation of the individual plants under the new régime. It is planned to head the securities company with present officials of the individual companies, instead of the big packers themselves, or those immediately associated with them in the "Big Six."

The slate of officials for the securities company has been prepared, and is said to contain the names of J. C. Melvin and J. P. Lyman of the Hammond Packing Company, Frederick Conn of the Anglo-American, and E. F. Robbins of the Omaha Packing Company. Probably the last named will be chairman of the board of directors.

It is not known definitely what will be the capital of the securities-holding company, but it is thought the figures will be in excess of the purchase price of the companies to be combined—probably something like $50,000,000.

THE PLAYHOUSES.

BURBANK. The Burbank this week presents a play of the good old-fashioned melodramatic order. It is called "Sandy Bottom," and is not worse constructed than several other melodramas played here by better companies, such as "Hon. John Grigsby," "The Christian" and a few more which have been made famous by the big personal successes of favorite stars. In "Sandy Bottom" the villain is convicted by a novel method—a photo taken in the dark and likewise in the dark—with a flashlight. However, so long as the villain be convicted what matter the means? There is some good work done in the company, especially worthy of note being Mammy Lyttleton, played by Eva Earl Franck, whose make-up and impersonation are above the average. Louette Babcock plays the part as Sue. "Sandy Bottom" will run a week, with a matinée Saturday.

ORPHEUM. The Orpheum bill contains three first-class attractions this week. They are Les Dumonds, the Parisian street musicians, who made such a hit here last year; John T. Sullivan, "Capt. Huntington," and Cole and Johnson, negro entertainers. The latter are the hit of the programme. Les Dumonds are clever performers, giving the foreign zip and swing that make our own vaudeville musicians famous. John Sullivan, supported by Miss Atherton and another lady whose name does not appear, do a funny playlet by Sidney Grundy. It is really funny and keeps the house in a roar. Cole and Johnson, whose color won't come off with cold cream, are the best things in the line of black-face entertainers that the Orpheum has ever shown. They have the rich chocolate voices of the race, the flashing teeth and eyes, the childlike good-humor. They sing their own songs and sing them well. The burnt-corked white man ever seen. The Martinetti, green-silk acrobats, look like four frantic Irish flags. They are clever equilibrists. Other features are Maxwell & Co., in the "Fire Chief"; Nelson's Comiques and Lottie Gilson, who calls herself the Little Rebel. Perhaps she draws steel from some of her audiences, but she is safe among the tolerant Orpheumites.

PERSONAL.

Sir Tatton Sykes, Countess [illegible] Lichtevoelde and servants, of London, England, arrived late last night at Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Studebaker, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Studebaker, Jr., of South Bend, Ind., are registered at the Westminster. The Studebakers are well-known wagon makers of the Silver State.

Liquid Air.

The audience of Ebell members and their friends that filled Cumnock Hall, both floor and gallery, yesterday, in anticipation of hearing Prof. G. R. Bobrick lecture on "Liquid Air," was not disappointed, for anything more interesting than the demonstration he gave would be hard to conceive. As the lecturer himself said in regard to a detail of the afternoon, "it looked like magic, but it is pure science."

Prof. Bobrick, who is head of the liquid air company in this city, which is the only one in America outside of New York and Washington, D. C., where he was formerly engineer, was, still earlier, engineer of technology at the Institute of Technology at St. Petersburg, and his opening talk fairly bristled with statements concerning the different degrees of temperature below zero (Fahrenheit,) at which liquid air would boil, would freeze other substances, etc. He was equipped with a simple paraphernalia with which the innocent-looking stuff was made to perform most wonderful stunts. Cranberries went into the medium and came out in a few seconds red hailstones. A combination of steel pen, liquid air and flame resulted in the vaporization of the steel pen. A rubber tube, after immersion in the liquid, cracked and splintered under blows from a hammer like rock candy, and rubber bounce balls after like treatment scattered in fragments like the cannon torpedoes children throw on the Fourth of July, while a sheet of tin cracked like a piece of thin ice.

The speaker prophesied that it is only a question of time when ice will become a curiosity in the household, and liquid air take its place. He spoke of its tremendous power of expansion, the adaptability of the exhaust gases, for use in cooking stoves, in the place of other combustibles, and also of its possibility as a destroyer of garbage.

Among utilities he advocated it as an ideal power for automobiles. Prof. Bobrick having constructed three with this motive power, and being now at work on another. An interesting experiment shown was the freezing of mercury, just common, everyday thermometer mercury, in a mold shaped like a hammer head, the handle being frozen firmly into position at the same time, the tool being afterward used to drive a nail through two pieces of plank, and fastening them firmly together. Alcohol and whisky, which freeze, respectively, at 202 deg and 175 deg. Fahr., became in a few seconds like frozen punch in appearance. These and many other wonders were done, the speaker claiming that the only time liquid air had disappointed its manipulators was when it failed to destroy typhoid germs, which remain frozen solid for any length of time, and when thawed out still possess the same degree of infective life.

Preceding the lecture Miss Mary Belle Dailey sang, "Just for Today," from "The Viceroy," and "Four Leaf Clover" (Brownell,) accompanied on the piano by Charles Woodward.

Tea was served in the Ebell parlors at the conclusion of the afternoon, Mrs. William Cross and Mrs. F. H. Kingman acting as hostesses.

Study Club.

The Monday Study Club, Mrs. Anna S. Averill leader, held an interesting meeting yesterday, devoting the first part of the morning to current history, when about twenty topics were discussed. Later the study of Whittier's poems were completed, various poems being reviewed by different members of the class, "Snow Bound," "Maud Muller," "The Barefoot Boy," "In School Days" and "Eternal Goodness" proving especial favorites. Mrs. Averill closed the lesson by a short and instructive talk on the recent advance made in surgery and medicine. There was a large attendance.

THE BEST ADVERTISING

There's a good deal of satisfaction for me in knowing that my practice grows upon the satisfaction of my patients with the work performed for them. An honest effort toward the best of work all the time is my policy—and success in attaining this result is indicated every time that a new patient tells me that a friend recommended me. A pleased patient is the best advertisement, and I never miss a chance. Ask your friends.

"ALHAMBRA TERRACE" PROPERTY
ACRES. NO FURTHER; FROM THE COURTHOUSE THAN WASH-
INGTON STREET, FOR $4000. Best buy, for making money on, in Los Angeles. Downtown, and to the north line; Alhambra ave., and to the west line; Alhambra ave., and the lake on the east line. Between the lake on the Alhambra and Pasadena cars. To reach the property you have choice of three lines—the Downey ave., Fremont line, or the one just mentioned. Is beautifully, either for use as a park, or subdivision. It would be fine as the site for a suburban residence or two or three residences, or for a tourist hotel, or a sanitarium. It would be almost impossible to find another so picturesque and adaptable, and at the same time so close in and accessible by good streets and good car lines, with the city advantages of water, gas, sewerage, etc. The tract slopes gently to the west toward the lake. The outlook from it is out of it is fine, but especially so from the higher portions, that take in the view across the city, as well as that in other directions. It could be cut up into 10 lots, of ideal terrace kind, that would sell at any prices. There is money in this property, any way it may be handled. Commission to agents.
